CAC Project Launched

New Center Asks Funds

COMMUNITY CENTER. Preparations for the opening of a new multi-service center in East Liverpool under the Office of Economic Opportunity program are discussed by the Rev. William Ring, president of the Columbiana County CAC, seated; the Rev. John Skelbred, center director, and Mrs. Ann Pack, center aide.

Solicitation of funds for a community center has been launched by the Columbiana County Community Action Committee and the new center director, the Rev. John Skelbred.

Rev. Skelbred, pastor at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church, has already begun duties as director for the center which is scheduled to open soon in East Liverpool.

Final arrangements are being made for leasing a downtown building, according to CAC authorities.

The new center will provide various programs and services to young people and others in East Liverpool and surrounding communities under the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Federal funds have been authorized for salaries and other operations, but under the provisions of the OEO programs local groups and agencies must provide quarters and various operating expenses.

In order to obtain funds for rent, utilities, certain equipment and other projects, an appeal is being made to all service groups, civic organizations, businesses and industry and individuals to assist in the program.

The East Liverpool Kiwanis Club has already contributed $200, it was announced.

Requests are also being made for office, recreational and vocational equipment and furniture, Rev. Skelbred said.

Although the program has been launched and directed by the County CAC, it is planned to form a local advisory board to administer the East Liverpool area center as part of the county structure.

The new center is expected to include two VISTA (Volunteers In Service To America) who are to be assigned early next year, legal aid services and other facilities.

Rev. Skelbred, a native of Rockford, Ill., attended the University of Illinois and University of Wisconsin, and was graduated from Hamma School of Theology at Wittenberg University.

He served at the Emmanual Lutheran Church at Cairo, Ill., for 3½ years, and was director of the Bi-County Counseling Center at Cairo. He is married, has a daughter, 2½, and has served at the East Liverpool church for over a year.

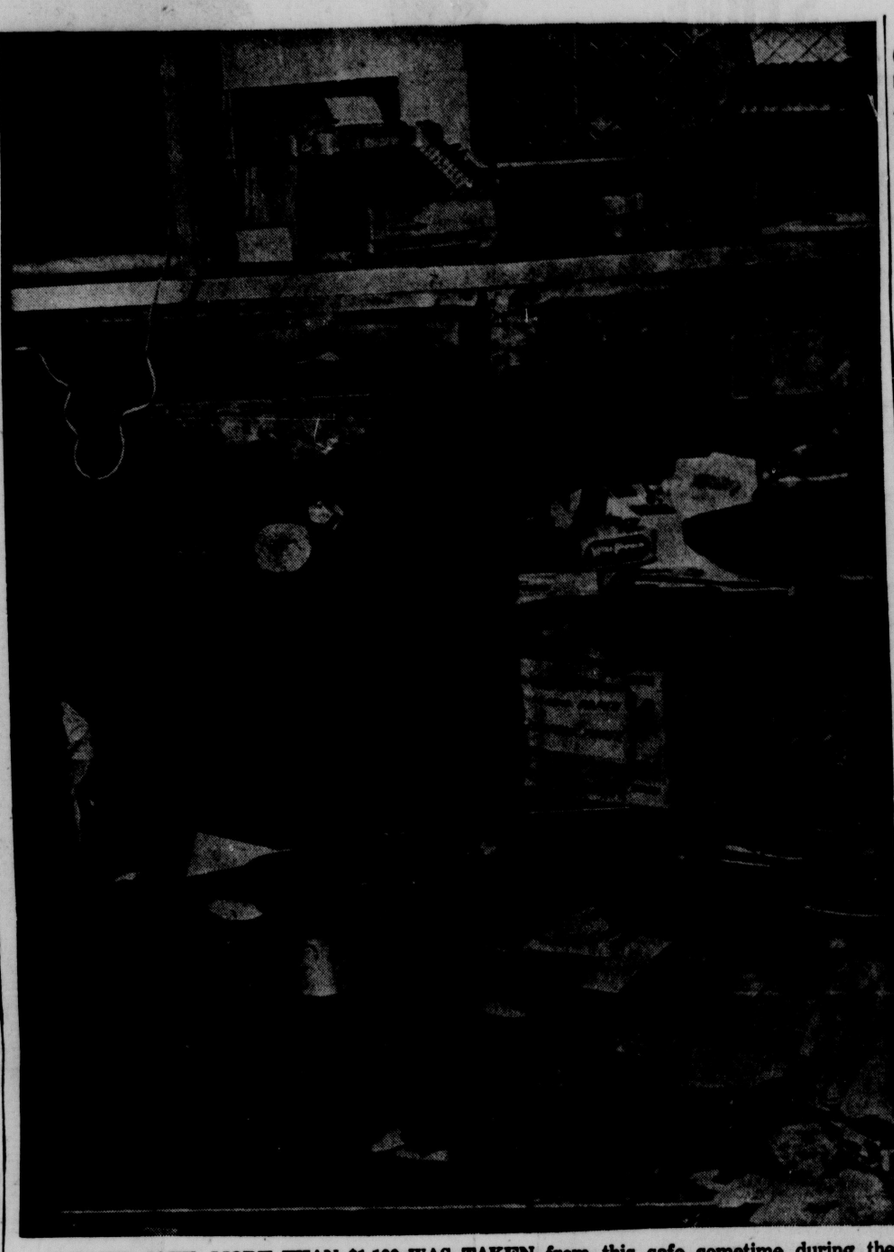
Thieves Cut Open Safe, Get $1,100 At Chester



BURNED SAFE. MORE THAN $1,100 WAS TAKEN from this safe sometime during the night at the West Virginia Liquor Store on Carolina Ave., Chester. Police Chief Audley Campbell and Hancock Sheriff's deputies discovered the safe job as they checked on a report of another entering nearby.

Stamps Lost In Liquor Store Theft

Entry Discovered As Deputies Check On Another Case

Thieves took an estimated $1,100 from a safe at the West Virginia state liquor store on Carolina Ave., Chester, early today.

Store Manager Gene Smith said 2,720 club stamps also were destroyed when the burglars apparently used an acetylene torch to burn off the safe door.

The stamps, worth $1.25 each, are affixed to bottles of liquor sold to private clubs.

Inspectors from the Alcohol Beverage Control Commission were scheduled to make an inventory today to determine if any liquor was taken.

Smith said the money taken from the safe represented the bulk of Tuesday's business.

Police Chief Audley Campbell said the thieves apparently gained entrance by prying open a back door. The safe is located in the front of the store behind a counter next to the cash register.

The thieves left through a front door, which they also pried open, Campbell said.

Campbell said Hancock County sheriff's deputies stopped at a laundromat on Carolina Ave., between 5th and 6th Sts. around 6 a.m. today to buy coffee and discovered a vending machine door open. Thinking someone had broken into it, they notified Campbell.

When he arrived, the men began checking business establishments in the vicinity and discovered the liquor store entry about 6:45.

The owner of the laundromat explained later that the machine had been broken for some time and was left open with no merchandise or money in it.

The sheriff's office said its investigation is not complete, since instructions were received from the ABC not to touch anything until its representatives arrived to conduct an investigation.

Thieves 'Hit' Three Places In District

The post office at Hammondsville was one of three places broken into by thieves during the night in the Hammondsville-Irondale area.

Frank A. Gruszecki, Hammondsville postmaster, and A. E. Eberhart of Steubenville, a postal inspector, said apparently nothing was taken from the post office.

The thieves broke a glass on the front door to gain entrance and a window at the rear of the building also was broken.

Most Major Bills OK'd By Congress

Adjournment Eyed On Weekend After Tuesday's Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress, clearing its decks of most major money measures and aiming for weekend adjournment, has okayed spending billions of dollars for government pay raises and to fight poverty while endorsing a $4.1 billion oover-all spending cut.

Congressional action Tuesday included these developments:

—Both Senate and House passed and sent to President Johnson legislation for a $5.4 billion, three-step pay raise affecting 5.5 million federal workers and servicemen. The legislation also includes a hike in postal rates, raising to 6 cents the cost of mailing a letter.

—The House passed and sent to the Senate a $1.61 billion appropriation bill for the Office of Economic Opportunity, $370 million less than Congress already has authorized for the antipoverty program.

—The Senate passed and sent to the President a bill requiring most federal agencies to cut most spending by 10 per cent—a move designed to save $4.1 billion.

Today the House is to take up a Social Security bill that would boost all benefits by at least 13 per cent as well as hike Social Security taxes. The bill provides for minimum monthly benefit payments of $55 compared with the current $44.

President Johnson is expected to sign the pay-raise bill for government employes and servicemen in time for them to get by Christmas retroactive increases from last Oct. 1. Total cost of the raises by 1969, when all stages are in effect, is estimated at $5.4 billion. It would give postal workers a 6 per cent raise, other government workers a 4.5 per cent hike and servicemen a 5.6 per cent boost.

The pay-raise bill included provisions for hiking postal rates designed to bring in an additional $900 million annually.

Next Jan. 7 regular mail stamps will go from 5 to 6 cents,

Exceeds Korean War Peak

Biggest Airlift Of War Puts Forces At 475,000

SAIGON (AP) — The biggest airlift of the Vietnam war pushed U.S. troop strength in South Vietnam to about 475,000 today, more than the peak of 472,800 American fighting men in the Korean war at its height 14 years ago.

The U.S. Command took the security wraps off the transfer from the United States of two more brigades of the U.S. 101st Airborne Division, World War II's Screaming Eagles of Bastogne. About 7,000 of the paratroopers have been flown across the Pacific since Nov. 17, and another 3,000 are due by Dec. 29.

Wearing combat fatigues with a .45 revolver and dagger tucked in his belt, the 101st commander, Maj. Gen. Olinto M. Barsanti, snapped a salute on his arrival today at Bien Hoa Airbase and reported to Gen William C. Westmoreland: "The 101st Airborne Division is present for combat in Vietnam."

Westmoreland, now commander of all U.S. troops in Vietnam, was the Screaming Eagles' commander from 1958 to 1960. The division's 1st Brigade has been in Vietnam since July 1965.

When completed, the airlift will have involved 373 transpacific flights, which after discharging men and supplies generally took off within 15 minutes on the 9,783-mile flight back to 101st Division Headquarters at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

U.S. spokesmen said the airlift is the longest and largest ever staged direct from the United States to Southeast Asia "and gave us an excellen opportunity to test our airlift capabilities"

The lift is delivering 10,356 troops, 5,118 tons of vehicles and cargo plus the division's full complement of 105mm cannon and 37 helicopters.

The new paratroopers are not expected to go into combat immediately and will receive some training before heading into the field. Then they will join the 101st's 1st Brigade, which is now part of the American Division.

The U.S. Command also removed the security wraps today from a new American infantry operation 28 miles northeast of Saigon and said 52 Communist troops had been killed in six days. Total U.S. losses for the period were put at two dead and 25 wounded.

U.S. Certain Red Pilots Fly Missions For Yemen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some well-informed U.S. officials are convinced Soviet military pilots have been flying combat missions for Yemen's Republican government against Royalist forces attacking San'a, the capital city.

This reported involvement of Soviet fliers, using Soviet-made planes and supported by Soviet ground crews—is considered here to reflect Moscow's desire to establish power positions in the Middle East, once the exclusive domain of Western interests.

The possibility of Soviet fighter participation was raised a few days ago when a Royalist information minister said the body of a Soviet pilot, carrying Russian-language papers, had been found. In official quarters in Washington, it is said there's no doubt the downed airman was a Soviet.

Yemen has considerable strategic importance because —along with the neighboring region until recently known as Aden—it dominates the 12-mile-wide southern gateway into the Red Sea.

It has a commanding position on the Suez Canal, linking the Mediterranean and the Indian oceans. The canal has been closed since the June war between Israel and the Arab states but is expected to be reopened eventually.

Washington authorities say privately they can't recall conflict similar to that in Yemen in which Soviet pilots have played such an active role.

There have been reports of such involvement in the past in troubled lands, but in the present case responsible policy

Cloudy Weather Due, With Showers Likely

The forecast calls for cloudy and little change in temperature tonight and Thursday, with a chance of light showers or snow flurries.

The low tonight is to be in the 30s.

Temperatures will average near normal Thursday through Monday, with daily highs in the mid 30s to low 40s, lows mostly in the 20s. The weather is due to turn cooler over the weekend.

Auto Union, GM Toiling On New Pact

DETROIT (AP) — With a union deadline less than 48 hours away, bargainers for the United Auto Workers and General Motors Corp. worked today on a new contract covering 380,000 union members.

If national contract bargaining is not completed by Thursday, the union says it will set a combined national and local strike deadline for early January. If the national agreement is wrapped up, however, the union will set a deadline for local contracts for later in January.

Bargainers met for more than 10 hours Tuesday in subcommittees and main table sessions.

About 5,200 workers were idled Tuesday by a one-day walkout over local contract issues at GM's Delco Radio Division plant in Kokomo, Ind.

GM is expected to go along with the provisions of contracts which over a three-year period will give Ford workers and 103,000 Chrysler employes roughly $1 an hour more in wages and fringe benefits above the old Big Three level of $4.70.

Says GOP Warring On Progress

LBJ Blasts War Critics In Labor Convention Talk

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Johnson says he will not be deterred, influenced or inflamed by his Vietnam war critics "regardless of any polls and regardless of the elections."

Departing from his prepared text in a nationally televised and broadcast speech to the AFL-CIO convention here Tuesday, the President said: "I am going down the center of the road—doing my duty as I see it —for the best of my country."

The representatives of organized labor roared their approval when Johnson said he would always be ready to hear and act on any proposal for ending the Vietnam war. And their volume increased when he added:

"But in the meantime I want you to know—and I want all Americans to know—that I am not going to be deterred. I am not going to be influenced. I am not going to be inflamed by a bunch of political, selfish men who want to advance their own interest."

The President also had harsh words for congressional Republicans, terming them "wooden soldiers" warring on progress.

He asked the representatives of the 14-million-member "house of labor" to help Democrats elect a "great Congress" in 1968.

About 2,000 convention delegates, officials and guests frequently interrupted Johnson's jibes at the Republicans with cheers, applause and laughter.

"The people know that the old Republican buggy can only go one way—backwards downhill," Johnson said. "That old Republican buggy has been colliding with us all year long," he said of GOP efforts in Congress to block or alter his proposals on education, antipoverty, medical care and Social Security.

The President's pledge to stand firm on his Vietnam policies drew renewed backing from AFL-CIO President George Meany.

"We support you, Mr. President, and we urge you to carry on," said Meany.

The only part of Johnson's speech met with silence was his plea for voluntary wage restraints, similar to his request last week for price restraint from business.

Rising prices, Johnson said, are "simply murder to all labor and to people with low or moderate incomes."

The labor delegates earlier this week said they wouldn't be bound by any voluntary restraints, such as the former

Oust Military Regime, He Asks

Greek King Makes Plea

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — King Constantine of Greece called on the eight million people of Greece today to help him oust the military regime and restore democracy and freedom.

His dramatic appeal raised the specter of civil war.

As he spoke troops and tanks took up positions around key buildings in the capital, and the government radio declared the government was ready to defend itself.

The dramatic appeal of the king came by shortwave radio from Salonika.

It came shortly after reports circulated that the 3rd Armored Corps in Salonika, the major city in northern Greece, had rebelled against the military dictatorship.

The 27-year-old monarch declared the leaders of the coup April 21 were only a segment of the army.

"A spirit of revenge will not prevail," he said, "But I will not accept any disobedience from now on and it will be crushed mercilessly. There will be no compromise."

He referred to the Communist civil war of 20 years ago and reiterated his request to the people to assist him, follow him and support him.

Air force jets took to the skies and flew low over the city.

Armored halftracks with troops in full battle dress arrived at the Parliament building to reinforce the first units that surrounded the building. It houses the offices of the junta strongman, Col. George Papadopoulos, who led the military coup that overthrew the constitutional parliamentary government.

Soldiers also appeared outside the royal palace and around the national telecommunications center.

Monday's Milestone

Terms To Close For 3 In Council

When Council convenes Monday night, it will mark another milestone in the history of the municipal legislative body—the final regular meeting for three members who will be retiring Dec. 31 and another moving up to a new post.

Harold Maylone, Republican, will bow out of the Fourth Ward post to be replaced Jan. 1 by Edward Massey, Democrat. In probably the most unique switch ever seen in the biennial game of musical chairs, Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson, Republican, will give up her Second Ward seat to her husband, John Wilson, also a Republican.

PRESIDENT Ernest Lowe, Republican, will put down the gavel that will be picked up Jan. 1 by Norman Bucher, Democrat, now a member-at-large. Donal I. Burcham of Henry Ave., a Democrat, will take Bucher's present post.

Mrs. Wilson, Lowe and Maylone each had served only one term. They were named in the 1965 municipal election. Bucher now is in his second term as an at-large member.

Two veterans will be returning to at - large seats — Robert W. Sample, Republican, and Frank Duffy, Democrat. Sample will be starting his eighth term, which means he has served in Council 14 years. Duffy will be starting his third term. when he gave up the seat to run for the mayor's office in 1963.

Burcham has no prior experience in Council, but has served many years as a member of the Municipal Civil Service Commission.

The other two ward councilmen will be starting new terms Jan. 1. They are Floyd Murray, Democrat, named for a fourth term in the First Ward, and James Lowe, Republican, who will be starting his second term in the Third Ward.

THE BALANCE of power in Council, now 4-3 in favor of the Republicans, will swing over to the Democrats by the same margin Jan. 1. That means Mrs. Betty Berg, the clerk, will step out. She is a Republican. The clerk usually is elected in a vote along party lines at Council's first meeting of the new biennium.

Mrs. Edna Sweeney is assistant clerk. A Democrat, she has held the post for many years through various switches in political control of Council.

Lowe, the retiring president, suggested recently that the clerk's term be timed to run until Feb. 1 in order to give the new appointee a chance to learn the duties under the incumbent's tutelage.

The organization meeting also usually is marked by appointment of the standing committees by the president and the election of a president pro tem to conduct meetings in the absence of the president. Sample is the present president pro tem. The president is allowed to vote only to break a tie. Such an occasion is rare, usually developing when only six members are present and they split, 3-3, on an issue.

THERE WILL be no other real changes in the city's official family as 1967 fades out and 1968 comes on the scene.

Mayor George E. Willshaw, Republican, will continue in office — remaining in the post he has held since the fall of 1965. But under a new Ohio law his term will run four years, rather than two. That means he need not run for office again until the 1971 municipal elections.

J. Michael Kapp, Democrat, will begin a four - year term as city solicitor. He moved into the office a month ahead of time after Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper, also a Democrat, submitted his resignation effective Dec. 1.

Cooper had held the job 15 years and 11 months. He said his early departure would allow his successor time to familiarize himself with the duties before the rush of city business that begins in January. Kapp is the city's first four - year solicitor. The term formerly ran two years.

Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark has accepted a post on the staff of Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis at Lisbon. Kapp is expected to name his successor next week.

Two more familiar faces will continue in office at City Hall as 1968 begins.

Treasurer Bert A. Dawson, a Republican, will begin his 25th year in the part-time post. Auditor Lawrence J. Zollinger, also a Republican, will begin a second four - year term.

Stokes Names Farcas To Development Post

CLEVELAND (AP)— George Farcas was named Tuesday as acting director of Cleveland's Community Development Department, replacing Barton R. Clausen.

Clauset resigned Monday after failing to receive a commitment from Mayor Carl B. Stokes that he would have a place in Stokes' administration.

Stokes said Farcas, a 39-year-old member of the renewal staff, will head the department only until a permanent director is found.

Stokes Accepts Bid To Run As Delegate

CLEVELAND (AP)— Mayor Carl B. Stokes said Tuesday he has accepted a Democratic party request to run in the May 7 primary as an at-large delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

The request for Stokes to run was made last week in a meeting between the mayor, Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Albert S. Porter, vice chairman James M. Carney and Dr. Kenneth W. Clement, one of Stokes' advisors.

How Much Of A Gas Rate Hike?

One of the most complex and thorny decisions faced by municipal government is that concerning establishment of gas rates for the community.

In effect, each Council acts as an agent for the homeowner, businessman and industrialist in the periodic bargaining with the utility over the rate structure.

The representatives of the gas firm are experts on their expenses and income over a whole district served. The Councilmen and the city Solicitor have to dig and scratch out independent information concerning the total picture, and relate it to their own community, not always a satisfactory procedure because of the detail, depth and complexity of the background of the natural gas industry and its economics.

The Council planning committee, which has worked for five months on the rate proposal now being considered, obviously labored long and diligently on the legislation. The Ohio Valley Gas Co. no doubt deserves a rate increase.

But whether the proposed 12.3 per cent boost is the proper compromise between the 17.7 per cent hike first asked by the utility and the increase initially offered by the city remains unclear, we believe, to the residents of East Liverpool and to some Councilmen.

In the past, representatives of communities in the area served by the gas firm have joined together in a common effort to get rate changes which were reasonable in the eyes of all the parties concerned — not just the gas firm, not just the city.

Whether the present situation justifies such an attempt is up to Council and the administration, who apparently believe the rate proposal is fair and should be accepted.

Nevertheless, it seems plausible that some sort of districtwide bargaining on such rates might be effective in the future, utilizing a professional adviser to muncipalities with sources of information not dependent upon what utility headquarters offer.

Again, we believe the Council and the local utility representatives have endeavored to achieve a realistic solution to the cost of natural gas for city residents. Whether this is the best way to work out the problem is another matter entirely.

Friends In The 4th Estate

Journalistic enterprise in the Tri - State District is not the sole province of The Review and the other dailies and weeklies which have professional staffs and the equipment for publication.

There are the high school and company periodicals and a variety of newsletters, bulletins and other gazettes which provide news and information for particular organizations or groups.

Latest off the presses is the city Kent State University Academic Center's "K.S.U. Review" and the Beaver County Home & Hospital's "The Hilltopper."

The Kent publication is an ambitious attempt to catch the spirit and thinking of the young people at the center, complete with polls, biographies of faculty, announcements, editorials and other interesting reports. "The Hilltopper" is a newsy, inspirational product which keeps a friendly hand on the pulse of the patients, residents and staff of the Brighton Township complex for the elderly.

To Editor Larry Brokaw and his Kent assistants and to Editor Bill Parish and his aides of "The Hilltopper," best wishes for continued achievements in the field of the Fourth Estate.

This Could Be Embarassing

The Review helped to spearhead a campaign to ground scofflaws in this state who drive after their driver licenses have been suspended for major infractions.

A new law that goes into effect Dec. 14. It says Ohioans who scoff at the law by driving on suspended or revoked licenses shall have the license plates of their cars impounded by the court and sent to the Ohio registrar of motor vehicles, along with the certificate of registration.

Thereafter, the car can be used only when special plates have been issued for an additional fee. These plates can be issued only for the use of the car by other members of the scofflaw's family. Because they are distinctive in color, they will make it possible for the police to stop any vehicle displaying them and demand to see the operator's driver license. This could be embarrassing.

Enforcement of this law is not optional. Enforcement is mandatory when scofflaws who have disregarded driver license suspensions show up in court for new offenses. Judges have no discretion.

Will the law work?

We can only hope for the best.

One thing we know — the time is here for auto drivers who try to drive safetly to assert themselves against scofflaws who couldn't care less about safety.

Many of these scofflaws are alcoholics who drink and drive with reckless abandon. These people lack judgment, and we have a right to make certain from now on that they lack a chance to victimize the rest of us on the highway.

We are counting heavily on their families to keep them grounded. Knowing what can happen if they scoff at the law, they, themselves, may decide it isn't worth the effort to get behind the wheel illegally any more. If we can do that much, the new law will be worth the effort required to get it on the books.

GAO Proposals Dead Letters

The General Accounting Office often rubs politicians the wrong way when it makes recommendations for government efficiency. The GAO's new proposal for updating the postal system continues the tradition.

GAO investigators took a look at the postal system and came to the conclusion it would be wise to eliminate city and community postmarks on all letters. They also proposed consolidation involving many of the 33,000 independent post offices in the United States.

Opposition will form deep in political ranks. It will be in addition to the ill will of residents of small communities who have fierce pride and view modernization as a personal affront.

GAO knows this; but its job is to recommend means of eliminating waste and inefficiency in government agencies. It is not bound by political consideration. It has come up with a way for the post office Department to save money and better serve the public.

It is up to the department to accept or reject the measures. In light of the patronage system which keeps he department running, the recommendations don't have a good chance for adoption.

Eventually, small post offices will fall by the wayside; but the department would rather see this occur when present postmasters resign, retire or die.

The GAO's ideas don't fit in very well with the Post Office Department's philosophy of operation. After all, the price of stamps always can be raised — and will be raised again in January.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

You never can tell by looking at somebody who or what he is.

Here was little Mike, who had been working around us as an attendant, or orderly, on the ward for months. We all knew he had served in Vietnam as a Navy hospital corpsman and that he had been in combat.

Smiling Mike made no bones about that. He was proud of it.

We also knew he had been wounded in combat. There is an inconspicuous scar in his neck under his left jaw, near his ear.

When he smiles, which is often, hs upper lip sags slightly down over his upper teeth. He wears glasses. At a weight of 130 pounds and a height of 5 feet 6 inches, he scarcely looks like any kind of war hero.

Then someone thought to ask him if he had won any decorations in the service.

"Yeh, I have the Silver Star," he said.

You probably are rusty on all the various war decorations, Twill, so it should be explained that the Silver Star is about fourth from the top, ranking below only the Medal of Honor, Navy Cross and Distinguished Service Medal.

Make's real name is Miguel A. Ponce. He was born 22 years ago in Santurce, Puerto Rico, the son of a truck driver. He has three sisters and one brother, with only one sister younger than he.

In response to questions, he described how he was wounded.

"We were sweeping a road for mines," he said, "and were ambushed by the Vietcong.

"This was up north in Vietnam on Marble Mountain, near Danang and the Demilitarized Zone. It was about 8 a.m. on a nice clear day. There were trees on one side of the road, open country on the other.

"We had swept the road for mines and were in trucks on the way back to the base when the Vietcong blasted the first truck, blocking the road. That's how they got us.

"A grenade fragment hit me in the neck, severing the maxilliary artery. I pressed a dressing against it to slow the bleeding until we were rescued by helicopters. Five Marines were killed. I was the only hospital corpsman there.

"We had been sweeping that road daily and there had been about 20 ambushes there."

He was wounded Oct. 11, 1966, and taken to a Navy hospital in Yokosko, Japan, where he stayed until June of this year.

His face and left eye were partly paralyzed by the grenade fragment, which accounts for his lopsided smile and his glasses.

Altogether, he spent 14 months in combat in Vietnam with the 1st and 3rd Marine Divisions.

He enlisted in the Navy at the age of 17, with his parents signing to give their permission. That was four years ago in New Jersey. Since then his parents have returned to Puerto Rico.

He hopes to go to school eventually and to become a social worker.

Loyal to the end, he says only half jokingly, "The Hospital Corps is the backbone of the Navy."

His Silver Star commendation includes the words "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity against an armed enemy."

Faithfully yours,
MAX

Odd Facts

Although there are more males than females born in the U. S. each year, the women overtake and pass the men numerically somewhere in the mid-20's. In all, there are about 100 women for every 98.6 men.

Oslo, Norway, was formerly known as Christiana.

'And His Brand Had 10 Per Cent Less Nicotine'

VICTOR RIESEL

Labor Rejects Wage Freeze

BAL HARBOUR — Shortly after President Johnson appealed to "strong labor unions" for a voluntary wage freeze, this column polled virtually all the leaders of these labor organizations in the opening hours of their national AFL-CIO convention.

Victor Riesel

All of them said bluntly there would be no moratorium in their drive for higher wages, not now, not next year either even if it means tying up some of the country's biggest industries and sprawling transportation networks.

There would have to be an official federal wage-price-profit freeze first they said. And a call to the White House troubleshooter resulted in a terse reaction: No such move is contemplated and such action by the President "is not even on the back burner."

Furthermore, there was not even a reference to the President's appeal during George Meany's 40-minute opening keynote address—and no man of labor is closer to the man in the White House than the AFL-CIO prexy.

Even if Meany had pledged his cooperation he could not bind the powerful delegations at the packed delegates tables in the Hotel Americana here. The AFL-CIO is a union of unions. Each has full autonomy. This they definitely plan to use for drives for wage increases ranging upwards from at least $1 an hour (or $40 a week). This would run at least 6 per cent, and probably more like 8 per cent higher throughout the presidential campaign year.

One of the first to dissent from President Johnson's policy was his old protagonist Roy Siemiller, militant president of the 900,000-member International Association of Machinists (IAM).

"We're going ahead in the aerospace industry," Siemiller told this correspondent, "and we can't and won't take less than 'auto' got. This means at least a dollar an hour increase for the 200,000 aerospace workers."

THOSE CONTRACTS BEGIN expiring in March and run to September — the betwitched month of crises next year — when the big Boeing pact is up.

Siemiller, who has shut down the airlines and was kept from paralyzing the nation's railroads only by an Act of Congress, said that the Machinists would cooperate with Walter Reuther's auto union, which is also in the aerospace field.

"Watch for our price-tag conference in Los Angeles next February and you'll get the full answer," said Siemiller. "We won't be frozen unless all segments of the society also are frozen."

Leaders of other powerful unions whose contracts with their industries expire next September were just as adamant despite their friendship for President Johnson—a friendship quite noticeable in the brusque treatment they are giving Robert Kennedy's quietly operating labor contact men here.

"You read the Executive Council's report," said one maritime union chief who can and probably will shut down the Atlantic and Gulf ports next summer when the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) gets into bargaining with the shipowners. "It said that there must be an increase in purchasing power to meet the increased cost of living. We want that and more to catch up."

Just how much more? The answer was given quite freely by Anthony Scotto, youngest and most aggressive of the ILA officials. Scotto, a vice president, said, "We want a better guaranteed annual wage and that means up to $10,000 a year for the workers on our piers."

What will make things tougher on the nation's waterfronts is the split between him and ILA veteran president Ted Gleason. Each is backed by an influential bloc of rival labor leaders — Scotto by the 6 million-member Maritime Trades Dept., and Gleason by the new combine of seagoing unions, headed by big Joe Curran, National Maritime Union president, called the AFL-CIO Maritime Committee.

THUS, WITH EACH side seeking greater delivery to their followers and each side backed by other unions, there may well be strikes in depth unless the shipowners come through with big wage hikes.

But the heaviest wage push of all can be expected from the union in the most critical industry of all — steel. Leaders of the United Steelworkers (USWA), I. W. Abel, Joe Molony and Walter Burke, are here spending almost as much time on their strike of the nonferrous metal mines and refineries as on the convention.

They've been talking with Under Secretary of Labor Jim Reynolds, the government's man for all strike seasons.

So Abel and company are reluctant to discuss their push on the pacemaking "can" — and soon the aluminum — negotiations. This will lead up to the big push on basic steel this summer. Then in September, the million-member USWA also will zero in on the wage drive.

The labor men of steel now are committed to a strike if they don't get at least a dollar an hour or slightly better. That's what they're saying privately.

Thus the pace setters, the Siemillers and the Abels, are telling the President: Nay. And there are scores of other labor leaders here, who joined in giving George Meany a standing ovation at the end of his keynote speech backing President Johnson on all home and foreign fronts, who nonetheless plan wide wage-hike campaigns almost from the moment they leave the convention.

Thus the new going rate for wage increases appears to be at least $40 a week over the life of the new contracts in the mass industries, and far more in such areas as building and construction.

The President can get lots of warm cheers here but no wage freeze. And if he pushes labor leaders those cheers may turn lukewarm.

DAVID LAWRENCE

Fair Play

Has the AFL-CIO become virtually a part of the Democratic party's political mechanism? If so, shouldn't the federal Corrupt Practices Act be enforced, because it forbids contributions of any kind by labor unions or corporations to a political party?

"Contributions" are defined in the law not merely as money but as "anything of value." This includes time spent during regular office hours by union or business executives in helping to mobilize political strength for presidential and congressional nominees.

It is significant that neither the National Association of Manufacturers, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, nor any other business organization takes such a part in political campaigns as does the AFL-CIO through the medium of an organization known as "COPE" — the Committee on Political Education.

DURING THE meeting of the executive council of the AFL-CIO held at Miami, which had on its program an address delivered in person by President Johnson, several utterances of political significance were heard.

George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, revealed through a spokesman the substance of his own remarks at a closed meeting of top labor leaders.

He conceded that President Johnson could be defeated in 1968 without the total political support of the 14 million members of the labor federation. Hence, he implied, it becomes important for the labor-union members to go out and work among their neighbors and friends to solicit votes for the Democratic party.

The executive council's formal report made as cogent and analysis of the political situation that confronts the Democratic party as anybody in the administration or in Congress could have written.

It said "public hostility toward legitimate civil rights progress will almost certainly stiffen as a result of urban violence." The existence, moreover, of "lethargy and factionalism" was noted, especially in the big population states "where there are decisive blocs of the electoral votes" as well as "important 1968 statewide elections and a considerable number of close house races."

While our involvement in the Vietnam War is pointed up as "a disturbing and divisive issue," public sentiment, according to the report, is equally divided between those who do and do not feel they have "a clear idea of what the Vietnam War is all about."

Republicans, it is stressed, gained 47 seats in the 1966 elections for the House of Representatives, nearly all of the victors defeating "liberals." So the report says:

"The luck of the draw is with conservatives in 1968 as a larger number of liberal incumbents will be running for statewide election in very marginal situations."

What should be done about it? The report advises that each labor-union member should help to win support among the organizations to which he belongs, such as "social, religious, civic or neighborhood groups, in addition to his work-related associations."

LIKEWISE, THE document emphasizes that "a successful political operation must comprise a number of simultaneous operations, tailored to fit the interests of the major groupings within the labor movement." The concluding statement reads as follows:

"We are resolved to marshal our forces more vigorously and efficiently than ever before so that we may more truly serve the best interests of all our own constituents—young and old, urban and suburban, black and white, affluent and poor."

These are legitimate aims, but is the method legal? If the Corrupt Practices Act is not being violated, then the door should be opened to businessmen to address their employes or canvass them through a separate organization and present the other side of the case so a citizen may make up his own mind how to vote.

Plainly, the Corrupt Practices Act should be enforced or its provisions amended so corporations can without fear of punitive measures set up associations or units in close relationship with the parent companies, just as labor unions do.

The management of every business enterprise or professional firm has a right to support a "committee on political education" to work in a state and a community in order to reach everybody of voting age, including members of labor unions.

How Much Of A Gas Rate Hike?

One of the most complex and thorny decisions faced by municipal government is that concerning establishment of gas rates for the community.

In effect, each Council acts as an agent for the homeowner, businessman and industrialist in the periodic bargaining with the utility over the rate structure.

The representatives of the gas firm are experts on their expenses and income over a whole district served. The Councilmen and the city Solicitor have to dig and scratch out independent information concerning the total picture, and relate it to their own community, not always a satisfactory procedure because of the detail, depth and complexity of the background of the natural gas industry and its economics.

The Council planning committee, which has worked for five months on the rate proposal now being considered, obviously labored long and diligently on the legislation. The Ohio Valley Gas Co. no doubt deserves a rate increase.

But whether the proposed 12.3 per cent boost is the proper compromise between the 17.7 per cent hike first asked by the utility and the increase initially offered by the city remains unclear, we believe, to the residents of East Liverpool and to some Councilmen.

In the past, representatives of communities in the area served by the gas firm have joined together in a common effort to get rate changes which were reasonable in the eyes of all the parties concerned — not just the gas firm, not just the city.

Whether the present situation justifies such an attempt is up to Council and the administration, who apparently believe the rate proposal is fair and should be accepted.

Nevertheless, it seems plausible that some sort of districtwide bargaining on such rates might be effective in the future, utilizing a professional adviser to muncipalities with sources of information not dependent upon what utility headquarters offer.

Again, we believe the Council and the local utility representatives have endeavored to achieve a realistic solution to the cost of natural gas for city residents. Whether this is the best way to work out the problem is another matter entirely.

Friends In The 4th Estate

Journalistic enterprise in the Tri - State District is not the sole province of The Review and the other dailies and weeklies which have professional staffs and the equipment for publication.

There are the high school and company periodicals and a variety of newsletters, bulletins and other gazettes which provide news and information for particular organizations or groups.

Latest off the presses is the city Kent State University Academic Center's "K.S.U. Review" and the Beaver County Home & Hospital's "The Hilltopper."

The Kent publication is an ambitious attempt to catch the spirit and thinking of the young people at the center, complete with polls, biographies of faculty, announcements, editorials and other interesting reports. "The Hilltopper" is a newsy, inspirational product which keeps a friendly hand on the pulse of the patients, residents and staff of the Brighton Township complex for the elderly.

To Editor Larry Brokaw and his Kent assistants and to Editor Bill Parish and his aides of "The Hilltopper," best wishes for continued achievements in the field of the Fourth Estate.

This Could Be Embarassing

The Review helped to spearhead a campaign to ground scofflaws in this state who drive after their driver licenses have been suspended for major infractions.

A new law that goes into effect Dec. 14. It says Ohioans who scoff at the law by driving on suspended or revoked licenses shall have the license plates of their cars impounded by the court and sent to the Ohio registrar of motor vehicles, along with the certificate of registration.

Thereafter, the car can be used only when special plates have been issued for an additional fee. These plates can be issued only for the use of the car by other members of the scofflaw's family. Because they are distinctive in color, they will make it possible for the police to stop any vehicle displaying them and demand to see the operator's driver license. This could be embarrassing.

Enforcement of this law is not optional. Enforcement is mandatory when scofflaws who have disregarded driver license suspensions show up in court for new offenses. Judges have no discretion.

Will the law work?

We can only hope for the best.

One thing we know — the time is here for auto drivers who try to drive safetly to assert themselves against scofflaws who couldn't care less about safety.

Many of these scofflaws are alcoholics who drink and drive with reckless abandon. These people lack judgment, and we have a right to make certain from now on that they lack a chance to victimize the rest of us on the highway.

We are counting heavily on their families to keep them grounded. Knowing what can happen if they scoff at the law, they, themselves, may decide it isn't worth the effort to get behind the wheel illegally any more. If we can do that much, the new law will be worth the effort required to get it on the books.

GAO Proposals Dead Letters

The General Accounting Office often rubs politicians the wrong way when it makes recommendations for government efficiency. The GAO's new proposal for updating the postal system continues the tradition.

GAO investigators took a look at the postal system and came to the conclusion it would be wise to eliminate city and community postmarks on all letters. They also proposed consolidation involving many of the 33,000 independent post offices in the United States.

Opposition will form deep in political ranks. It will be in addition to the ill will of residents of small communities who have fierce pride and view modernization as a personal affront.

GAO knows this; but its job is to recommend means of eliminating waste and inefficiency in government agencies. It is not bound by political consideration. It has come up with a way for the post office Department to save money and better serve the public.

It is up to the department to accept or reject the measures. In light of the patronage system which keeps he department running, the recommendations don't have a good chance for adoption.

Eventually, small post offices will fall by the wayside; but the department would rather see this occur when present postmasters resign, retire or die.

The GAO's ideas don't fit in very well with the Post Office Department's philosophy of operation. After all, the price of stamps always can be raised — and will be raised again in January.

Letter From Max

By Martin Miller

Dear Truman Twill:

You never can tell by looking at somebody who or what he is.

Here was little Mike, who had been working around us as an attendant, or orderly, on the ward for months. We all knew he had served in Vietnam as a Navy hospital corpsman and that he had been in combat.

Smiling Mike made no bones about that. He was proud of it.

We also knew he had been wounded in combat. There is an inconspicuous scar in his neck under his left jaw, near his ear.

When he smiles, which is often, hs upper lip sags slightly down over his upper teeth. He wears glasses. At a weight of 130 pounds and a height of 5 feet 6 inches, he scarcely looks like any kind of war hero.

Then someone thought to ask him if he had won any decorations in the service.

"Yeh, I have the Silver Star," he said.

You probably are rusty on all the various war decorations, Twill, so it should be explained that the Silver Star is about fourth from the top, ranking below only the Medal of Honor, Navy Cross and Distinguished Service Medal.

Make's real name is Miguel A. Ponce. He was born 22 years ago in Santurce, Puerto Rico, the son of a truck driver. He has three sisters and one brother, with only one sister younger than he.

In response to questions, he described how he was wounded.

"We were sweeping a road for mines," he said, "and were ambushed by the Vietcong.

"This was up north in Vietnam on Marble Mountain, near Danang and the Demilitarized Zone. It was about 8 a.m. on a nice clear day. There were trees on one side of the road, open country on the other.

"We had swept the road for mines and were in trucks on the way back to the base when the Vietcong blasted the first truck, blocking the road. That's how they got us.

"A grenade fragment hit me in the neck, severing the maxilliary artery. I pressed a dressing against it to slow the bleeding until we were rescued by helicopters. Five Marines were killed. I was the only hospital corpsman there.

"We had been sweeping that road daily and there had been about 20 ambushes there."

He was wounded Oct. 11, 1966, and taken to a Navy hospital in Yokosko, Japan, where he stayed until June of this year.

His face and left eye were partly paralyzed by the grenade fragment, which accounts for his lopsided smile and his glasses.

Altogether, he spent 14 months in combat in Vietnam with the 1st and 3rd Marine Divisions.

He enlisted in the Navy at the age of 17, with his parents signing to give their permission. That was four years ago in New Jersey. Since then his parents have returned to Puerto Rico.

He hopes to go to school eventually and to become a social worker.

Loyal to the end, he says only half jokingly, "The Hospital Corps is the backbone of the Navy."

His Silver Star commendation includes the words "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity against an armed enemy."

Faithfully yours,
MAX

VICTOR RIESEL

Labor Rejects Wage Freeze

BAL HARBOUR — Shortly after President Johnson appealed to "strong labor unions" for a voluntary wage freeze, this column polled virtually all the leaders of these labor organizations in the opening hours of their national AFL-CIO convention.

Victor Riesel

All of them said bluntly there would be no moratorium in their drive for higher wages, not now, not next year either even if it means tying up some of the country's biggest industries and sprawling transportation networks.

There would have to be an official federal wage-price-profit freeze first they said. And a call to the White House troubleshooter resulted in a terse reaction: No such move is contemplated and such action by the President "is not even on the back burner."

Furthermore, there was not even a reference to the President's appeal during George Meany's 40-minute opening keynote address—and no man of labor is closer to the man in the White House than the AFL-CIO prexy.

Even if Meany had pledged his cooperation he could not bind the powerful delegations at the packed delegates tables in the Hotel Americana here. The AFL-CIO is a union of unions. Each has full autonomy. This they definitely plan to use for drives for wage increases ranging upwards from at least $1 an hour (or $40 a week). The 10th annual Christmas party for members of the Industry volunteer fire department, the Auxiliary and families was held Sunday in the fire hall.

Candles, evergreen and poinsettias centered each table and a candle board and gold angels decorated the head table. A lighted tree centered the hall.

Santa Claus, portrayed by George Rush, presented a gift to the president, Charles Karolewski, and gifts and candy to all the children. His helpers included Miss Janet Montgomery, Miss Kathy Onuska and Mrs. George Sullivan.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. John Edmiston, Mrs. Otto Amthor, Mrs. Neil Daniels, Carl Jarvis, George Sullivan and Frank Staherec.

Neil Daniels was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Eli Sainovich sang a medley of Christmas songs followed by a duet by Valerie Tichy and Pamela Patton. A vocal selection also was presented by the Misses Tichy, Patton, Debra Loncar and Beth Eckstein. A trio of Susan Doyle, Mary Jamison and Mona Nichols also sang.

William Tichy and Otto Amthor were co - chairmen for the fire department and Mrs. Tichy, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. James Patterson were co-chairmen for the Auxiliary.

Needy Families To Get Baskets

Christmas baskets are being prepared for needy families in the Western Beaver School District.

Mrs. Duane Popp and Mrs. George Mastrovich are serving as co - chairmen for the project, assisted by school administrators.

All organizations and churches will be contacted and notes sent home with school children, Mrs. Mastrovich said. Items will be picked up at any homes on request.

Boxes will be placed in the schools and will be stored at the high school until delivery day.

Residents are asked to submit names of any family needing aid to Mrs. Popp or Mrs. Mastrovich. The co - chairmen pointed out that state law prohibits home - canned goods from being included in the baskets.

Sidney Liquor Staff, Under Probe, Resigns

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP)— The entire staff of Sidney's only state liquor store, "where possible irregularities are being investigated," has resigned, State Liquor Control Director Donald D. Cook said Tuesday.

The resignations of Manager Raymond A. Sexauer and clerks Larry F. Cotterman and Albert E. Hudgins were accepted, Cook said. Cook said alleged irregularitis might involve both money and liquor. Walter J. Meyer of Wapakoneta was named acting manager of the store.

The 10th annual Christmas party for members of the Industry volunteer fire department, the Auxiliary and families was held Sunday in the fire hall.

Candles, evergreen and poinsettias centered each table and a candle board and gold angels decorated the head table. A lighted tree centered the hall.

Santa Claus, portrayed by George Rush, presented a gift to the president, Charles Karolewski, and gifts and candy to all the children. His helpers included Miss Janet Montgomery, Miss Kathy Onuska and Mrs. George Sullivan.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. John Edmiston, Mrs. Otto Amthor, Mrs. Neil Daniels, Carl Jarvis, George Sullivan and Frank Staherec.

Neil Daniels was master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Eli Sainovich sang a medley of Christmas songs followed by a duet by Valerie Tichy and Pamela Patton. A vocal selection also was presented by the Misses Tichy, Patton, Debra Loncar and Beth Eckstein. A trio of Susan Doyle, Mary Jamison and Mona Nichols also sang.

William Tichy and Otto Amthor were co - chairmen for the fire department and Mrs. Tichy, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. James Patterson were co-chairmen for the Auxiliary.

Needy Families To Get Baskets

Christmas baskets are being prepared for needy families in the Western Beaver School District.

Mrs. Duane Popp and Mrs. George Mastrovich are serving as co - chairmen for the project, assisted by school administrators.

All organizations and churches will be contacted and notes sent home with school children, Mrs. Mastrovich said. Items will be picked up at any homes on request.

Boxes will be placed in the schools and will be stored at the high school until delivery day.

Residents are asked to submit names of any family needing aid to Mrs. Popp or Mrs. Mastrovich. The co - chairmen pointed out that state law prohibits home - canned goods from being included in the baskets.

Sidney Liquor Staff, Under Probe, Resigns

SIDNEY, Ohio (AP)— The entire staff of Sidney's only state liquor store, "where possible irregularities are being investigated," has resigned, State Liquor Control Director Donald D. Cook said Tuesday.

The resignations of Manager Raymond A. Sexauer and clerks Larry F. Cotterman and Albert E. Hudgins were accepted, Cook said. Cook said alleged irregularitis might involve both money and liquor. Walter J. Meyer of Wapakoneta was named acting manager of the store.

3 Drivers Penalized At Cumberland Court

NEW CUMBERLAND—Three motorists were fined by Squire John D. Herron in hearings Tuesday.

Darrell N. Leak, 25, of East Liverpool was fined $10 and costs for improper registration. He was arrested by State Police.

Henry W. Strum, 16, of Wellsburg paid $10 and costs for driving with faulty equipment. He was cited by Sheriff's deputies.

William L. Monroe, 23, of Newell was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center. He also was arrested by deputies.

U.S. Robot 'Scouts' Trail For Astronauts

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla (AP) —Beaming back strong signals to earth, a robot "interplanetary weatherman" named Pioneer 8 rocketed into orbit around the sun today to help weave a network that could warn astronauts of deadly solar radiation storms in space.

En route to the sun-circling path between that of earth and Mars, Pioneer 8's fiery delta booster rocket successfully kicked a radio-relay communications satellite into orbit around earth to be used for resting America's man-to-the-moon tracking network.

Court Slates Trial Of Girl

LISBON — A 17-year-old East Liverpool girl was arraigned this morning in Juvenile Court on accusation she caused problems for a Pennsylvania Ave. Ext. family with whom she had been staying for two or three weeks.

Judge Louis Tobin entered a denial of the complaint for her and set a hearing for 9 a.m. Jan. 3. He set bond of $200 but said he will not require it if the girl and her mother agree that she is to live at their home on W. 4th St. They agreed.

The court warned them the girl will be placed in detention if she does not stay at home. When the mother told the court she has no money to hire a lawyer because her former husband is not paying support, Judge Tobin appointed Lawrence Smith of East Liverpool to represent her.

Yesterday, an East Liverpool boy, 16, denied a complaint that he broke into the residence of Herman Dingess of 845 St. George St. on Nov. 13. Judge Tobin set a hearing for Jan. 2.

A hearing for three Lisbon boys, ages 10 and 11, cited for shooting windows and lights with BB guns, was scheduled for Jan. 23 since parents of two of the boys want to obtain counsel.

Cumberland Man, 20, Arrested In Burglary

A New Cumberland man has been apprehended and charged in connection with the breaking and entering of the Hancock County Health Department during the Thanksgiving weekend, when $4,000 worth of laboratory equipment was taken.

New Cumberland Police Chief William Webster said Cleveland Dean, 20, of 1935 Ridge Ave. was arrested Tuesday in connection with the entry, in which a knife used on animals believed to be infected by rabies also was taken.

Dean was arrested in his home Tuesday by Webster and Hancock sheriff's deputies on a search and seizure warrant issued by Squire John D. Herron.

Webster said Weirton police provided leads which led to the apprehension. Dean was being held under $3,000 bond for a preliminary hearing Friday at 11 a.m.

Three Youths Are Jailed In Assault Case

Three Midland youths were being held at New Brighton jail today in lieu of bond on charges of aggravated assault and battery.

Meantime, Police Chief Phillip Rini of New Brighton said a Midland juvenile is being sought in connection with the incident which occurred Tuesday.

Rini said the trio — David T. VanLear, 18, of 466 Ohio Ave., James C. Crute, 20, of 367 Penn Ave. and John L. Williams, 19, of 368 Ohio Ave.—are accused of assaulting two New Brighton teen-agers near the high school there Tuesday afternoon.

The three were accompanied by the juvenile, who has not yet been taken into custody, Rini said.

The victims were Randall Davidson, 14, of McQuire St. and Mike Yaria, 17, of 3rd Ave. They were treated at the Beaver Falls unit of the Beaver Valley Providence Hospital. Davidson suffered a cut lip and Yaria reportedly lost three front teeth and had a cut lip.

Rini said the four from Midland allegedly jumped from a car and beat up on the other two. He said from all indications the two boys were "pretty well beaten."

The older youths were picked up later by Midland police and turned over to New Brighton authorities. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Raymond Boyer, who set bond for each at $1,000. They will receive a hearing Thursday at 10 a.m.

Motorist Given Fine, Jail Term

LISBON — Leslie E. Blackburn, 23, of 122 W. Chestnut St., charged Dec. 7 with driving while under the influence of alcohol, pleaded guilty Tuesday night before Mayor Dean Stockman and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

The mayor fined Cecil Rogers, 63, of Salem RD 2 $25 and costs on his plea of guilty to a charge of permitting a unlicensed operator to drive his car. Rogers was injured Nov. 24 when his car, driven by a 15-year-old Lisbon youth, ran into a parked car on E. Washington St.

Joseph V. Jeznis, 49, of Pittsburgh is in jail awaiting a hearing on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Police cited him at 9:20 Tuesday night after he drove his 1966 sedan into a pole at the Mattix service station at N. Market and Jerome Sts.

Lisbon School Board Hires Driver-Education Teachers

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education Tuesday night employed two certified driver-education teachers to head an after-school and summer training program at David Anderson High School.

Supt. Joe W. Driscoll said the instructors will be James Agich, driving instructor at Beaver Local High School, and Joe Feth of the Lisbon high faculty. They will receive $3.50 an hour.

Driscoll said 132 students have signed for the course. Lewis Chevrolet of Lisbon furnishes the car.

Under provisions of Senate Bill 350, the school board will receive from the state $30 for each student who completes the course. In other business, the board:

Appointed Dr. Wade A. Bacon, president, to represent it at a vocational training school discussion Dec. 19 at the county board of education office here;

Granted the Business Education Club's request to make a one-day field trip next April to Robert Morris Junior College and the Pittsburgh airport at the students' expense;

Renewed for one year the contract of Richard Bowling, board clerk who was appointed last January;

Authorized payment of bills, including $3,000 for a new school bus expected this month, and $2,022 for repairs made to a boiler at the high school, and

After study of average salaries of school psychologists and guidance counselors across the state, adjusted the salary of Psychologist Cornell P. Monda from $8,500 to $9,350 and the salary of Counselor Gary Pike from $8,250 to $8,910. The salaries include extended service —one week before school and one week after the end of the school year.

NEW CUMBERLAND—Three motorists were fined by Squire John D. Herron in hearings Tuesday.

Darrell N. Leak, 25, of East Liverpool was fined $10 and costs for improper registration. He was arrested by State Police.

Henry W. Strum, 18, of Wellsburg paid $10 and costs for driving with faulty equipment. He was cited by Sheriff's deputies.

William L. Monroe, 23, of Newell was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center. He also was arrested by deputies.

U.S. Robot 'Scouts' Trail For Astronauts

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla (AP) —Beaming back strong signals to earth, a robot "interplanetary weatherman" named Pioneer 8 rocketed into orbit around the sun today to help weave a network that could warn astronauts of deadly solar radiation storms in space.

En route to the sun-circling path between that of earth and Mars, Pioneer 8's fiery delta booster rocket successfully kicked a radio-relay communications satellite into orbit around earth to be used for resting America's man-to-the-moon tracking network.

Court Slates Trial Of Girl

LISBON — A 17-year-old East Liverpool girl was arraigned this morning in Juvenile Court on accusation she caused problems for a Pennsylvania Ave. Ext. family with whom she had been staying for two or three weeks.

Judge Louis Tobin entered a denial of the complaint for her and set a hearing for 9 a.m. Jan. 3. He set bond of $200 but said he will not require it if the girl and her mother agree that she is to live at their home on W. 4th St. They agreed.

The court warned them the girl will be placed in detention if she does not stay at home. When the mother told the court she has no money to hire a lawyer because her former husband is not paying support, Judge Tobin appointed Lawrence Smith of East Liverpool to represent her.

Yesterday, an East Liverpool boy, 16, denied a complaint that he broke into the residence of Herman Dingess of 845 St. George St. on Nov. 13. Judge Tobin set a hearing for Jan. 2.

A hearing for three Lisbon boys, ages 10 and 11, cited for shooting windows and lights with BB guns, was scheduled for Jan. 23 since parents of two of the boys want to obtain counsel.

Cumberland Man, 20, Arrested In Burglary

A New Cumberland man has been apprehended and charged in connection with the breaking and entering of the Hancock County Health Department during the Thanksgiving weekend, when $4,000 worth of laboratory equipment was taken.

New Cumberland Police Chief William Webster said Cleveland Dean, 20, of 1935 Ridge Ave. was arrested Tuesday in connection with the entry, in which a knife used on animals believed to be infected by rabies also was taken.

Dean was arrested in his home Tuesday by Webster and Hancock sheriff's deputies on a search and seizure warrant issued by Squire John D. Herron.

Webster said Weirton police provided leads which led to the apprehension. Dean was being held under $3,000 bond for a preliminary hearing Friday at 11 a.m.

Three Youths Are Jailed In Assault Case

Three Midland youths were being held at New Brighton jail today in lieu of bond on charges of aggravated assault and battery.

Meantime, Police Chief Phillip Rini of New Brighton said a Midland juvenile is being sought in connection with the incident which occurred Tuesday.

Rini said the trio — David T. VanLear, 18, of 466 Ohio Ave., James C. Crute, 20, of 367 Penn Ave. and John L. Williams, 19, of 368 Ohio Ave.—are accused of assaulting two New Brighton teen-agers near the high school there Tuesday afternoon.

The three were accompanied by the juvenile, who has not yet been taken into custody, Rini said.

The victims were Randall Davidson, 14, of McQuire St. and Mike Yaria, 17, of 3rd Ave. They were treated at the Beaver Falls unit of the Beaver Valley Providence Hospital. Davidson suffered a cut lip and Yaria reportedly lost three front teeth and had a cut lip.

Rini said the four from Midland allegedly jumped from a car and beat up on the other two. He said from all indications the two boys were "pretty well beaten."

The older youths were picked up later by Midland police and turned over to New Brighton authorities. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Raymond Boyer, who set bond for each at $1,000. They will receive a hearing Thursday at 10 a.m.

Motorist Given Fine, Jail Term

LISBON — Leslie E. Blackburn, 23, of 122 W. Chestnut St., charged Dec. 7 with driving while under the influence of alcohol, pleaded guilty Tuesday night before Mayor Dean Stockman and was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail.

The mayor fined Cecil Rogers, 63, of Salem RD 2 $25 and costs on his plea of guilty to a charge of permitting a unlicensed operator to drive his car. Rogers was injured Nov. 24 when his car, driven by a 15-year-old Lisbon youth, ran into a parked car on E. Washington St.

Joseph V. Jeznis, 49, of Pittsburgh is in jail awaiting a hearing on a charge of driving while under the influence of alcohol. Police cited him at 9:20 Tuesday night after he drove his 1966 sedan into a pole at the Mattix service station at N. Market and Jerome Sts.

Lisbon School Board Hires Driver-Education Teachers

LISBON — The Lisbon Board of Education Tuesday night employed two certified driver-education teachers to head an after-school and summer training program at David Anderson High School.

Supt. Joe W. Driscoll said the instructors will be James Agich, driving instructor at Beaver Local High School, and Joe Feth of the Lisbon high faculty. They will receive $3.50 an hour.

Driscoll said 132 students have signed for the course. Lewis Chevrolet of Lisbon furnishes the car.

Under provisions of Senate Bill 350, the school board will receive from the state $30 for each student who completes the course. In other business, the board:

Appointed Dr. Wade A. Bacon, president, to represent it at a vocational training school discussion Dec. 19 at the county board of education office here;

Granted the Business Education Club's request to make a one-day field trip next April to Robert Morris Junior College and the Pittsburgh airport at the students' expense;

Renewed for one year the contract of Richard Bowling, board clerk who was appointed last January;

Authorized payment of bills, including $3,000 for a new school bus expected this month, and $2,022 for repairs made to a boiler at the high school, and

After study of average salaries of school psychologists and guidance counselors across the state, adjusted the salary of Psychologist Cornell P. Monda from $8,500 to $9,350 and the salary of Counselor Gary Pike from $8,250 to $8,910. The salaries include extended service —one week before school and one week after the end of the school year.

Decorating Ideas Exchanged During Quota Club Meeting

Holiday decorating ideas were exchanged during the Christmas party of the Quota Club Tuesday night with Miss Gladys DeBolt of W. 4th St.

Member participation was featured, with demonstrations on the preparation of various seasonal decorations and the display of items made earlier. Mrs. Margaret Duffy was program chairman.

Mrs. Doris Locke, president, conducted business when the group voted to accept a project suggestion recommended by the ways and means committee and executive board.

It was announced a birthday anniversary gift was sent to Mrs. Dorothy Horsley, charter president.

Mrs. Evelyn Exley, treasurer, announced dues are payable in January.

A calendar activity project was distributed, with proceeds to be turned in at the January business meeting.

Instead of a gift exchange, contributions were received for the Kent State Speech and Hearing Clinic.

Mrs. Margaret Locke, program chairman, announced Mrs. Mary McCullough will discuss "Gravestone Markers" during the next social meeting Jan. 23 at Mary Patterson Memorial.

Dessert was served 32 by the hostess, assisted by the social committee, Mrs. Marie Hays, Mrs. Laura Reinacher, Miss Selma Ladzinske, Mrs. Ellen McLain and Mrs. Clara Hall.

Individual tables were arranged in the living room decorated in a red and green color scheme and highlighted by a large Christmas tree. The dining room appointments were carried out in a blue and white theme and decorations featured blue, silver and gold.

Favors were cosmetic samples and crystal goblets filled with holly, ornaments and lighted candles. Pictures were taken by Joseph Ladzinske.

The next luncheon meeting will be Jan. 9 at the Travelers Hotel.

Producers Given Note About End Of Wool Program

LISBON — J. Glenn Bates, chairman of the Columbiana County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminds producers that Dec. 31 marks the end of the 1967 marketing year for the wool and mohair program.

He said this means that payments for 1967 will depend on producers completing all details of marketing either wool, mohair or lambs by that date.

Marketings completed after Dec. 31 will come under the 1968 market year and payments of them will not be available until early 1969.

Bates said farmers should make sure all details for 1967 sales are completed by the end of this month. He mentioned details such as passing title to the buyer, delivering wool or mohair to the buyer either physically or through documents such as warehouse receipts or bills of lading, transferring control to the buyer and having available all information needed to determine the buyer's total purchase price.

Bates recommends that application for 1967 market year payments under the National Wool Act be filed at the county ASC office on the Square as soon as possible, and certainly before Jan. 31.

Incentive payments under the program are based on the average national price for marketings during the whole year, and this can be determined more exactly if reports on marketings are complete, Bates pointed out. Incentive payments for the current marketing year likely will begin next April.

Forgery Case Brings Sentence In Ohio Pen

LISBON — Ronald Cornett, 26, formerly of Detroit, was denied probation Tuesday in Common Pleas Court and was sentenced to three consecutive terms of 1 to 20 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary.

Cornett plead guilty Sept. 29 to five counts of forgery, although he said he does not remember writing the checks.

Judge Joel H. Sharp ordered him to serve 1 to 20 years for each of two counts and the same sentence for the remaining three counts.

Dodd Withdraws Suits Against Two Columnists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., has withdrawn all three libel counts of his 2 million libel and conspiracy suit against columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

His attorney, John F. Sonnett, said Dodd "simply does not have the money" to continue pressing the case.

Dodd did not drop charges that the two columnists conspired with Dodd staff members to steal documents from the senator's files. Dodd says he can be awarded $1 million in compensatory damages if the court finds in his favor on this charge.

Dodd acted after Judge Alexander Holtzhoff of U.S. District Court denied a motion that Dodd be awarded a summary judgement in his favor.

Pearson and Anderson said they regarded the withdrawal of the libel charges as a personal victory.

South Africans Face Fire On 2 Scores At U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — South Africa, which for nearly two decades has frustrated U.N. attempts to change its racial policies, faced fire on two scores in the General Assembly today.

The 122-nation assembly was to discuss first possible ways of enforcing its decision last year to end South Africa's control over neighboring South-West Africa.

Later in the day the assembly was to make its annual demand that the government of South Africa abandon its policy of apartheid, or race segregation, and lift the restrictions on its 11 million blacks and 1.5 million ctizens of mixed blood.

The debates highlight the futility of repeated attempts by the United Nations, prodded by other African members, to bring South Africa to heel.

Attacks on apartheid have only helped to make the white South Africans rally around their government, and attempts to remove the mandate over South-West Africa have had much the same effect.

Woman Driver Cited In W. 5th St. Mishap

A woman driver was cited on a charge of improper backing after a mishap Tuesday at 4:11 p.m. on W. 5th St. near Jackson St. that damaged her auto and a bus, police reported.

The collision damaged a 1967 model four - door sedan operated by Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Thompson of Park Blvd. and a bus of the Tri-State Transit Co. driven by Andrew H. Holtz of 201 Baum St., officers said.

Holtz told police he was driving west in the left-hand lane when Mrs. Thompson started to back into a parking space. The front of the car crossed the center line and struck the bus near the right rear emergency doors, he said. Mrs. Thompson reported she was backing into a parking space on the north side of W. 5th St. when the bus hit the left front of her car.

Progress Continues For Heart Patient

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Louis Washkansky continued to make "satisfactory progress" today, his doctors reported, after sitting up and dangling his legs over the side of his hospital bed for the first time since his historic heart transplant 10 days ago.

Washkansky will probably leave his bed later in the week, the doctors said.

Dr. Jacobus G. Burger, medical superintendent at Groote Schurr Hospital said a second heart transplant planned for early 1968 probably will be filmed.

Rhodes Names Stehle To Employment Post

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — William Stehle, 28, Columbus, was appointed by Gov. James A. Rhodes Tuesday as the state's equal employment opportunities contract compliance officer. Stehle previously was with the attorney general's staff and the Ohio Department of Taxation.

In his new duties he will work with the Ohio Department of Highways and the Department of Natural Resources to insure compliance with fair employment orders on state construction projects.

Dodd Withdraws Suits Against Two Columnists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., has withdrawn all three libel counts of his 2 million libel and conspiracy suit against columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

His attorney, John F. Sonnett, said Dodd "simply does not have the money" to continue pressing the case.

Dodd did not drop charges that the two columnists conspired with Dodd staff members to steal documents from the senator's files. Dodd says he can be awarded $1 million in compensatory damages if the court finds in his favor on this charge.

Dodd acted after Judge Alexander Holtzhoff of U.S. District Court denied a motion that Dodd be awarded a summary judgement in his favor.

Pearson and Anderson said they regarded the withdrawal of the libel charges as a personal victory.

South Africans Face Fire On 2 Scores At U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — South Africa, which for nearly two decades has frustrated U.N. attempts to change its racial policies, faced fire on two scores in the General Assembly today.

The 122-nation assembly was to discuss first possible ways of enforcing its decision last year to end South Africa's control over neighboring South-West Africa.

Later in the day the assembly was to make its annual demand that the government of South Africa abandon its policy of apartheid, or race segregation, and lift the restrictions on its 11 million blacks and 1.5 million ctizens of mixed blood.

The debates highlight the futility of repeated attempts by the United Nations, prodded by other African members, to bring South Africa to heel.

Attacks on apartheid have only helped to make the white South Africans rally around their government, and attempts to remove the mandate over South-West Africa have had much the same effect.

Woman Driver Cited In W. 5th St. Mishap

A woman driver was cited on a charge of improper backing after a mishap Tuesday at 4:11 p.m. on W. 5th St. near Jackson St. that damaged her auto and a bus, police reported.

The collision damaged a 1967 model four - door sedan operated by Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Thompson of Park Blvd. and a bus of the Tri-State Transit Co. driven by Andrew H. Holtz of 201 Baum St., officers said.

Holtz told police he was driving west in the left-hand lane when Mrs. Thompson started to back into a parking space. The front of the car crossed the center line and struck the bus near the right rear emergency doors, he said. Mrs. Thompson reported she was backing into a parking space on the north side of W. 5th St. when the bus hit the left front of her car.

Warren Passes 2 School Levies

By The Associated Press

Voters in several Ohio school districts went to the polls again Tuesday in special elections on operating levies. But only in two districts were the levies, previously rejected Nov. 7, approved.

Warren voters approved two levies that will enable their schools to continue operation. A 19.5 mill levy was approved as was a 1.3 levy.

A 20.8 levy was defeated in November, and School Supt. David Moberly had warned that Warren schools would have to close Jan. 19 if Tuesday's levies had not been approved.

The only other approval was in the Shawnee District near Lima where a 2.3 mill levy was okayed by 1,423 favorable votes to 1,030 against.

Levies defeated were:

Waterloo District, Portage County, 9 mills; Ravenna City schools, 4 mills; Indian Lake district, Logan County, 3.5 mills; Port Clinton city schools, 4 mills; Willoughby - Eastlake District, 4.2 mills, and Wickliffe, 1.75 mills.

Arraignment Held Up In Burglary Charge

Arraignment of George Larry Hubbard, 24, of 433 Broadway, Wellsville, on a charge of burglary was continued Tuesday in Columbiana County Southwest Court at Lisbon to await the availability of his court - appointed counsel.

Hubbard is accused of a burglary Nov. 26 at the Shamrock Hardware and Lumber Co. in Wellsville. He is in the County Jail.

Police Chief John Hephner appeared in Juvenile Court at Lisbon Monday afternoon and withdrew a charge that Hubbard contributed to the delinquency of a minor girl.

Michelle Thornberry, a guest, assisted the president, Mrs. Irene Lessel, with the gift exchange during the Christmas party of St. Stephen's Guild Monday night in the parish hall of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church.

Caroling was led by Mrs. Grace Thornberry, who presented a solo. Mrs. Nellie Birch was pianist.

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Rose Calhoun, who read "The Collect" for the Advent Season.

Instead of a gift exchange, members made monetary contributions for the Christmas dinner at the Community Rescue Mission. Money also was allocated for the church general fund.

Mrs. Evelyn Crawford read a letter from Mrs. Frederick Gillette, following which the group signed a card for the former rector and his family.

Refreshments were served 24, including another guest, Mrs. Betty Thornberry. The buffet table was decorated with poinsettia, Santa Claus and lighted tapers. Favors were miniature lanterns with candles. The room was highlighted with a large tree.

The committee in charge of arrangements included Mrs. Evelyn Crawford, Mrs. Birch, Mrs. Grace Thornberry and Mrs. Eliza Evans, assisted by Mrs. Betty Thornberry.

A memorial service will be held Jan. 8.

Entertainement included selections by the Senior Citizens Group Kitchen Band at the Christmas party of Pride of Valley Council 4, Daughters of America, Friday night at the D. of A. Hall.

Vocal solos were presented by Mrs. Helen Davis and Mrs. Annie Osborn.

Thirty attended the dinner, with arrangements by Mrs. Ola Weaver.

The next session will be Dec. 22.

Randy Rabon filled red socks with sample items brought by members when his mother, Mrs. James Rabon, entertained for the Christmas party of the MNS Club Monday night at her home on Gaston Pl.

"Secret pals" were revealed with gifts and names were drawn for new ones.

Chamber Hears Discussion On Community Development

A program for total community development that will get under way full force in early 1968 was discussed by George A. Shaw, president, during a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday afternoon.

Shaw said a "steering committee" for the project will be comprised of the Chamber's executive committee, augmented by several other individuals.

Shaw also reported a request for support from a recently-organized Little Theater group. Although the project is outside the scope of the Chamber's usual activities, the board agreed it should be encouraged as a new community endeavor.

Frank Moss, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, reported on Jaycee activities and invited the board members to attend the organization's annual "Bosses Night" dinner Jan. 17.

The board also discussed a proposed "Ceramic Festival" in the spring, citing the important role in the district's economy which is played by manufacture of dinnerware, refractories, brick and tile and other items in the clay product fields.

George A. Shaw, president, reported on plans for a total community development program which will get under way in the new year. He said a "steering committee" for the project will be comprised of the Chamber's executive committee, augmented by sevral other individuals.

THE BOARD received a letter from the Ohio Chamber at Columbus reporting that area sessions will be held throughout the state in January to preview the 1968 program of the General Assembly. The Northeast Ohio sessions will be at Akron on Jan. 3 and in Youngstown and Canton on Jan. 4. The local Chamber was asked to send a delegation to one of the sessions to hear reports from Ohio Chamber experts.

E. R. Chandler, executive manager, presented a suggestion for a program for the spring membership meeting.

Francis H. Lang, chairman of the highway committee, said his group will meet in caucus session with City Council next Monday at 7 p. m. to discuss street and highway improvements, particularly extension of the Freeway into East End.

Richard R. Emmerling, chairman of the business relations committee, reported on a letter writing clinic which the committee sponsored in late November. Arthur Doak reported for the civic and community affairs committee.

Reports also were given on the fall membership meeting, and the activities of the East Liverpool Merchants Association and the North Hancock County Development Organization.

airmail from 8 to 10 cents, post cards from 4 to 5 cents and airmail cards from 6 to 8 cents.

Third class mail will go from 2.875 cents to 3.5 cents and to 4 cents in July 1969. But the rate for the first 250,000 pieces mailed in any year will be 3.8 cents.

Second-class rates, covering newspapers and magazines, will go from 1 cent to 1.1 cents next year under the minimum rate, then to 1.2 cents in 1969 and 1.3 cents in 1970.

This legislation also includes a provision to ban any more hiring of relatives by congressmen, federal judges, postmasters and other federal officeholders.

The $4.1 billion spending-cut proposal approved by the Senate is an outgrowth of the hassle earlier in the session between the White House and House Ways and Means Committee. The committee said the administration would have to come up with spending cuts before it would consider the President's proposal for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

The administration came through with the economy plan last month but by that time the tax bill was dead for this session.

The spending-cut bill exempts Congress, the federal judiciary, defense programs, veterans' benefits, Social Security benefits, farm price support programs and health insurance payments.

The Senate rejected 44 to 29 an amendment by Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., to include Congress in the economy drive.

Theater Group Selects Its Name

"Ceramic Playrites" was chosen as the name of an area theater group during a meeting Tuesday night in the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office on W. 6th St.

Donald Langsdale, director, presided and James Graham, co-director, and Mrs. Harry Wilson, secretary - treasurer, presented reports.

Membership dues were set at $5, with $2.50 to be paid each six months.

During a general discussion, it was noted that more men and more senior members are needed to portray various parts in future plays. Plays by George Bernard Shaw, including "The Epilogue of St. Joan," and other one-act plays were discussed and are being read by the directors. The final selections are expected to be made at the next meeting Jan. 2 at 7:30 p. m. in the gas company offices, when officers will be elected.

Grange Holds Dinner Event

The obligation was given to Miss Debbie Haddox at a coverdish dinner meeting of the Fairview Grange Taesday night at the New Manchester Grange Hall

Twenty attended the event at which Mrs. Mary Louise McConnell was installed as a member of the executive committee.

The Grange plans to send baskets of fruit to ill members for Christmas. The home economics committee headed by Mrs. Jennie Mills will be in charge of making candy to be sent to the Hancock County Home for the Aged for Christmas.

Dinner was served by Mrs. Marie Pugh and her committee. Dale Gardner, master, was in charge.

A program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Aletha Minor. It included carol singing, devotions by Mrs. Edith Johnston and a candlelight service with Mrs. Minor as reader.

Seven members lighted candles in the program, "Christmas Candles." They were Mrs. Helen McClain, Leonard Norris, Gardner, Charles Mills, Joy Minor, Mrs. Marie Pugh and Mrs. Florence Pugh.

A Christmas program and gift exchange will be held Dec. 26 at the hall.

Lisbon Kiwanis Will Host Clubs

LISBON — The Lisbon Kiwanis Club will be host for a dinner meeting of the 19th Kiwanis Division Thursday at 6:30 p. m. in the VFW McKinley room.

Jack Beck of the Lisbon club, lieutenant governor, will preside. The division includes 11 clubs.

Dan Myers, president of the Lisbon club, has asked its nominating committee to prepare a slate for president, first vice president and second vice president for a vote Thursday night. The action was necessitated because Ralph Rizzo, president-elect, is being transferred to highway patrol duty on the Ohio Turnpike. Former commander at Post 15 here, Rizzo was promoted to lieutenant with the transfer.

Unique Defense Fails Defendant In Assault

Robert Turner of Substation was fined $15 and costs today in Municipal Court on an assault and battery charge despite a unique defense he presented to Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

"I didn't hit this man intentionally; I swung and he was there," Turner told the court in explaining the circumstances behind an incident Nov. 13 in which he was accused of hitting Lee Babb of 1365 Sunnyside Ave.

Babb filed the affidavit, alleging that he was an innocent bystander in a tavern when hit by Turner.

Briefing On Tax Figures Given Rotarians By Bell

Property owners will be paying higher taxes next year after reappraisal of property in the county is completed, Auditor Kenneth Bell told the Rotary Club Tuesday during its noon meeting at the Travelers Hotel.

Residential gains on the tax duplicate will more than offset loss in commercial areas, Bell pointed out.

BELL SAID downtown land values will continue to decrease. He reported the auditor's office in almost every case is writing off the second and third floors of buildings because their use is almost negligible. East Liverpool's commercial and residential appraisal has been completed and the United Appraisal Co., hired by the county at a cost of more than $220,000, is now working on the industrial phase.

Bell reported property taxes presently are based on 40 per cent of their true market value, but the valuation may be increased to 45 per cent when the revaluation is complete. Increased construction costs, used as a base for appraisal over the 1956 figures used during the last appraisal in 1959, will contribute, he added. He noted many neighboring counties presently base taxes on a 45 per cent figure and, he added, "while I hope not, we probably will too."

The appraisals are carried out every six years.

HE EXPLAINED the increase in revenues will not be as great as might have been experienced because of what he termed "terrific" losses in the business community. He said land value slashes in the downtown section will be "drastic".

The latest appraisal will be completed by June 30 next year, Bell said.

Residents in the city limits pay $1,777,591.20 in taxes to the state, county, city schools and city government, Bell explained. He said .2 mills, or $8,713.68, goes to the state for the Korean War, while 4.3 mills is appropriated for the county for gross revenue of $187,344.17. Of this $94,979.13 is placed in the general fund; $871.36 goes for debt retirement; $18,319.47, county home; $13,070.52, mental health; $17,427.37, TB care; $23,962.63, child welfare, and $8,713.68, retarded children.

East Liverpool schools receive $1,246,056.58 from city residents, while those in the entire school district pay a total of $1,522,567.70.

THE CITY'S breakdown of receipts follows: $65,352.62, general fund; $43,568.42, firemen levy; $30,497.89, hospital; $104,564.18, garbage; $13,070.52, firemen pension fund and a like amount to the police pension fund, and $65,352.62, bond retirement.

Bell remarked that any improvements amounting to more than $250 must be reported to the auditor's office in order for adjustments in valuation to be made.

In response to a question, Bell said residents, if they are not satisfied with the appraised value of their property, may file a formal complaint and the county Board of Revisions, comprised of the commissioners' chairman, the county treasurer and the auditor, will review it. If that is not satisfactory, the resident can request a hearing, then file suit in Common Pleas Court and finally carry the case to the state Tax Commission.

Atty. Lawrence Smith was program chairman. Fifty attended. Frank C. Dawson is president.

New Trial Slated In Nail Tossing

EAST PALESTINE — A jury in County Judge Barry Dickson's court Tuesday was unable to come to a verdict in the case of a man charged with throwing nails on a highway, and a new trial is expected.

James Andrew Palatinus, 25, of Petersburg was charged by Sheriff Russell Van Fossan in connection with throwing nails and wood on a highway during the districtwide trucker strike in September.

Two other men previously were found guilty by juries in similar offenses. However, the panel yesterday could not reach a decision, and was dismissed.

The Columbiana County prosecutor's office indicated another trial is planned for Palatinus.

LBJ Should Reject Truce Bid, Bow Says

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Johnson should firmly reject any North Vietnam or Viet Cong suggestions for a Christmas truce in the war, Rep. Frank T. Bow, R-Ohio, said in a statement Tuesday.

He said that if the question of a Christmas truce were put to a vote by American troops in Vietnam, the result would be an overwhelming "no."

Tissues of aspens, firs, willows and some other plants hold tiny but measurable amounts of gold.

Ruritan Club Plays 'Santa' For Children

Welfare children were Christmas guests of the Liverpool-Calcutta Ruritan Club Monday night at the Glenmoor fire hall, with 30 members and guests present.

Following the dinner, Santa Claus distributed gifts to the children. Christmas decorations featured a large decorated tree contributed by Carl Wollam, a club member.

Salvation Army Capt. Richard Bosh led the group in singing carols.

Ruritan Lt. Gov. Robert Nelson of Toronto commended the club for its community service effort.

William Hutchinson, Sr. was welcomed as a new member. Harold Ginder, president, reported on the progress of the club's sale of Christmas bows for the benefit of the retarded children's school at Elkton.

Plans were continued for Santa Claus visitations at private homes or groups during the holidays for a small fee.

Parked Car Seen Cause Of Mishap In Calcutta Area

A legally parked auto along Route 170 at the St. Clair Plaza was blamed for a two - car collision Tuesday afternoon, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

Deneane R. Thomas, 18, of Maple Dr. was cited after the collision between her 1965 sedan and a 1959 truck operated by Edward V. Green, 48 of RD 2.

Officers said the young woman was headed south out of the parking area, halted at the highway, then pulled out onto Route 170, turning east into the path of the westbound truck. There was moderate damage to the sides of both vehicles.

Officers said an auto on the north side of the roadway obstructed the view of the motorists even though it was legally parked.

Miss Thomas was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way.

2 Fined And 3 Forfeit On Speeding Charges

Two motorists were fined $15 and costs today in Municipal Court on speeding charges filed by the Ohio Highway Patrol and three more forfeited $27.50 appearance bonds.

Judge Samuel E. Chertoff imposed the fines on Harry A. Thrasher of 107 21st St., Wellsville, and William E. Adams of 1025 Commerce St., Wellsville, both cited Sunday at 2:55 a.m. on Route 7.

The appearance bonds were forfeited by Parley G. Reger of Stow, Donald E. Meech of Akron and William H. Carroll of Cleveland, all cited by the patrol on Route 30.

Could Force Backing U.S. Dollar

7-Nation Gold Agreement Puts Squeeze On France

LONDON (AP) — The Times of London said today that a new seven-nation gold agreement puts an "ingenious squeeze" on the French government which could force it to support the U.S. dollar with restrictions on gold sales.

To protect the dollar, the Times said the United States and its six partners in the gold pool agreed at a secret meeting in Basel, Switzerland, on Sunday and Monday to ban dealing in future sale or delivery of gold, to ban dealing in gold on credit, and to ban bids on behalf of other central banks which now will have to apply directly to the U.S. Treasury.

Members of the pool are the United States, Britain, West Germany, Italy, Switzerland, the Netherlands and Belgium. France withdrew last June but kept quiet about it until the French government leaked the information in the wake of the devaluation of the pound and added to the brief gold rush which developed then.

The new measures aim to protect official gold reserves from speculators during the readjustment of the international monetary system in the wake of the devaluation of the pound. But the measures amount to massive support for the dollar since they should help to protect the U.S. gold reserve.

The Times said application of the Basel agreement to the gold markets of the seven nations would naturally divert gold speculators to other centers, "of which Paris is the most natural an dconvenient."

"If the French authorities refuse to meet (the demand)," the paper continued, "they will be obliged to float the French franc either down against gold or up against the dollar.

"The first would gravely damage Gen. De Gaulle's prestige, and the second would weaken the international competitiveness of the whole French economy, which is already highly suspect.

Man Injured In Barge Fall, 8 Others Treated At Hospital

A Pittsburgh man injured in a fall onto a barge, a Steubenville resident hurt while hunting and a city youth injured playing basketball at school Tuesday were admitted to City Hospital, where six others were treated.

Peter Alouise of Pittsburgh, employed by the Campbell Barge Line of Pittsburgh, is in "good" condition with possible back or pelvic injuries sustained in a fall about 10 feet onto a barge loaded with steel pipe while working on the towboat D. L. Johnson on the Ohio River near the Allied Oil Co., below Wellsville. He was brought to City Hospital by MacLean's ambulance.

Robert V. Huber of 1308 Oregon Ave., Steubenville, is in "good" condition with a laceration of the right hand suffered when his gun discharged while he was reloading it.

Daniel G. Dawson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dawson of Elmhurst Pl. is in "fair" condition with a fractured left arm suffered while playing basketball at Westgate Junior High School.

Treated Tuesday were Jeffrey Davidson of 211 10th St., Wellsville, employed by Craven's Parts Service, a contusion of the right foot when an armature fell; Rickey Ice of 1909 Pennsylvania Ave., employed by the Ohio Brass Co., a contusion of the right foot when clay fell.

Mrs. Doyle Gilkinson of Lisbon RD 1, scalds of the left hand from coffee; Harold Dalrymple of Irondale, employed by the Day and Zimmerman Co., an abrasion of the right hand when steel fell.

James Chase, son of Mrs. Betty Stark of 1220 Commerce St., Wellsville, a right foot injury while playing basketball at school; William Pfirrman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pfirrman of the Ceramic Hotel, a fractured right arm in a fall at home.

Elections Set On Thursday For Crucible

Eleven nominees have been submitted for election to the Board of Directors of the Crucible Steel Co. at a stockholders' meeting Thursday at 11 a. m. in Pittsburgh.

Stockholders also will consider a measure authorizing the increase of common stock of the company from 5 million to 15 million shares and authorizing 2 million shares of new preferred stock.

The nominees for directors are Jack R. Clumeck, a partner in the L. C. L. Co., a real estate and investment firm in San Francisco; William A. Coolidge, a retired director of various corporations; W. E. Gregg, executive vice president of Crucible; James H. Higgins, senior vice president of the Mellon National Bank and Trust Co. of Pittsburgh; Joel Hunter, chairman of the Crucible Board of Directors; John C. Lobb, president and chief executive of Crucible; William H. Rea, president of the Oliver Tyrone Corp. of Pittsburgh; Raymond A. Rich, chairman of Canadian Hydrocarbons, Ltd., of Alberta, Canada; Norton Simon of Hunt Foods and Industries, Inc.; S. A. Swensrud, a petroleum industry consultant, and Max E. Wildman, a senior partner of Wildman, Harold, Allen & Dixon (attorneys) at Chicago.

All presently serve on the board except Wildman, who represents Morris Rubin, leader of a group of dissident stockholders who had prevented any stockholder meetings since April 1965.

All Windows Smashed At 7th St. Dwelling

L. W. Shertzinger of Salineville RD 2 told police late Tuesday afternoon young vandals broke all the windows out of a vacant home at 247 W. 7th St. which he owns.

Shertzinger reported the panes were smashed sometime between 2:30 and 4 p. m.

In another case of vandalism, Mrs. Joann Lisk of 1049 St. George St. told police Tuesday afternoon the radio antenna was broken off her car while it was parked at her home between 8:30 p. m. Monday and 7:05 a. m. yesterday.

A good reason why the Colts and Rams, who clash Sunday for the Coastal Division championship of the NFL, have the best records in the league is offered in the turnover statistics.

The Colts have lost the ball only 23 times on interceptions and fumbles and have grabbed the ball from their opponents 39 times by these means. The difference of plus 16 is tops in the league and the Rams are a step behind at plus 15. Dallas leads in most "steals" with 44, but has yielded the ball 38 times by these methods.

Surprisingly, the Steelers are not last in this department, ranking 14th with a minus 8 mark. Pittsburgh has played Santa Claus 42 times, but stolen the ball 34 times. A surprise last place team in this category is St. Louis, with 43 giveaways and a net of minus 13. The Browns are seventh at plus one.

It's easy to see why the Colts are undefeated, as they lead the league in scoring at 28.2 points a game and also in defense at 12.6 points a game. Baltimore also leads in first downs, yards gained, passing completion percentage, least times caught and least yards lost attempting to pass, least had intercepted, least penalty yards, least fumbles, most TDs, most TDs by rushing, most extra points, most interceptions, most yards interceptions returned, fewest TDs given up and fewest TDs given by running and passing.

The Rams can match this impressive array of statistics only with most rushes, least yards interceptions returned, least TDs on interceptions, most punt returns, most field goals attemped and fewest yards yielded per rush.

Individually, Leroy Kelly of the Browns is still first in rushing and teammate Ernie Green is eighth. Ben Davis leads in punt returns and is fifth in kickoff returns and Jim Bradshaw of the Steelers is 10th in punt returns. Kelly is tied for eighth in scoring and Frank Ryan tied for sixth in passing. J. R. Wilburn of the Steelers is the eighth-ranked pass receiver and Marv Woodson of Pittsburgh ninth in interceptions.

IN MORE grid statistics, Youngstown State U. finished 15th nationally among small colleges in rushing and 20th in total offense.

DENNIS HROMIKA of Beaver recently received his third football letter at Toledo. The real story behind this announcement is that Dennis' father saw every game Dennis played on the Rocket varsity and estimates he drove about 25,000 miles in the course of the three seasons to do this.

THE WALTER CAMP All-America team, at one time the only All-America team but dormant since the early 1930s, is back with us this year. I wonder if this is part of the "camp" movement we heard so much about a while back.

OAK GLEN, despite a 1-2 record at the time, was ranked 21st in the UPI West Virginia state basketball rankings. Weirton, their opponent last night, was tied for 11th despite losing its only start. Oak Glen was 1-0 and Weirton 0-0 against West Virginia competition going into last night's game, however. Wellsburg, which will appear at Oak Glen Friday, is tied for 14th. Follansbee, a future Golden Bear opponent, is 24th.

DON SPIRES, former Stanton Local and Ohio U. basketball player, has been promoted to assistant manager of the Robert Hall store in Youngstown. He was an all-state basketball player for Stanton Local and then attended O.U. on a scholarship, where he lettered for three years.

Carnes, Crago High Scorers

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

A jump shot from the corner by Bob Miller — his only points of the game — with 12 seconds to go in the second overtime gave Oak Glen its first overtime win in history by a 71-70 score at Weirton last night.

The win brought the Golden Bears' record to 2-2, 2-0 against West Virginia competition. The loss was the second in a row for Weirton, both by one point.

There were many heroes for Bob Starkey's team, including Rich Gogol, who made a foul shot and got three rebounds in the second overtime; Jim Carnes, who made two baskets in the overtimes; and Steve Logston, who dropped in a pair of fouls to tie the game with 53 seconds left in the first overtime.

Carnes led the Golden Bears with 20 points, Dan Crago had 17, Logston 14 and John Roach 12. Ron Smith, a 5-8 driver, scored 21 for the Red Riders to top all scorers and Rich Strong added 20.

Crago led all rebounders with 20, including six in the nip-and-tuck final period and three in the first overtime and Roach added 10 as the winners controlled the boards 72-59. Strong had 12 rebounds, seven in the overtimes, to pace the Red Riders and Ron Gregory had 10. Terry Strong collected seven recoveries coming off the bench in the second half.

The winners were hurt by 24 turnovers, compared to only 13 by Weirton. Weirton got off 93 shots from the floor, making 32 for a 34.5 per cent. OG managed only 69 field goal attempts, connecting on 25 for a 36.5 percentage, but won the game at the foul line, canning 21 of 36 tosses compared to 6 of 17 for Burdell (Jim) Corey's team.

The game started as though the Golden Bears would run the home club out of the gym. They hit 9 of 15 for 60 per cent in the first period, mostly from outside, including four by Carnes. The biggest lead was 26-14 midway in the second period, but Smith and Tom Clark brought the Riders back to 23-28 at halftime as Oak Glen cooled off and shot only 16 per cent on 3 of 19 in the second quarter. Weirton switched from a zone to a man-to-man defense to cut down on the Bears' bombing.

THE THIRD PERIOD, which has been a bugaboo for the Golden Bears all season, looked as if it might lead to another defeat for OG. Trailing 37-33 Weirton ran off nine straight points to take a 42-37 lead. Gregory led the surge.

But Crago hit a pair of baskets to keep the Bears in the contest and they ended the period shooting 44 per cent on 7 of 16 and trailed only 46-45. Weirton controlled the boards by a 20-13 margin in the third stanza after being outrebounded 31-19 in the first half.

In the fourth quarter the visitors hit on only 3 of 15 shots for 20 per cent, but controlled the boards 22-12 and connected on 11 of 17 free throws while Weirton managed only 2 of 7.

Gogol missed a lay-up off the opening tip in the period, but made a foul to tie the game at 46. Smith drove for a basket to untie it and Crago countered with a foul. Terry Strong scored for a three point advantage for the home club but Logston made two fouls. Strong made one foul for a 51-49 edge, but Carnes knotted the count with a basket. Two fouls by Carnes put the visitors ahead, but Rich Strong tied it with four minutes to go. Logston made another brace of free throws, but again a Strong basket tied it. Crago made a foul, but Weirton regained the lead 57-56 on a jumper by Strong with 3 minutes left.

Crago scored a basket with 2:30 to go, but missed a one-on-one opportunity a few seconds later. But Carnes hit a basket to put Oak Glen up 60-57 with two minutes left. With 1:04 remaining Smith brought Weirton even with a lay-up and a foul shot for a three - point play. With 55 seconds remaining John Roach made both ends of a one-on-one. Weirton missed their next shot and Gogol got the rebound but lost the ball. Weirton missed another shot and Carnes controlled a jump ball with 26 seconds left.

SMITH STOLE the ball with 12 seconds to go and made a lay - up to tie the game. A shot by Logston was not good as the buzzer sounded.

In the first three - minute overtime a long shot by Gregory put the home club ahead with 2:15 left. Carnes countered with a lay-up with 1:50 left but Strong untied in on a tap-in with 1:15 showing on the clock. Logston hit two more fouls with 53 seconds left to tie it at 66-66. Strong missed and Crago rebounded, but Oak Glen lost the ball with 10 seconds to go. A shot by Dick Carey bounced off the rim as the first overtime ended still tied.

A long shot by Carnes made it 68-66 with 1:50 left in the second overtime. Oak Glen regained possession but Crago missed a shot and Smith put in a short shot to tie it with 1:10 left. Gogol walked wih the ball seconds later. After a missed Weirton shot (they were 4 for 16 in the overtime compared to 3 for 4 for OG) Strong controlled a jump ball. Gregory took a wild shot and Gogol again rebounded. He was fouled by Terry Strong and with 43 seconds to go made the first but missed the second. Rich Strong rebounded the shot and at the other end of the court the 6-3 leaper made good on a second tap and with just 18 seconds to go Weirton was ahead 70-69.

But Miller was in the clear for his jumper and then the Golden Bears stole the ball and controlled it until the final horn sounded.

Starkey called Miller, Gogol and Logston "clutch players" for their performances. He noted that Weirton controlled the tempo of the game in the third quarter, speeding it up, and this got Oak Glen in trouble. The Golden Bears do better when they can use a pattern offense and pick the good shots.

THE ONLY OTHER overtime game in the history of the school was last year when the Golden Bears lost in three overtimes at Follansbee.

In the reserve game Oak Glen rallied after trailing by as much as 19-7 in the second quarter to win 49-38. John Whitacre, who hit 7 of 10 shots from the floor, mostly long jumpers, came off the bench to spark a second period surge that made it 21-19 in favor of Weirton at halftime. In the third period, down 26-21, Oak Glen outscored the home team 12-2 to take the lead for good, even though a 10-point margin was cut in half with three minutes to go before the winners regained momentum.

Whitacre ended with 14 points and Chuck Gillespie, another sub, 13. Tim Crago had 19 rebounds and Steve Staley 13. Nick Greiner was high for the losers with 13 points and Mark Robinson and Tom Battista had 14 rebuonds each. Oak Glen had a 38-22 rebounding edge in the second half after being outrebounded 29-21 the first half.

Beaver Local 8th Graders Win 25-15

The Beaver Local eighth grade basketball team evened its record at 1-1 with a 25-15 win over East Palestine at Beaver Local yesterday.

Dean Horger got 14 and Jeff Hall 8 for the winners and Brown 8 for the losers, now 1-3.

The Pirates leading home run hitter in 1967 was Roberto Clemente, with 23. Roberto hit 14 of these home runs on the road, 9 at Forbes Field.

East Junior Wins First

East Junior High evened its record at 1-1 with a 57-38 win over Columbiana at East yesterday.

Jim Morehead scored 19 and Willie Ruffin 12 to pace Bob Thompson's club while Osoff netted 10 for the losers.

The major league baseball record for most runs batted in during one inning is seven set by Ed Cartwright of St. Louis in 1890.

New Grid Coach Named At Marshall

HUNTINGTON, W.VA. (AP) —Marshall University President Stewart H. Smith announced Tuesday night the appointment of George B. Miller Jr. as head football coach of the Thundering Herd.

Miller has been backfield coach at Purdue since 1965. He also has coached at Iowa State, Indiana and Wyoming.

He replaces Charlie Snyder, who was fired in the final week of the Herd's winless season.

Miller, 39, is a native of Portsmouth, Va. He was graduated from Wofford College at Spartanburg, S.C., in 1952.

Miller and his wife, Dawn, have two children.

Unitas Heads NFL All-Star Team

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — John Unitas, shut out without a vote last year, was named quarterback of the National Football League All-Star team selected for The Associated Press today by a panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Unitas' skill in guiding the Colts through 13 games without defeat was recognized by a landslide vote of the committee, three from each league city.

Despite the Colts' fine record, the old reliable Green Bay Packers still had the most men on the team with a total of six, two on offense and four on defense. Dallas placed four and Baltimore three. Nine of the teams had players on the first team. New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New Orleans, Minnesota, Detroit and San Francisco were blanked.

Looking ahead to Sunday's meeting of the Colts and Los Angeles Rams for the right to play the Packers in the Western Conference final, Baltimore has Unitas, tight end John Mackey and flanker Willie Richardson on the first offensive team. The Rams put two of their Fearsome Foursome on the defensive line — end Dave "Deacon" Jones and tackle Merlin Olsen.

Unitas' running backs on the first team were the incomparable Gale Sayers of Chicago and Leroy Kelly of Cleveland. His receivers were Mackey, Richardson and split end Charley Taylor of Washington.

Bob DeMarco of St. Louis was the center, flanked by Jerry Kramer of Green Bay and Gene Hickerson of Cleveland at the guards and Ralph Neely of Dallas and Forrest Gregg of Green Bay at the tackles.

The five repeaters from 1966 on offense were Mackey, Gregg, Kramer, Kelly and Sayers. Taylor replaced Dallas' Bob Hayes, Neely took Philadelphia Bob Brown's job at tackle and Hickerson supplanted John Thomas of San Francisco. Both Brown and Thomas were injured much of the season anl Hayes wound up with a pulled hamstring.

DeMarco succeeded Mick Tingelhoff of Minnesota and Richardson took the flanker job that Detroit's Pat Studstill had a year ago.

Unitas, of course, was filling the spot Bart Starr of Green Bay held in 1966.

There were only three changes in the defensive unit, two linebackers and one cornerback. The same front four were back. That meant Willie Davis of Green Bay at one end and Jones at the other with Bob Lilly of Dallas and Olsen at the tackles.

Tommy Nobis of Atlanta pushed his way into the middle linebacker job, held by Green Bay's Ray Nitschke last year. Dave Robinson of the Packers, replacing teammate Lee Roy Caffey, and repeater Chuck Howley of Dallas, were the other linebackers.

Bob Jeter of the Packers ousted his veteran teammate, Herb Adderley, from one starting corner back job. Cornell Green of Dallas was a repeater at the other corner and both Larry Wilson of St. Louis and Willie Wood of Green Bay weere back again as safeties.

South Side Whips Avella, Doak Leads Way With 26

South Side held Avella to only three points in the second period and hung on for a 77-65 win on the losers' court last night.

The Rams, now 4-1, took a 31-21 halftime lead and never lost it, though Avella closed to 49-45 as the last period began. Avella hit 1 of 15 shots in the second period, but their overall shooting percentage was a respectable 36 on 23 of 64 shots. South Side hit 33 of 82 for 40 per cent.

Tom Doak took scoring honors with 26 points and Ron Peden added 17, Dan Hartzell 14 and Francis Nash 10. Peden also grabbed 19 rebounds as South Side led 39-29 in that department.

Tom Latalsky was high for the losers, now 1-4, with 17, while Larry Lis added 14, Dave Linda 12 and John Matello 10.

In the JV game South Side won 36-19 as Jim Searight scored 9 and Doug Williamson 8.

Beaver Local 8th Graders Win 25-15

The Beaver Local eighth grade basketball team evened its record at 1-1 with a 25-15 win over East Palestine at Beaver Local yesterday.

Dean Horger got 14 and Jeff Hall 8 for the winners and Brown 8 for the losers, now 1-3.

The Pirates leading home run hitter in 1967 was Roberto Clemente, with 23. Roberto hit 14 of these home runs on the road, 9 at Forbes Field.

East Junior Wins First

East Junior High evened its record at 1-1 with a 57-38 win over Columbiana at East yesterday.

Jim Morehead scored 19 and Willie Ruffin 12 to pace Bob Thompson's club while Osoff netted 10 for the losers.

The major league baseball record for most runs batted in during one inning is seven set by Ed Cartwright of St. Louis in 1890.

Carnes, Crago High Scorers

A jump shot from the corner by Bob Miller — his only points of the game — with 12 seconds to go in the second overtime gave Oak Glen its first overtime win in history by a 71-70 score at Weirton last night.

The win brought the Golden Bears' record to 2-2, 2-0 against West Virginia competition. The loss was the second in a row for Weirton, both by one point.

There were many heroes for Bob Starkey's team, including Rich Gogol, who made a foul shot and got three rebounds in the second overtime; Jim Carnes, who made two baskets in the overtimes; and Steve Logston, who dropped in a pair of fouls to tie the game with 53 seconds left in the first overtime.

Carnes led the Golden Bears with 20 points, Dan Crago had 17, Logston 14 and John Roach 12. Ron Smith, a 5-8 driver, scored 21 for the Red Riders to top all scorers and Rich Strong added 20.

Crago led all rebounders with 20, including six in the nip-and-tuck final period and three in the first overtime and Roach added 10 as the winners controlled the boards 72-59. Strong had 12 rebounds, seven in the overtimes, to pace the Red Riders and Ron Gregory had 10. Terry Strong collected seven recoveries coming off the bench in the second half.

The winners were hurt by 24 turnovers, compared to only 13 by Weirton. Weirton got off 93 shots from the floor, making 32 for a 34.5 per cent. OG managed only 69 field goal attempts, connecting on 25 for a 36.5 percentage, but won the game at the foul line, canning 21 of 36 tosses compared to 6 of 17 for Burdell (Jim) Corey's team.

The game started as though the Golden Bears would run the home club out of the gym. They hit 9 of 15 for 60 per cent in the first period, mostly from outside, including four by Carnes. The biggest lead was 26-14 midway in the second period, but Smith and Tom Clark brought the Riders back to 23-28 at halftime as Oak Glen cooled off and shot only 16 per cent on 3 of 19 in the second quarter. Weirton switched from a zone to a man-to-man defense to cut down on the Bears' bombing.

THE THIRD PERIOD, which has been a bugaboo for the Golden Bears all season, looked as if it might lead to another defeat for OG. Trailing 37-33 Weirton ran off nine straight points to take a 42-37 lead. Gregory led the surge.

But Crago hit a pair of baskets to keep the Bears in the contest and they ended the period shooting 44 per cent on 7 of 16 and trailed only 46-45. Weirton controlled the boards by a 20-13 margin in the third stanza after being outrebounded 31-19 in the first half.

In the fourth quarter the visitors hit on only 3 of 15 shots for 20 per cent, but controlled the boards 22-12 and connected on 11 of 17 free throws while Weirton managed only 2 of 7.

Gogol missed a lay-up off the opening tip in the period, but made a foul to tie the game at 46. Smith drove for a basket to untie it and Crago countered with a foul. Terry Strong scored for a three point advantage for the home club but Logston made two fouls. Strong made one foul for a 51-49 edge, but Carnes knotted the count with a basket. Two fouls by Carnes put the visitors ahead, but Rich Strong tied it with four minutes to go. Logston made another brace of free throws, but again a Strong basket tied it. Crago made a foul, but Weirton regained the lead 57-56 on a jumper by Strong with 3 minutes left.

Crago scored a basket with 2:30 to go, but missed a one-on-one opportunity a few seconds later. But Carnes hit a basket to put Oak Glen up 60-57 with two minutes left. With 1:04 remaining Smith brought Weirton even with a lay-up and a foul shot for a three - point play. With 55 seconds remaining John Roach made both ends of a one-on-one. Weirton missed their next shot and Gogol got the rebound but lost the ball. Weirton missed another shot and Carnes controlled a jump ball with 26 seconds left.

SMITH STOLE the ball with 12 seconds to go and made a lay - up to tie the game. A shot by Logston was not good as the buzzer sounded.

In the first three - minute overtime a long shot by Gregory put the home club ahead with 2:15 left. Carnes countered with a lay-up with 1:50 left but Strong untied in on a tap-in with 1:15 showing on the clock. Logston hit two more fouls with 53 seconds left to tie it at 66-66. Strong missed and Crago rebounded, but Oak Glen lost the ball with 10 seconds to go. A shot by Dick Carey bounced off the rim as the first overtime ended still tied.

A long shot by Carnes made it 68-66 with 1:50 left in the second overtime. Oak Glen regained possession but Crago missed a shot and Smith put in a short shot to tie it with 1:10 left. Gogol walked wih the ball seconds later. After a missed Weirton shot (they were 4 for 16 in the overtime compared to 3 for 4 for OG) Strong controlled a jump ball. Gregory took a wild shot and Gogol again rebounded. He was fouled by Terry Strong and with 43 seconds to go made the first but missed the second. Rich Strong rebounded the shot and at the other end of the court the 6-3 leaper made good on a second tap and with just 18 seconds to go Weirton was ahead 70-69.

But Miller was in the clear for his jumper and then the Golden Bears stole the ball and controlled it until the final horn sounded.

Starkey called Miller, Gogol and Logston "clutch players" for their performances. He noted that Weirton controlled the tempo of the game in the third quarter, speeding it up, and this got Oak Glen in trouble. The Golden Bears do better when they can use a pattern offense and pick the good shots.

THE ONLY OTHER overtime game in the history of the school was last year when the Golden Bears lost in three overtimes at Follansbee.

In the reserve game Oak Glen rallied after trailing by as much as 19-7 in the second quarter to win 49-38. John Whitacre, who hit 7 of 10 shots from the floor, mostly long jumpers, came off the bench to spark a second period surge that made it 21-19 in favor of Weirton at halftime. In the third period, down 26-21, Oak Glen outscored the home team 12-2 to take the lead for good, even though a 10-point margin was cut in half with three minutes to go before the winners regained momentum.

Whitacre ended with 14 points and Chuck Gillespie, another sub, 13. Tim Crago had 19 rebounds and Steve Staley 13. Nick Greiner was high for the losers with 13 points and Mark Robinson and Tom Battista had 14 rebuonds each. Oak Glen had a 38-22 rebounding edge in the second half after being outrebounded 29-21 the first half.

New Grid Coach Named At Marshall

HUNTINGTON, W.VA. (AP) —Marshall University President Stewart H. Smith announced Tuesday night the appointment of George B. Miller Jr. as head football coach of the Thundering Herd.

Miller has been backfield coach at Purdue since 1965. He also has coached at Iowa State, Indiana and Wyoming.

He replaces Charlie Snyder, who was fired in the final week of the Herd's winless season.

Miller, 39, is a native of Portsmouth, Va. He was graduated from Wofford College at Spartanburg, S.C., in 1952.

Miller and his wife, Dawn, have two children.

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — John Unitas, shut out without a vote last year, was named quarterback of the National Football League All-Star team selected for The Associated Press today by a panel of sports writers and sportscasters.

Unitas' skill in guiding the Colts through 13 games without defeat was recognized by a landslide vote of the committee, three from each league city.

Despite the Colts' fine record, the old reliable Green Bay Packers still had the most men on the team with a total of six, two on offense and four on defense. Dallas placed four and Baltimore three. Nine of the teams had players on the first team. New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, New Orleans, Minnesota, Detroit and San Francisco were blanked.

Looking ahead to Sunday's meeting of the Colts and Los Angeles Rams for the right to play the Packers in the Western Conference final, Baltimore has Unitas, tight end John Mackey and flanker Willie Richardson on the first offensive team. The Rams put two of their Fearsome Foursome on the defensive line — end Dave "Deacon" Jones and tackle Merlin Olsen.

Unitas' running backs on the first team were the incomparable Gale Sayers of Chicago and Leroy Kelly of Cleveland. His receivers were Mackey, Richardson and split end Charley Taylor of Washington.

Bob DeMarco of St. Louis was the center, flanked by Jerry Kramer of Green Bay and Gene Hickerson of Cleveland at the guards and Ralph Neely of Dallas and Forrest Gregg of Green Bay at the tackles.

The five repeaters from 1966 on offense were Mackey, Gregg, Kramer, Kelly and Sayers. Taylor replaced Dallas' Bob Hayes, Neely took Philadelphia Bob Brown's job at tackle and Hickerson supplanted John Thomas of San Francisco. Both Brown and Thomas were injured much of the season anl Hayes wound up with a pulled hamstring.

DeMarco succeeded Mick Tingelhoff of Minnesota and Richardson took the flanker job that Detroit's Pat Studstill had a year ago.

Unitas, of course, was filling the spot Bart Starr of Green Bay held in 1966.

There were only three changes in the defensive unit, two linebackers and one cornerback. The same front four were back. That meant Willie Davis of Green Bay at one end and Jones at the other with Bob Lilly of Dallas and Olsen at the tackles.

Tommy Nobis of Atlanta pushed his way into the middle linebacker job, held by Green Bay's Ray Nitschke last year. Dave Robinson of the Packers, replacing teammate Lee Roy Caffey, and repeater Chuck Howley of Dallas, were the other linebackers.

Bob Jeter of the Packers ousted his veteran teammate, Herb Adderley, from one starting corner back job. Cornell Green of Dallas was a repeater at the other corner and both Larry Wilson of St. Louis and Willie Wood of Green Bay weere back again as safeties.

South Side Whips Avella, Doak Leads Way With 26

South Side held Avella to only three points in the second period and hung on for a 77-65 win on the losers' court last night.

The Rams, now 4-1, took a 31-21 halftime lead and never lost it, though Avella closed to 49-45 as the last period began. Avella hit 1 of 15 shots in the second period, but their overall shooting percentage was a respectable 36 on 23 of 64 shots. South Side hit 33 of 82 for 40 per cent.

Tom Doak took scoring honors with 26 points and Ron Peden added 17. Dan Hartzell 14 and Francis Nash 10. Peden also grabbed 19 rebounds as South Side led 39-29 in that department.

Tom Latalsky was high for the losers, now 1-4, with 17, while Larry Lis added 14, Dave Linda 12 and John Matello 10.

In the JV game South Side won 36-19 as Jim Searight scored 9 and Doug Williamson 8.

North Carolina Spills Kentucky

Vanderbilt Nips Davidson In OT

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two years ago it was Rupp's Runts. Now it's Skinner's Short Six.

Skinner's Short Six refers to Vanderbilt's college basketball team coached by Roy Skinner. Rupp's Runts refers to the Kentucky team coached by Adolph Rupp which was beaten by Texas Western, now Texas, El Paso, in the final of the NCAA championship tourney for the 1966 national title.

Tom Hagan, a 6-foot-3 junior and one of the Short Six, canned a 20-foot jump shot with two seconds left, to give third-ranked Vanderbilt an 81-79 overtime victory over eighth-ranked Davidson at Nashville Tuesday night.

Seventh-ranked North Carolina whipped fourth-ranked Kentucky 84-77 at Greensboro, N.C., in the other major game involving teams in The Associated Press Top Ten.

Skinner's Short Six, Hagan, Bo Wyenandt, Bob Warren, Kenny Campbell, Perry Wallace and Gene Lockyear, average only 6-3½, but they came from 12 points back to knock Davidson from the unbeaten ranks.

The Commodores rallied to tie the regulation game at 75-75 before winning in the extra period for their fourth straight. Hagan was high for Vandy with 21, including two field goals in the overtime. Rod Knowles topped Davidson with 22.

Behind at 54-53, North Carolina exploded to take an 11-point lead in the last eight minutes and hand Kentucky its first defeat. Larry Miller's tip-in put the Tar Heels ahead for good at 65-64 and Rusty Clark followed with several baskets to make it 71-64.

Clark's 23 points topped the Tar Heels, who played their best game of the season according to Coach Dean Smith.

Ed Stoner's 25 points paced Yale over Brown 73-59 in an Ivy League opener. St. John's of New York also won on the road. The Redmen survived a late Rhode Island rally to edge the Rams 64-63.

Williams made it four in a row by beating Harvard 74-59. So did University of Pacific with a 63-61 squeaker over North Texas at Denton. Tulsa's Hurricane also upped its record to 4-0 with 68-56 victory over Lamar Tech as Larry Cheatham hit on 10 field goal tries without a miss. He finished with 21 points.

In other games, Michigan State beat Western Michigan 78-67, Baylor overcame New Orleans Loyola 88-75, Texas Tech defeated Oklahoma 74-67, Iowa State downed Northern Illinois 77-69 and Syracuse humbled the Georgetown Hoyas 95-78 in a game delayed for 39 minutes while police searched McDonough Gym in Washington for a bomb. None was found.

Bradley Debuts With 23 But Knicks Lose In OT

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley's streak still is alive. For the second time since he became a $500,000 member of the New York Knickerbockers he brought the crowd at Madison Square Garden to the edge of hysteria.

Unfortunately, the team, which Bradley is to lead out of the National Basketball Association wilderness, also has its streak alive—four straight losses.

The latest defeat came Tuesday night, 145-142 to St. Louis in two overtimes, the brightest spot for the Knicks—or at least Knicks' fans being Bradley's performance.

The former two-time Princeton All-America, who finds himself in the role of premier of basketball in a city that loves the sport, is an unassuming young man who would rather play basketball than talk about how, what or why he plays it so well.

Bradley made 10 of 16 shots from the floor, finished with 23 points, handed out seven assists and grabbed five rebounds before fouling out in the second overtime after 47 minutes of action.

Before the hopes of the 17,524 fans soared with Bradley and crashed with the final result, Hal Greer put on a little show of his own by scoring 38 points in leading the Philadelphia 76ers past the Seattle SuperSonics 118-107.

In the only other NBA action, Baltimore smashed Detroit 140-117 and San Diego topped Chicago 118-104.

New Orleans edged Dallas 109-105, Kentucky downed Minnesota 113-104 and New Jersey drubbed Anaheim 117-98 in the American Basketball Association.

Bradley missed the only shot in the first quarter but then hit on eight straight as the Knicks ran up a 108-86 lead with 6:55 left in the fourth quarter.

"He's the best rookie I've ever played against," said Joe Caldwell, who guarded Bradley. "He's tough. He's a pro and you can't psyche him."

But psyche is exactly what the Hawks did to the Knicks, and they did it with a full-court press. With their defense forcing New York errors and Lenny Wilkens, Bill Bridges and Caldwell getting hot hands, the Hawks fought back to tie the game at 124-124 on Wilkens' hook shot with 10 seconds left and send it into overtime.

Wilkens then threw in 13 more points, he finished with 33, in the two extra periods, and his effort was too much for the Knicks.

Greer got Philadelphia started toward its victory by scoring 12 points and setting up another field goal in a period of a little over three minutes of the second quarter. Al Tucker led Seattle with 27 points.

Kevin Loughery poured through 35 points and rookie Earl Monroe added 32 as Baltimore raced to a 73-47 halftime lead en route to snapping a six-game losing streak. Tom Van Arsdale topped Detroit with 21.

San Diego got good shooting performances from three players in chalking up its victory. Jon McGlocklin scored 27 points, Don Kojis 25 and Johnny Green 24. Keith Erickson notched 24 for Chicago.

Stanton's Tice All-State, Toot, Bell On 2nd Team

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state's small school grid heroes came in for their share of glory today as The Associated Press named its Class A All-Ohio football team.

Roger Davidson, a 6-foot-2, 205 pound senior fullback from Kent State High who was all-state last year, heads up a strong backfield that boasts a potent scoring punch.

Davidson was the driving force that carried Kent to a perfect 9-0 season and a third-place finish in The AP grid ratings.

He set personal records of 52 carries in one game; 325 rushes in one season; 315 yards in one game and 1,864 yards in one season.

A versatile performer, Davidson scored 23 touchdowns, 17 extra points and also had a safety for 174 points. He connected on six of 13 passes, four of them going for touchdowns and averaged 41.8 as his team's punter.

District boards around the state, made up of sports writers and broadcasters, helped pick the scholastic standouts for statewide recognition.

The quarterback spot went to Dale Mager, a Streetsboro senior who rushed for 1,107 yards His passing and running accounted for 28 touchdowns.

Others in the backfield include Jack LeVeck of Watkins Memorial, who scored 132 points and rushed for 1,270 yards; Ed Wnek of Tiltonsville, who tallied 128 points and averaged eight yards a run and Jim O'Hara of Ottawa Hills, rated the best back in the northwest district. O'Hara was a second team choice a year ago.

Lorain Clearview landed two spots on the team—Joe Mielcarek at defensive end and Joe Todd at defensive back.

Rich Malone, of Class A champ Portsmouth Notre Dame, nailed down a spot as a linebacker and offensive end Ron Schlater of Versailles, the small school runnerup, also was chosen.

Among the defensive standouts are end Barry Reppart of Fredericktown; middle guard Bill Kegley of Fort Frye and linebacker Bob Hambor of Fairport Harbor.

Sam Huff Announces Pro Grid Retirement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The violent world of Sam Huff will end Sunday.

The big linebacker, five times an All-National Football League selection, announced Tuesday that he will retire after the Washington Redskins' game with New Orleans.

"There comes a time in every athlete's life when he has to hang up his jersey," Huff emotionally told a news conference in a dressing room at D. C. Stadium. "That time has come for me."

Before meeting reporters, Huff sat sobbing in front of his locker for 15 minutes. His teammates, filing in from practice, passed him silently.

Huff has been with the Redskins for the past four seasons after eight eventful years with the New York Giants when his name became synonymous with the bone-crushing defensive play of the growing sport of professional football.

He was the subject of a television show, "The Violent World of Sam Huff," and was the subject of a cover story in Time Magazine. His duels with Jim Brown, the Cleveland Browns' great runner, have become legendary.

'Super Yaz' Endorsing Products

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Don't be surprised if one of these days, Carl Yastrzemski steps into a phone booth and emerges wearing a cape with a great big Y on his chest.

Yaz, the Triple Crown winner who led Boston to the American League pennant last season, has signed on with the Licensing Corporation of America, an endorsement merchandizer which represents Superman, Batman and James Bond, among others.

"It's a great honor to join them," grinned Yastrzemski when the fictional heroes were mentioned. "I just hope I can do as well as they do."

LCA plans to use Yaz to endorse everything from shampoos to stationary to sweaters. "We represent all the great heroes," said Allen Stone, president of LCA, "Yastrzemski fits right in with Superman, Batman and the rest."

Products bearing Yastrzemski's name should reach the market by next summer and to get an idea of the potential the endorsement and merchandizing field offers, Jay Emmett, chairman of LCA, pointed out that Batman's name had grossed $4 million in royalties over an eight month period. And he can't even hit home runs.

Yastrzemski, of course, can. He smashed 44 last year, drove in 121 runs and batted .326.

LA's Gabriel Offensive Top Player

NEW YORK (AP) — Roman Gabriel, the quarterback who led the Los Angeles Rams to victory over Green Bay and set up Sunday's big game with Baltimore, has been named by The Associated Press as the Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Gabriel was brilliant Saturday at Memorial Coliseum, throwing three touchdown passes in a must game to keep alive the Rams' title hopes in the Coastal Division.

At the end of the wild afternoon, Gabriel had completed 20 of 36 passes for 222 yards and had been smeared only once by the Packers' pass rush.

It took a great defensive play by linebacker Tony Guillory who blocked Donny Anderson's punt, plus a 20-yard run by Claude Crabb to the Packers' five after he recovered the ball, to make it possible for Gabriel to win it all with a third TD pass to Bernie Casey. Gabriel also threw two scoring passes to split end Jack Snow, the former Notre Dame star.

4 Gridders From UTEP Ineligible

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Dobbs, University of Texas-El Paso coach who should have been in the doldrums, remained optimistic today despite losing five players for the Dec. 30 Sun Bowl football game against Mississippi.

"We'll show up," he said after the school announced it disqualified the players under NCAA rules applying to junior college transfers.

"Certainly it will hurt," said Dobbs. "You don't lose five out of your first 22 without it hurting you. We kind of knew all along that we would lose two or three.

"We lost one more than we thought. But it's no surprise. That's a national rule and applies to everybody."

Among the players that won't be in uniform are the team's leading scorer, speedy flanker-back Volley Murphy, and a 6-foot-4, 230-pound defensive stalwart, tackle Denver Samples.

The others, all front-line reserves, are running back Eugene Childs, end Mike Rhoades and offensive tackle Dick Reisman.

Miami U. At Oxford Cradle Of Coaches

By JAAN KANGILASKI
Associated Press Writer

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Some old - timers may still think of Miami University as the place where the McGuffey Readers were written, but there are more people who think of it as "the Cradle of Coaches."

"The Cradle of Coaches" sounds like a cliche, but it is well applicable to this small-town school with a total enrollment of 12,000. Scores of former Redskin football players have won fame as coaches in other colleges.

The long list includes Paul Brown and Weeb Ewbank, Earl (Red) Blaik, Ara Parseghian, John Pont, Paul Dietzel and Carmen Cozza, along with Walter (Smoky) Alston, who has led the Los Angeles Dodgers to four baseball world championships since 1954. His teams have taken six National League Pennants.

Brown led the Cleveland Browns' professional football team to a series of triumphs over two decades and is the 1968 head coach of the new Cincinnati Bengals in the American Football League. Ewbank has headed the exciting New York Jets since 1963.

Two Miami graduates who moved on to other schools have hit it big this year. Cozza led Yale to the Ivy League football crown in his third season with the Eli and his predecessor, John Pont, guided Indiana to its best year since the Hoosiers won the Big Ten Championship in 1945. Indiana upset Purdue to gain a three - way tie for the title and get its first Rose Bowl trip.

Both Blaik and Dietzel drilled the U.S. Military Academy teams for years and Dietzel is now head football coach and athletic director of South Carolina. Parseghian is the head coach at Notre Dame and there are at least eight other head coaches who graduated from Miami — three in football and five in basketball.

The head football coaches are Bo Schembechler, five-year mentor of the Miami Redskins; John McVay of Dayton and Doc Urich of Buffalo.

Coaching the Redskins—who knock off a top team every now and then — seems to be good for a coach's career. The usually tight races for the Mid-American Conference football championship have started many a coach on his way to the big leagues of football: Pont, Parseghian, Woody Hayes of Ohio State, George Blackburn, Sidney Gilman and Stu Holcomb, to name some of the more recent ones.

Pont posted a 43-22-2 record at Miami in 1956-62 before he went to Yale and then to Indiana. His record at Yale was 12-5-1 and he had two losing seasons at Indiana before this year's spree.

Parseghian coached the Redskins from 1951 through 1955 and won two Mid - American championships — the same number as Pont. Ara then went on to Northwestern and later moved to Notre Dame. His predecessor at Miami was Woody Hayes, who has put in 17 seasons at Ohio State. He is the daddy of Big Ten football mentors.

Hayes coached at Miami in 1949 and 1950, winning one Mid-American championship. One of the players was an offensive tackle named Schembechler, who later became an assistant under Parseghian and Hayes, and has headed the Redskins since 1963, winning two co-championships.

Schembechler's career gives some clues to the reason why there are so many Miami alumni in the coaching ranks. There were at least 20 former Redskins working as assistant coaches this fall — including Sebastian LaSpina, Bill Narduzzi, Neil Putnam, Jim Root and Mack Yoho at Yale; Herb Fairfield, Jay Fry and Nick Mourozis at Indiana and Tom Pagna, Paul Shoults and Jerry Wampfler at Notre Dame.

The Isle of Man has an area of 220 square miles.

North Carolina Spills Kentucky

Vanderbilt Nips Davidson In OT

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two years ago it was Rupp's Runts. Now it's Skinner's Short Six.

Skinner's Short Six refers to Vanderbilt's college basketball team coached by Roy Skinner. Rupp's Runts refers to the Kentucky team coached by Adolph Rupp which was beaten by Texas Western, now Texas, El Paso, in the final of the NCAA championship tourney for the 1966 national title.

Tom Hagan, a 6-foot-3 junior and one of the Short Six, canned a 20-foot jump shot with two seconds left, to give third-ranked Vanderbilt an 81-79 overtime victory over eighth-ranked Davidson at Nashville Tuesday night.

Seventh-ranked North Carolina whipped fourth-ranked Kentucky 84-77 at Greensboro, N.C., in the other major game involving teams in The Associated Press Top Ten.

Skinner's Short Six, Hagan, Bo Wyenandt, Bob Warren, Kenny Campbell, Perry Wallace and Gene Lockyear, average only 6-3½, but they came from 12 points back to knock Davidson from the unbeaten ranks.

The Commodores rallied to tie the regulation game at 75-75 before winning in the extra period for their fourth straight. Hagan was high for Vandy with 21, including two field goals in the overtime. Rod Knowles topped Davidson with 22.

Behind at 54-53, North Carolina exploded to take an 11-point lead in the last eight minutes and hand Kentucky its first defeat. Larry Miller's tip-in put the Tar Heels ahead for good at 65-64 and Rusty Clark followed with several baskets to make it 71-64.

Clark's 23 points topped the Tar Heels, who played their best game of the season according to Coach Dean Smith.

Ed Stoner's 25 points paced Yale over Brown 73-59 in an Ivy League opener. St. John's of New York also won on the road. The Redmen survived a late Rhode Island rally to edge the Rams 64-63.

Williams made it four in a row by beating Harvard 74-59. So did University of Pacific with a 63-61 squeaker over North Texas at Denton. Tulsa's Hurricane also upped its record to 4-0 with 68-56 victory over Lamar Tech as Larry Cheatham hit on 10 field goal tries without a miss. He finished with 21 points.

In other games, Michigan State beat Western Michigan 78-67, Baylor overcame New Orleans Loyola 88-75, Texas Tech defeated Oklahoma 74-67, Iowa State downed Northern Illinois 77-69 and Syracuse humbled the Georgetown Hoyas 95-78 in a game delayed for 39 minutes while police searched McDonough Gym in Washington for a bomb. None was found.

Bradley Debuts With 23 But Knicks Lose In OT

NEW YORK (AP) — Bill Bradley's streak still is alive. For the second time since he became a $500,000 member of the New York Knickerbockers he brought the crowd at Madison Square Garden to the edge of hysteria.

Unfortunately, the team, which Bradley is to lead out of the National Basketball Association wilderness, also has its streak alive—four straight losses.

The latest defeat came Tuesday night, 145-142 to St. Louis in two overtimes, the brightest spot for the Knicks—or at least Knicks' fans being Bradley's performance.

The former two-time Princeton All-America, who finds himself in the role of premier of basketball in a city that loves the sport, is an unassuming young man who would rather play basketball than talk about how, what or why he plays it so well.

Bradley made 10 of 16 shots from the floor, finished with 23 points, handed out seven assists and grabbed five rebounds before fouling out in the second overtime after 47 minutes of action.

Before the hopes of the 17,524 fans soared with Bradley and crashed with the final result, Hal Greer put on a little show of his own by scoring 38 points in leading the Philadelphia 76ers past the Seattle SuperSonics 118-107.

In the only other NBA action, Baltimore smashed Detroit 140-117 and San Diego topped Chicago 118-104.

New Orleans edged Dallas 109-105, Kentucky downed Minnesota 113-104 and New Jersey drubbed Anaheim 117-98 in the American Basketball Association.

Bradley missed the only shot in the first quarter but then hit on eight straight as the Knicks ran up a 108-86 lead with 6:55 left in the fourth quarter.

"He's the best rookie I've ever played against," said Joe Caldwell, who guarded Bradley. "He's tough. He's a pro and you can't psyche him."

But psyche is exactly what the Hawks did to the Knicks, and they did it with a full-court press. With their defense forcing New York errors and Lenny Wilkens, Bill Bridges and Caldwell getting hot hands, the Hawks fought back to tie the game at 124-124 on Wilkens' hook shot with 10 seconds left and send it into overtime.

Wilkens then threw in 13 more points, he finished with 33, in the two extra periods, and his effort was too much for the Knicks.

Greer got Philadelphia started toward its victory by scoring 12 points and setting up another field goal in a period of a little over three minutes of the second quarter. Al Tucker led Seattle with 27 points.

Kevin Loughery poured through 35 points and rookie Earl Monroe added 32 as Baltimore raced to a 73-47 halftime lead en route to snapping a six-game losing streak. Tom Van Arsdale topped Detroit with 21.

San Diego got good shooting performances from three players in chalking up its victory. Jon McGlocklin scored 27 points, Don Kojis 25 and Johnny Green 24. Keith Erickson notched 24 for Chicago.

Stanton's Tice All-State, Toot, Bell On 2nd Team

By HAL PARIS
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state's small school grid heroes came in for their share of glory today as The Associated Press named its Class A All-Ohio football team.

Roger Davidson, a 6-foot-2, 205 pound senior fullback from Kent State High who was all-state last year, heads up a strong backfield that boasts a potent scoring punch.

Davidson was the driving force that carried Kent to a perfect 9-0 season and a third-place finish in The AP grid ratings.

He set personal records of 52 carries in one game; 325 rushes in one season; 315 yards in one game and 1,864 yards in one season.

A versatile performer, Davidson scored 23 touchdowns. 17 extra points and also had a safety for 174 points. He connected on six of 13 passes, four of them going for touchdowns and averaged 41.8 as his team's punter.

District boards around the state, made up of sports writers and broadcasters, helped pick the scholastic standouts for statewide recognition.

The quarterback spot went to Dale Mager, a Streetsboro senior who rushed for 1,107 yards His passing and running accounted for 28 touchdowns.

Others in the backfield include Jack LeVeck of Watkins Memorial, who scored 132 points and rushed for 1,270 yards; Ed Wnek of Tiltonsville, who tallied 128 points and averaged eight yards a run and Jim O'Hara of Ottawa Hills, rated the best back in the northwest district. O'Hara was a second team choice a year ago.

Lorain Clearview landed two spots on the team—Joe Mielcarek at defensive end and Joe Todd at defensive back.

Rich Malone, of Class A champ Portsmouth Notre Dame, nailed down a spot as a linebacker and offensive end Ron Schlater of Versailles, the small school runnerup, also was chosen.

Among the defensive standouts are end Barry Reppart of Fredericktown; middle guard Bill Kegley of Fort Frye and linebacker Bob Hambor of Fairport Harbor.

Sam Huff Announces Pro Grid Retirement

WASHINGTON (AP) — The violent world of Sam Huff will end Sunday.

The big linebacker, five times an All-National Football League selection, announced Tuesday that he will retire after the Washington Redskins' game with New Orleans.

"There comes a time in every athlete's life when he has to hang up his jersey," Huff emotionally told a news conference in a dressing room at D. C. Stadium. "That time has come for me."

Before meeting reporters, Huff sat sobbing in front of his locker for 15 minutes. His teammates, filing in from practice, passed him silently.

Huff has been with the Redskins for the past four seasons after eight eventful years with the New York Giants when his name became synonymous with the bone-crushing defensive play of the growing sport of professional football.

He was the subject of a television show, "The Violent World of Sam Huff," and was the subject of a cover story in Time Magazine. His duels with Jim Brown, the Cleveland Browns' great runner, have become legendary.

Team 8 continued unbeaten last night in the double-elimination basketball tournament at the East Liverpool YMCA, downing team 2 48-41 behind 26 points by Joe Anderson and 15 by Jack Green.

Wayne Cline netted 23 and Jack Reynolds 10 for the losers. Team 5 eliminated team 1 51-40 and team 6 sidelined team 4 66-64 in other contests. Butch Mathias had 23 and Gary Steffer 14 for team 5 and Ron Deering 18 and Bob Johnson 8 for team 1. Team six was led by Charles Lipscomb with 39 and Joe Pease with 10 while Ted Robinson had 28 and Frank Kenny 22 for team 4.

'Super Yaz' Endorsing Products

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Don't be surprised if one of these days, Carl Yastrzemski steps into a phone booth and emerges wearing a cape with a great big Y on his chest.

Yaz, the Triple Crown winner who led Boston to the American League pennant last season, has signed on with the Licensing Corporation of America, an endorsement merchandizer which represents Superman, Batman and James Bond, among others.

"It's a great honor to join them," grinned Yastrzemski when the fictional heroes were mentioned. "I just hope I can do as well as they do."

LCA plans to use Yaz to endorse everything from shampoos to stationary to sweaters. "We represent all the great heroes," said Allen Stone, president of LCA, "Yastrzemski fits right in with Superman, Batman and the rest."

Products bearing Yastrzemski's name should reach the market by next summer and to get an idea of the potential the endorsement and merchandizing field offers, Jay Emmett, chairman of LCA, pointed out that Batman's name had grossed $4 million in royalties over an eight month period. And he can't even hit home runs.

Yastrzemski, of course, can. He smashed 44 last year, drove in 121 runs and batted .326.

LA's Gabriel Offensive Top Player

NEW YORK (AP) — Roman Gabriel, the quarterback who led the Los Angeles Rams to victory over Green Bay and set up Sunday's big game with Baltimore, has been named by The Associated Press as the Offensive Player of the Week in the National Football League.

Gabriel was brilliant Saturday at Memorial Coliseum, throwing three touchdown passes in a must game to keep alive the Rams' title hopes in the Coastal Division.

At the end of the wild afternoon, Gabriel had completed 20 of 36 passes for 222 yards and had been smeared only once by the Packers' pass rush.

It took a great defensive play by linebacker Tony Guillory who blocked Donny Anderson's punt, plus a 20-yard run by Claude Crabb to the Packers' five after he recovered the ball, to make it possible for Gabriel to win it all with a third TD pass to Bernie Casey. Gabriel also threw two scoring passes to split end Jack Snow, the former Notre Dame star.

4 Gridders From UTEP Ineligible

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Bobby Dobbs, University of Texas-El Paso coach who should have been in the doldrums, remained optimistic today despite losing five players for the Dec. 30 Sun Bowl football game against Mississippi.

"We'll show up," he said after the school announced it disqualified the players under NCAA rules applying to junior college transfers.

"Certainly it will hurt," said Dobbs. "You don't lose five out of your first 22 without it hurting you. We kind of knew all along that we would lose two or three.

"We lost one more than we thought. But it's no surprise. That's a national rule and applies to everybody."

Among the players that won't be in uniform are the team's leading scorer, speedy flanker-back Volley Murphy, and a 6-foot-4, 230-pound defensive stalwart, tackle Denver Samples.

The others, all front-line reserves, are running back Eugene Childs, end Mike Rhoades and offensive tackle Dick Reisman.

Miami U. At Oxford Cradle Of Coaches

By JAAN KANGILASKI
Associated Press Writer

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Some old - timers may still think of Miami University as the place where the McGuffey Readers were written, but there are more people who think of it as "the Cradle of Coaches."

"The Cradle of Coaches" sounds like a cliche, but it is well applicable to this small-town school with a total enrollment of 12,000. Scores of former Redskin football players have won fame as coaches in other colleges.

The long list includes Paul Brown and Weeb Ewbank, Earl (Red) Blaik, Ara Parseghian, John Pont, Paul Dietzel and Carmen Cozza, along with Walter (Smoky) Alston, who has led the Los Angeles Dodgers to four baseball world championships since 1954. His teams have taken six National League Pennants.

Brown led the Cleveland Browns' professional football team to a series of triumphs over two decades and is the 1968 head coach of the new Cincinnati Bengals in the American Football League. Ewbank has headed the exciting New York Jets since 1963.

Two Miami graduates who moved on to other schools have hit it big this year. Cozza led Yale to the Ivy League football crown in his third season with the Eli and his predecessor, John Pont, guided Indiana to its best year since the Hoosiers won the Big Ten Championship in 1945. Indiana upset Purdue to gain a three - way tie for the title and get its first Rose Bowl trip.

Both Blaik and Dietzel drilled the U.S. Military Academy teams for years and Dietzel is now head football coach and athletic director of South Carolina. Parseghian is the head coach at Notre Dame and there are at least eight other head coaches who graduated from Miami — three in football and five in basketball.

The head football coaches are Bo Schembechler, five-year mentor of the Miami Redskins; John McVay of Dayton and Doc Urich of Buffalo.

Coaching the Redskins—who knock off a top team every now and then — seems to be good for a coach's career. The usually tight races for the Mid-American Conference football championship have started many a coach on his way to the big leagues of football: Font, Parseghian, Woody Hayes of Ohio State, George Blackburn, Sidney Gilman and Stu Holcomb, to name some of the more recent ones.

Pont posted a 43-22-2 record at Miami in 1956-62 before he went to Yale and then to Indiana. His record at Yale was 12-5-1 and he had two losing seasons at Indiana before this year's spree.

Parseghian coached the Redskins from 1951 through 1955 and won two Mid - American championships — the same number as Pont. Ara then went on to Northwestern and later moved to Notre Dame. His predecessor at Miami was Woody Hayes, who has put in 17 seasons at Ohio State. He is the daddy of Big Ten football mentors.

Hayes coached at Miami in 1949 and 1950, winning one Mid-American championship. One of the players was an offensive tackle named Schembechler, who later became an assistant under Parseghian and Hayes, and has headed the Redskins since 1963, winning two co-championships.

Schembechler's career gives some clues to the reason why there are so many Miami alumni in the coaching ranks. There were at least 20 former Redskins working as assistant coaches this fall — including Sebastian LaSpina, Bill Narduzzi, Neil Putnam, Jim Root and Mack Yoho at Yale; Herb Fairfield, Jay Fry and Nick Mourozis at Indiana and Tom Pagna, Paul Shoults and Jerry Wampfler at Notre Dame.

The Isle of Man has an area of 220 square miles.

Money's Not Everything In Baseball, Or Is It?

By MURRAY CHASS

NEW YORK (AP) — News item: The New York Mets ask the Washington Senators for permission to talk to Manager Gil Hodges, then sign him to a three-year contract.

Money was a factor, but the biggest consideration was that I was going home," said Hodges who lives in Brooklyn, N.Y.

News item: The St. Louis Cardinals ask the Mets permission to talk to president Bing Devine, then hire him as general manager

"It is obvious I took a slight reduction in pay, but my family is 99 per cent of my consideration," said Devine, who never moved his home from St. Louis after he was fired there in 1964.

Future news items:

The Pittsburgh Pirates ask the Cardinals for permission to talk to coach Joe Schultz, then sign him to a 16-month contract.

"It's great to be going back to Pittsburgh where I got one hit in two times at bat in 1941," said Schultz.

The Los Angeles Dodgers ask the Pirates for permission to talk to General Manager Joe L. Brown and sign him to a long-term contract as fan entertainment director.

"To be candid, as I aways am," said Brown, "the pay isn't quite as much, but it'll be tremendous to be back where my father (Joe E. Brown) made such a big hit."

The New York Yankees ask the Dodgers for permission to talk to Stanislav Skorienczyski, a member of the ground crew, then sign him to a ifetime contract.

"Skorienczcyski will be a big drawing card for our Polish fans," said Michael Burke, president of the Yankees and former executive of Ringling Bros. circus.

The Mets ask the Yankees for permission to talk to Michael Burke, president of the Yankees, and then hire him as director of their entertainment program.

"It's what I've always wanted," Burke said. "I really enjoyed the circus when I was with it, and even though the salary isn't quite as lucrative, it'll be fun to be back with the clowns and monkeys again."

The Senators ask the Mets for permission to talk to Manager Gil Hodges, then sign him to a six-year contract.

"It was a difficult decision to make," Hodges said, "but it's good to be going back to where I began as a manager."

Shenandoah Track Granted Extension

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — (AP) — The West Virginia Racing Commission has approved extension of the fall race meeting of Shenandoah Downs through New Year's Day.

The track's general manager, Robert G. Leavitt, announced Friday that the extension was granted to enable Shenandoah Downs to make up racing nights lost because of a mutuel clerks' strike.

Leavitt said racing is scheduled each night through Dec. 30 except Christmas Day.

Money's Not Everything In Baseball, Or Is It?

By MURRAY CHASS

NEW YORK (AP) — News item: The New York Mets ask the Washington Senators for permission to talk to Manager Gil Hodges, then sign him to a three-year contract.

Money was a factor, but the biggest consideration was that I was going home," said Hodges who lives in Brooklyn, N.Y.

News item: The St. Louis Cardinals ask the Mets permission to talk to president Bing Devine, then hire him as general manager

"It is obvious I took a slight reduction in pay, but my family is 99 per cent of my consideration," said Devine, who never moved his home from St. Louis after he was fired there in 1964.

Future news items:

The Pittsburgh Pirates ask the Cardinals for permission to talk to coach Joe Schultz, then sign him to a 16-month contract.

"It's great to be going back to Pittsburgh where I got one hit in two times at bat in 1941," said Schultz.

The Los Angeles Dodgers ask the Pirates for permission to talk to General Manager Joe L. Brown and sign him to a long-term contract as fan entertainment director.

"To be candid, as I aways am," said Brown, "the pay isn't quite as much, but it'll be tremendous to be back where my father (Joe E. Brown) made such a big hit."

The New York Yankees ask the Dodgers for permission to talk to Stanislav Skorienczyski, a member of the ground crew, then sign him to a ifetime contract.

"Skorienczyski will be a big drawing card for our Polish fans," said Michael Burke, president of the Yankees and former executive of Ringling Bros. circus.

The Mets ask the Yankees for permission to talk to Michael Burke, president of the Yankees, and then hire him as director of their entertainment program.

"It's what I've always wanted," Burke said. "I really enjoyed the circus when I was with it, and even though the salary isn't quite as lucrative, it'll be fun to be back with the clowns and monkeys again."

The Senators ask the Mets for permission to talk to Manager Gil Hodges, then sign him to a six-year contract.

"It was a difficult decision to make," Hodges said, "but it's good to be going back to where I began as a manager."

Shenandoah Track Granted Extension

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — (AP) — The West Virginia Racing Commission has approved extension of the fall race meeting of Shenandoah Downs through New Year's Day.

The track's general manager, Robert G. Leavitt, announced Friday that the extension was granted to enable Shenandoah Downs to make up racing nights lost because of a mutuel clerks' strike.

Leavitt said racing is scheduled each night through Dec. 30 except Christmas Day.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Approach, Plus Exercise

A teen - ager whose weight problem is on her mind constantly, writes: "The more I think about being so fat," she says, "the more I eat. This makes me fatter and more unhappy. It also makes me tense and hard to live with. Is there any help for me?" she asks wistfully.

Ida Jean Kain

Stop selling yourself short. Get a new perspective. By dwelling on your weight woes all the time you are unable to think constructively or to picture a happy future. Let off steam with active exercise, then you will feel less tense and less like exploding.

—:—

DO YOU have a pal with whom you can jog? If not, then jog - walk by yourself, right at home. The rules of the game are to walk for 25 steps, then jog for 25 steps, and repeat. The second week double the jog steps and hold to the 25 walking steps, interspersed with 50 jogging steps. Aim to jog-walk for 20 minutes, then 30 minutes a day.

The emotion you feel about your overweight is brought about in large part by your thinking. Start thinking slim and trim, gay and active. Make sure there are no self - defeating thoughts in your inner "talking."

I believe you are one teenager who has what it takes to pull out of this fattening fix. Why? Because you are seeking help, and your letter indicates a willingness to change. Actually, you are quite an admirable young lady, so why not start to have a friendly feeling toward yourself. It is important to respect yourself, for then you will want to live up to your best self.

STOP FEELING guilty about every mouthful of food you eat. You can eat three adequate, well balanced meals a day and lose. When you regard sweets and fattening tempters as being no favor to yourself, suddenly you won't even want them. This is what a new attitude can do for you.

Make this an adventure. Give your inner mind the blueprint of the happy, healthy minded girl you want to become. Begin daily exercise . . . the more regular your exercise, the more alive you'll feel, and the less you will feel goaded into overeating. You'll feel happy and then you will be a joy to live with.

It's so important to follow the right dream. What do you want? Go after it!

16 Injured When Bleachers Collapse At Ohio Cage Game

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP) — A section of bleachers collapsed under 900 fans before the start of the Kenyon-Wooster college basketball game Tuesday night, injuring 16 persons. Only two required hospitalization.

"We were very lucky there weren't more serious injuries," said Peter Edward, Kenyon information director. "But the crowd remained calm. There was no panic."

School officials had just started to evacuate the bleachers as they collapsed. Edwards said someone had noticed the "stands had started to tilt."

Braces supporting the permanent beachers in Kenyon's Wertheimer Fieldhouse apparently had slipped out of place, officials said.

Players for both teams were on the floor warming up and no one was injured. The game was postponed.

The 14 rows of bleachers collapsed gradually "but hit with a good thud and caught people trying to get out," said a spectator. Edward said most of the injured were on bottom rows and their arms and legs were caught.

A press box attached to the top of the bleachers also fell, but newsmen scrambled to safety. Kenyon's sports publicist, Howard Davis, 24, was among those treated.

Hospitaized were Charles M. Riggs, 45, Mount Vernon, who suffered an ankle injury, and Michael Dunn, 20, a Kenyon student from Dearborn, Mich., who suffered neck and back injuries.

The injured were treated at hospitals in Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Clara Wolfe, 28, Mount Vernon, attending the game with her two sons, said one son, Quint, 8, jumped out of the way just before the main section tumbled down in his seat.

Another spectator, Janice Corba, 20, Mount Vernon, who was on the top row, said it seemed like the bleachers "would never finish coming down." She suffered leg bruises.

About 1,500 fans were in the fieldhouse.

'Call Me A Cab' Costs Double In New Delhi

NEW DELHI (AP) — New Delhi taxi drivers apparently feel they can have their cake and eat it too.

Police warned unsuspecting persons that the cabbies, recently granted a fare increase, have now had their meters adjusted.

But they're getting still higher fares by showing passengers charts which had been intended for the interim period and which authorize drivers to charge specified higher amounts than shown on the meters.

Students Gather At Jail, Protest Jailing Of Four

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — About 100 College of Wooster students gathered in front of the Wayne County Jail Tuesday night in protest of jail sentences given four fellow students convicted of trespassing at the draft board office here.

Acting Municipal Judge W. H. Wertz Tuesday sentenced the four to three days in jail and fined each of them $50.

They were Allen K. Easley, of Champaign, Ill.; Philip A. Pink, of Madrid, Spain, and William Barrie and Lily Hom, both of Yonkers, NY.

The protesting students said they would stay in front of the jail all night and some said they planned to stay until Friday, when the four are released.

The four visited the draft board last week in an antiwar demonstration. Board employes said the students heckled them and interfered with their work.

All-Male Jury Seated; Opening Statements Due

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—An all-male jury has been seated in the first degree murder trial of William Stuart and opening statements were expected today in Lorain County Common Pleas Court.

Stuart, 32, Sheffield Lake, is charged in the stabbing death last Oct. 6 of Larry Rodgers, 30, of Elyria.

Rodgers was killed at the home of Stuart's estranged wife Lake.

Stuart's three children — Cindy, 11, Billy, 9, and Jeffrey, 7—were in the home at the time and are expected to be called as prosecution witnesses. Stuart had been ordered by a domestic relations court to stay away from the home.

Dale Barnard of Avon Lake, one of Stuart's two attorneys, resigned Tuesday as an assistant state attorney general so he could defend his client. The Lorain County Bar Association had said it would be a conflict of interest to defend Stuart while holding the state job.

9 More Ohioans Victims In Viet

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Defense Department list of recent casualties in the Vietnam war Tuesday included the names of nine Ohioans.

Five were Army men killed in action. They were:

Second Lt. William G. Gilger III, Cleveland;

Spec. 4 John E. Thiel, London;

Pfc. John C. Filippi, Seven Hills;

Pfc. Victor A. Mazitis Jr., son of Mrs. Ann M. Cangley, Cleveland;

Pfc. Robert L. Pultz, Bowling Green.

Changed from missing to dead of hostile causes was Army Sgt. William H. Pritt, Pedro.

Army Pfc. William E. Ailes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ailes, Box 34, Sugar Grove, died not in action.

Two Army men changed from missing to dead of nonhostile causes were Cpl. William Daley, Vermilion, and Spec. 4 Lawrence D. Snyder, son of Mrs. Betty Elliott, Toledo.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

New Approach, Plus Exercise

A teen - ager whose weight problem is on her mind constantly, writes: "The more I think about being so fat," she says, "the more I eat. This makes me fatter and more unhappy. It also makes me tense and hard to live with. Is there any help for me?" she asks wistfully.

Ida Jean Kain

Stop selling yourself short. Get a new perspective. By dwelling on your weight woes all the time you are unable to think constructively or to picture a happy future. Let off steam with active exercise, then you will feel less tense and less like exploding.

—:—

DO YOU have a pal with whom you can jog? If not, then jog - walk by yourself, right at home. The rules of the game are to walk for 25 steps, then jog for 25 steps, and repeat. The second week double the jog steps and hold to the 25 walking steps, interspersed with 50 jogging steps. Aim to jog-walk for 20 minutes, then 30 minutes a day.

The emotion you feel about your overweight is brought about in large part by your thinking. Start thinking slim and trim, gay and active. Make sure there are no self - defeating thoughts in your inner "talking."

I believe you are one teenager who has what it takes to pull out of this fattening fix. Why? Because you are seeking help, and your letter indicates a willingness to change. Actually, you are quite an admirable young lady, so why not start to have a friendly feeling toward yourself. It is important to respect yourself, for then you will want to live up to your best self.

STOP FEELING guilty about every mouthful of food you eat. You can eat three adequate, well balanced meals a day and lose. When you regard sweets and fattening tempters as being no favor to yourself, suddenly you won't even want them. This is what a new attitude can do for you.

Make this an adventure. Give your inner mind the blueprint of the happy, healthy minded girl you want to become. Begin daily exercise . . . the more regular your exercise, the more alive you'll feel, and the less you will feel goaded into overeating. You'll feel happy and then you will be a joy to live with.

It's so important to follow the right dream. What do you want? Go after it!

16 Injured When Bleachers Collapse At Ohio Cage Game

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP) — A section of bleachers collapsed under 900 fans before the start of the Kenyon-Wooster college basketball game Tuesday night, injuring 16 persons. Only two required hospitalization.

"We were very lucky there weren't more serious injuries," said Peter Edward, Kenyon information director. "But the crowd remained calm. There was no panic."

School officials had just started to evacuate the bleachers as they collapsed. Edwards said someone had noticed the "stands had started to tilt."

Braces supporting the permanent beachers in Kenyon's Wertheimer Fieldhouse apparently had slipped out of place, officials said.

Players for both teams were on the floor warming up and no one was injured. The game was postponed.

The 14 rows of bleachers collapsed gradually "but hit with a good thud and caught people trying to get out," said a spectator. Edward said most of the injured were on bottom rows and their arms and legs were caught.

A press box attached to the top of the bleachers also fell, but newsmen scrambed to safety. Kenyon's sports publicist, Howard Davis, 24, was among those treated.

Hospitaized were Charles M. Riggs, 45, Mount Vernon, who suffered an ankle injury, and Michael Dunn, 20, a Kenyon student from Dearborn, Mich., who suffered neck and back injuries.

The injured were treated at hospitals in Mount Vernon.

Mrs. Clara Wolfe, 28, Mount Vernon, attending the game with her two sons, said one son, Quint, 8, jumped out of the way just before the main section tumbled down in his seat.

Another spectator, Janice Corba, 20, Mount Vernon, who was on the top row, said it seemed like the bleachers "would never finish coming down." She suffered leg bruises.

About 1,500 fans were in the fieldhouse.

'Call Me A Cab' Costs Double In New Delhi

NEW DELHI (AP) — New Delhi taxi drivers apparently feel they can have their cake and eat it too.

Police warned unsuspecting persons that the cabbies, recently granted a fare increase, have now had their meters adjusted.

But they're getting still higher fares by showing passengers charts which had been intended for the interim period and which authorize drivers to charge specified higher amounts than shown on the meters.

Students Gather At Jail, Protest Jailing Of Four

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — About 100 College of Wooster students gathered in front of the Wayne County Jail Tuesday night in protest of jail sentences given four fellow students convicted of trespassing at the draft board office here.

Acting Municipal Judge W. H. Wertz Tuesday sentenced the four to three days in jail and fined each of them $50.

They were Allen K. Easley, of Champaign, Ill.; Philip A. Pink, of Madrid, Spain, and William Barrie and Lily Hom, both of Yonkers, NY.

The protesting students said they would stay in front of the jail all night and some said they planned to stay until Friday, when the four are released.

The four visited the draft board last week in an antiwar demonstration. Board employes said the students heckled them and interfered with their work.

All-Male Jury Seated; Opening Statements Due

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—An all-male jury has been seated in the first degree murder trial of William Stuart and opening statements were expected today in Lorain County Common Pleas Court.

Stuart, 32, Sheffield Lake, is charged in the stabbing death last Oct. 6 of Larry Rodgers, 30, of Elyria.

Rodgers was killed at the home of Stuart's estranged wife Lake.

Stuart's three children — Cindy, 11, Billy, 9, and Jeffrey, 7—were in the home at the time and are expected to be called as prosecution witnesses. Stuart had been ordered by a domestic relations court to stay away from the home.

Dale Barnard of Avon Lake, one of Stuart's two attorneys, resigned Tuesday as an assistant state attorney general so he could defend his client. The Lorain County Bar Association had said it would be a conflict of interest to defend Stuart while holding the state job.

9 More Ohioans Victims In Viet

WASHINGTON (AP)— The Defense Department list of recent casualties in the Vietnam war Tuesday included the names of nine Ohioans.

Five were Army men killed in action. They were:

Second Lt. William G. Gilger III, Cleveland;

Spec. 4 John E. Thiel, London;

Pfc. John C. Filippi, Seven Hills;

Pfc. Victor A. Mazitis Jr., son of Mrs. Ann M. Cangley, Cleveland;

Pfc. Robert L. Pultz, Bowling Green.

Changed from missing to dead of hostile causes was Army Sgt. William H. Pritt, Pedro.

Army Pfc. William E. Ailes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ailes, Box 34, Sugar Grove, died not in action.

Two Army men changed from missing to dead of non-hostile causes were Cpl. William Daley, Vermilion, and Spec. 4 Lawrence D. Snyder, son of Mrs. Betty Elliott, Toledo.

School Clinic Is Held By Board In Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — An estimated 75 to 100 kindergarten, third graders and seventh graders will be given immunization at a mass clinic today in a program sponsored by the city board of health.

The morning session was held at 9:15 at the Capt. Taggart School and at 10 at Elma Sutherin School. Afternoon kindergarten students were treated in the morning at the Sutherin School.

Dr. A. M. Simpson and nurses will visit the upper grades at their schools in the afternoon.

Personalities In The News

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Alabama Gov. Lurleen Wallace has completed a checkup at the hospital where she underwent cancer surgery in July with physicians reporting all tests "normal and satisfactory."

The report was made Tuesday by a spokesman at the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital & Tumor Institute who said she would return for another checkup in two months.

MILLBROOK, N.Y. (AP) — Timothy Leary, onetime Harvard lecturer turned LSD advocate, took a bride Tuesday.

Leary, 47, and Rosemary Woodruff, 33, were married on the 2,500-acre estate of William Mellon Hitchcock, 28, son of polo star Tommy Hitchcock. Leary rents the estate.

The couple reportedly had been married previously in California.

Both the bride and groom were in white. Miss Woodruff had flowers painted on her face. The ceremony was performed by Bill Haines, described as the guru of the Neo-American Church.

Also present at the ceremony was Leary's son, John, 18, who is free on $1,500 bail on a narcotics charge.

Both Leary and Hitchcock surrendered Monday on charges growing out of a narcotics raid Saturday at which young Leary was arrested. Leary, free on $2,500 bail was not at the estate during the raid.

NEW YORK (AP)—Maybe it was a private showing, but just about all of Truman Capote's intimate friends showed up.

The occasion Tuesday was the premier of the movie "In Cold Blood," based on Capote's best-selling book of the same name.

"It's not a party at all," protested the author who has thrown some of the town's flashiest gatherings. About 50 of his show business and socialite friends were at the Columbia Pctures building on Fifth Avenue for the showing.

They included two of the Kennedy sisters, Mrs. Stephen Smith and Pat Lawford; William F. Buckley Jr., columnist and editor, and the David Susskinds.

President James Garfield was so erudite that he entertained friends by writing Greek with one hand and Latin with the other.

Stanton Choir Sets Concert

The choir of Stanton Local High School will present its annual Christmas concert Friday at 8 p.m.

Under the direction of Ray Lautzenheiser, the choir will conduct its traditional candlelight procession to the familiar strains of "Oh Come All Ye Faithful." Other selections will include "Salvation is Created," "Hallelujah Amen" and "Fanfare for Christmas." A brass quartet will accompany the choir.

The triple trio will sing "Who Is This In the Manger Sleeping?" and a mixed ensemble "Oh Sing Unto The Lord." A boys' quartet will present "Christmas Is Coming."

The freshman choir will sing "Alleluia" and the Junior High chorus the "Christmas Song."

The concert will be held in the school auditorium. There will be an admission charge.

Oath Administered To New Housing Aide

LISBON — Arthur W. (Jack) Ripley Jr. of Leetonia was sworn in as a member of the Columbiana Metropolitan Housing Authority Tuesday in Common Pleas Court.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard administered the oath in the presence of Merrill Hall of East Liverpool, MHA director, and Aaron Eaton, also of East Liverpool, a member.

County commissioners appointed Ripley to a five - year term Nov. 27 to replace Ollie R. Campbell of Glenmoor, retired landscaper, whose two-year term expires Dec. 15.

Ripley, a former member of the Leetonia board of education, operates a men's clothing store and is editor of the Leetonia Courier, a weekly newspaper.

Coins Are Discussed At Realtors' Dinner

SALEM — Vincent C. Judge of Lisbon, Columbiana County treasurer, was guest speaker for the December meeting of the Columbiana County Board of Realtors Tuesday night at Timberlanes.

He displayed and discussed rare coins and bills in his collection.

The scheduled installation of officers was postponed until the next meeting Jan. 9 at Timberlanes.

Thief Takes Tires, Then 'Covers Tracks'

A Dresden Ave. woman told police Tuesday afternoon a thief who removed two tires from her auto tried to cover his tracks —and almost succeeded.

Mrs. Olive Burson of 812 Dresden Ave. reported she discovered that the thief removed the tires from her 1956 model auto some time in the preceding three weeks, then replaced them with two old casings so that she was not immediately aware of the theft.

She said the tires were stolen while the car was parked on E. 9th St. or at the Harker China Co. in Chester.

LBJ Finds Yule Theme On Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson returned to the White House to find a Christmas theme replacing the wedding scene he left and a towering 16½-foot-high blue spruce tree in the Blue Room.

There's everything from gingerbread—plus 8,000 ornaments and 4,000 glittering lights—on the tree.

It was grown by Howard M. Cowan of Portage County, Ohio, winner in a competition of the National Christmas Tree Growers Association.

Tourists will see it, too, with the White House opening today for the first time after a four-day wedding shutdown to the public.

The Johnsons are expected to spend Christmas in the White House for the first time, breaking their tradition of celebrating the holiday at the LBJ Ranch in Texas. The President returned to Washington Tuesday night after a Southern tour.

The Blue Room tree features an angel with gold wings atop branches jammed with Santa Clauses, snowmen, camels, teddy bears, dolls, toy soldiers and drums, glass icicles, shiny silver bells and stars and shining round mirrors.

Strings of nuts, popcorn, and cranberry chains and bright felt flowers are included.

Dan Arje, the display director of Bonwit Teller's Department Store in New York City decorated and designed the tree as he has done for the four years the Johnsons have been in the White House.

'Flying Sign' Breaks Big Midland Window

A large plate glass window at the office of the Midland News was shattered when struck by a sign at 10:35 a. m. Tuesday.

The freak accident occurred when John W. White of Beaver was attempting to park his car on Midland Ave. The bumper hit the pole supporting the "No Parking" sign, causing it to break. The sign flew across the sidewalk and struck the window.

Shattered glass was showered into the office and onto the sidewalk. Midland police were investigating.

Cranberry State

BOSTON (AP) — More than three fifths of the nation's cranberries are grown in the coastal bogs of Massachusetts.

SANTA and the PIGWIDGEN

By Lucrece Beale

Synopsis: Claus uses the ring to change the donkey back into Tweedleknees, leaving only two weapons to fight the Pigwidgen. Then the elf falls into a snake nest.

CHAPTER 10

When Claus saw the snakes preparing to strike Tweedleknees he knew what he had to do. He dug the magic mouth-harp from his pocket. The elves had told him the sound of the harp would charm the fiercest foe. Would it work for a thousand snakes? wondered Claus.

Although he never had played such an instrument, he took a deep breath and blew with all his might on the harp.

The sweetest music he had ever heard filled the air. The snakes grew silent. Slowly they uncoiled. Their tongues were still. Their eyes grew dreamy.

CLAUS TOOK his mouth from the harp and shouted, "Tweedleknees, come!" Then he filled his lungs with air again and blew desperately on the harp while the elf, freed of his hypnosis, scrambled up the log to safety.

As soon as Tweedleknees was out of the pit he ran. Claus stumbled after him still blowing furiously on the harp. They ran until they had no breath left either to run or blow. They fell into a snow bank and lay there gasping.

Presently Claus sat up. He threw away the harp. It was the third weapon and its magic would not work again. Claus said not a word but Tweedleknees said miserably, "It's all my fault." Then he wailed. "But it wasn't because I lost my temper! I was only trying to be kind to the rabbit."

Claus nodded. "Ah, well," he said. "We still have one last weapon." He drew from his belt the dagger whose point had been dipped in a deadly poison. "When I meet the Pigwidgen I shall use this. Even if the dagger fails to kill, the poison will."

TWEEDLEKNEES took the dagger in his own hands and examined it. "The point seems dull," he said critically. He pressed the point gently against the palm of his hand. "Ah," he said with satisfaction. "It is sharp enough." He handed back the dagger.

"Let us go," said Claus rising, "for surely we have wasted time enough."

But Tweedleknees did not stir.

"I am done for," said the elf. "You must go on."

His face turned dreadfully pale. Sweat poured down his forehead. His whole body shook with fever.

"I cannot move," he grunted.

The awful truth came to Claus. He opened Tweedleknees' hand. There lay a single drop of blood where the dagger had pressed against the palm.

"You are poisoned!" cried Claus. He cradled the trembling elf in his arms. "What shall we do? What shall we do?"

"Leave me," murmured Tweedleknees.

"Never!"

"I have been nothing but trouble."

"It doesn't matter. You never meant harm."

"I am done for," growled the elf. "You must go on. There is not more time to lose."

Claus would not leave. "There must be some way to save you. You are an elf. Tell me what you know!"

"There is a way," sighed Tweedleknees.

"What is it? Tell me!"

"If," whispered Tweedleknees, fainting, "a stone should weep for me."

SMOKE TEST. Lewis Govey, left, water department superintendent at Chester, and worker Harold Cashdollar plug gaps in a manhole in an alley this morning while using smoke bombs to determine which residents in the vicinity of Virginia Ave. and 2nd St. have downspouts hooked into the sanitary sewer. The West Virginia water Pollution Department and the city Water and Sewage Board's attorney ordered downspouts off the sewer lines last week after some residents complained their sewers backed up during heavy rains. Govey said after the tests were completed only one downspout was found hooked into the line. He said the Church of Christ and Bell research, which had been mentioned by some residents in complaints about sewers backing up during rain storms, apparently are not hooked into the sewer lines.

2 Amateurish Kidnapers Collect Ransom, Nabbed

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Two amateurish kidnapers held a banker's wife hostage for $80,000 but then settled for $50,000. Then, police said, they got only 11 blocks with the payoff.

A butcher and a cabinet maker were taken into custody Tuesday with the ransom money and the unharmed hostage, Frances Howe, under a blanket on the floor of their car's back seat.

When a quickly mobilized police detail halted the car, the armed men surrendered without drawing their pistols, officers said.

Mrs. Howe, 50, told newsmen that one of the kidnapers earlier told her "if everything goes well, no one will be hurt."

Booked on suspicion of kidnaping for ransom were Robert Sheader, 32, who said he is a cabinet maker, and Edson Lagrand Little, 26, who said he is a meatcutter. Police said both gave addresses in nearby North Hollywood.

As the two were being booked, Mrs. Howe and her husband, E. Frank Howe, related details of the two-hour ordeal:

Shortly after Mrs. Howe had gotten their 15-year-old son off to school, the doorbell rang at their $70,000 hilltop home in Glendale, a suburb northeast of Los Angeles.

"Two men with guns grabbed me and pushed me inside and told me they wanted money from my husband's bank," she said.

They commanded her to telephone the Union Bank's branch in nearby Van Nuvs where her husband is vice president. On the phone, Howe was told to put $80,000 in a specified street trash can "if you want to see her alive."

When Howe said that much was ridiculous, the called suggested $50,000. The banker said he didn't even have that much.

"Take it from the bank," he was told.

"That's also ridiculous," Howe said. "How can I take it from the bank? I'll have to tell someone."

"Then tell somebody ... in case you think I'm not serious, I'll put your wife on the phone."

Mrs. Howe told her husband shakily: "This is no joke. They mean it."

Howe called police, got the money from the bank, drove to the drop location and left the money in a paper bag. Some 50 police staked out the location.

Rider On Postal, Pay Hike Bill

Rep. Smith Wins Fight In Bid To Ban Nepotism

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Iowa congressman has won his six-year fight for passage of legislation to ban nepotism in the federal government— from the smallest post office to Congress and the White House.

Rep. Neal Smith, a Democrat serving his fifth term, says the power of federal officials including judges to hire relatives or get jobs for them in other federal agencies is unfair to other jobseekers.

"I don't think the government gets its money's worth when you have that sort of thing," Smith said in an interview. "There are exceptions—some of these relatives work hard—but the bad overcomes the good."

Smith's antinepotism proposal was a rider to a bill raising the pay of federal workers and hiking postal rates. Congress passed the measure Tuesday and sent it to President Johnson, who's expected to sign it.

The measure will not affect relatives already working for congressmen and other officials.

The 47-year-old Smith's strategy in getting his rider through reflected an absence of enthusiasm for it in a Congress that, according to a recent Associated Press survey, includes some 50 members with relatives on their payrolls.

After it appeared his plan would die quietly in committee, he proposed it as a rider during routine debate on the postal-pay bill. Only about 80 of the 434 House members were on the floor and it went through.

Smith said some absent opponents of the plan weren't happy when they found out what he did. "But if they were interested in amendments they should have been there," he added.

Once the rider was in the bill, congressional sources said, it would have been embarrassing for any member to fight it.

"About half the relatives working in Congress do their work; half don't earn their pay," Smith said.

But the Iowa Democrat said his main concern was "widespread abuse" in the hiring of relatives by postmasters in small towns. In Iowa alone, he said, 111 postmasters have relatives on their payrolls.

"I don't know how many thousands of relatives there are in post offices nationwide," he said.

He said many people don't even apply for jobs in small post offices because everyone assumes the postmasters' relatives will get any job that opens up.

To Act On Redistricting

West Virginia Legislature Will Convene Week Early

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia's 1968 legislature will convene a week early Jan. 3 to act on congressional redistricting.

Gov. Hulett C. Smith made the announcement Tuesday, saying he has also invited the state's five congressmen to meet with the leaders of the legislature Jan. 4 to express their views on redistricting proposals.

The special session is aimed to reallign the state's five congressional districts to reflect more equality in population, said Smith.

West Virginia's present five-district allignment was adopted by the 1963 legislature after a population decline caused loss of one of the state's previous six seats in the House.

Smith noted the districts presently vary more than 30 per cent in population — from 422,046 persons in the Fourth District to 303,396 in the Fifth District.

"I believe it is important that we consider this matter before the legislature takes up the budget and other items which will be included in the regular session starting Jan. 10," said Smith. "Such a date also gives the congressmen themselves a chance to express their views in person before the second session of the 90th Congress convenes."

The announcement negates a Nov. 10 announcement by Smith that he had "abandoned" the idea of an extraordinary session before the regular legislative session. At the time Smith predicted that if a special session becomes necessary, he would call it after the regular 30-day session.

Statehouse observers feel the Democratic governor changed his mind because of a redistricting suit filed by five Republicans including two West Virginia delegates. The suit asks the federal court here to declare the state's congressional districts unconstitutional because of the population disparity.

The suit is scheduled to be heard before a three - judge panel here Dec. 19, but legislators have speculated that the court will continue the case until the legislature resolves the issue.

Beaver Local Given Top Yearbook Rating

A first - class honor rating was awarded the Beaver Local High School yearbook, "L'Annee," in the 47th annual All American Yearbook Critical Service of the National Scholastic Press Association. More than 1,000 high school yearbooks were judged by the NSPA.

The top honor rating is All American and represents superior accomplishment. A first class rating means a yearbook is good but lacks outstanding qualities needed for All American rating. Theme of the 1967 Beaver Local yearbook was "Youth." Barry Green was editor.

Theme for the 1968 yearbook is "Spirit." Cindy Cairnes is editor.

Mary Queen of Scots was the first known woman golfer. Educated in France, she called the boy who carried her clubs a cadet, giving the word the French pronounciation. From that came our word "caddie."

2 Amateurish Kidnapers Collect Ransom, Nabbed

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP) — Two amateurish kidnapers held a banker's wife hostage for $80,000 but then settled for $50,000. Then, police said, they got only 11 blocks with the payoff.

A butcher and a cabinet maker were taken into custody Tuesday with the ransom money and the unharmed hostage, Frances Howe, under a blanket on the floor of their car's back seat.

When a quickly mobilized police detail halted the car, the armed men surrendered without drawing their pistols, officers said.

Mrs. Howe, 50, told newsmen that one of the kidnapers earlier told her "if everything goes well, no one will be hurt."

Booked on suspicion of kidnaping for ransom were Robert Sheader, 32, who said he is a cabinet maker, and Edson Lagrand Little, 26, who said he is a meatcutter. Police said both gave addresses in nearby North Hollywood.

As the two were being booked, Mrs. Howe and her husband, E. Frank Howe, related details of the two-hour ordeal:

Shortly after Mrs. Howe had gotten their 15-year-old son off to school, the doorbell rang at their $70,000 hilltop home in Glendale, a suburb northeast of Los Angeles.

"Two men with guns grabbed me and pushed me inside and told me they wanted money from my husband's bank," she said.

They commanded her to telephone the Union Bank's branch in nearby Van Nuvs where her husband is vice president. On the phone, Howe was told to put $80,000 in a specified street trash can "if you want to see her alive."

When Howe said that much was ridiculous, the called suggested $50,000. The banker said he didn't even have that much.

"Take it from the bank," he was told.

"That's also ridiculous," Howe said. "How can I take it from the bank? I'll have to tell someone."

"Then tell somebody ... in case you think I'm not serious, I'll put your wife on the phone."

Mrs. Howe told her husband shakily: "This is no joke. They mean it."

Howe called police, got the money from the bank, drove to the drop location and left the money in a paper bag. Some 50 police staked out the location.

Rider On Postal, Pay Hike Bill

Rep. Smith Wins Fight In Bid To Ban Nepotism

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Iowa congressman has won his six-year fight for passage of legislation to ban nepotism in the federal government— from the smallest post office to Congress and the White House.

Rep. Neal Smith, a Democrat serving his fifth term, says the power of federal officials including judges to hire relatives or get jobs for them in other federal agencies is unfair to other jobseekers.

"I don't think the government gets its money's worth when you have that sort of thing," Smith said in an interview. "There are exceptions—some of these relatives work hard—but the bad overcomes the good."

Smith's antinepotism proposal was a rider to a bill raising the pay of federal workers and hiking postal rates. Congress passed the measure Tuesday and sent it to President Johnson, who's expected to sign it.

The measure will not affect relatives already working for congressmen and other officials.

The 47-year-old Smith's strategy in getting his rider through reflected an absence of enthusiasm for it in a Congress that, according to a recent Associated Press survey, includes some 50 members with relatives on their payrolls.

After it appeared his plan would die quietly in committee, he proposed it as a rider during routine debate on the postal-pay bill. Only about 80 of the 434 House members were on the floor and it went through.

Smith said some absent opponents of the plan weren't happy when they found out what he did. "But if they were interested in amendments they should have been there," he added.

Once the rider was in the bill, congressional sources said, it would have been embarrassing for any member to fight it.

"About half the relatives working in Congress do their work; half don't earn their pay," Smith said.

But the Iowa Democrat said his main concern was "widespread abuse" in the hiring of relatives by postmasters in small towns. In Iowa alone, he said, 111 postmasters have relatives on their payrolls.

"I don't know how many thousands of relatives there are in post offices nationwide," he said.

He said many people don't even apply for jobs in small post offices because everyone assumes the postmasters' relatives will get any job that opens up.

To Act On Redistricting

West Virginia Legislature Will Convene Week Early

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia's 1968 legislature will convene a week early Jan. 3 to act on congressional redistricting.

Gov. Hulett C. Smith made the announcement Tuesday, saying he has also invited the state's five congressmen to meet with the leaders of the legislature Jan. 4 to express their views on redistricting proposals.

The special session is aimed to reallign the state's five congressional districts to reflect more equality in population, said Smith.

West Virginia's present five-district allignment was adopted by the 1963 legislature after a population decline caused loss of one of the state's previous six seats in the House.

Smith noted the districts presently vary more than 30 per cent in population — from 422,046 persons in the Fourth District to 303,396 in the Fifth District.

"I believe it is important that we consider this matter before the legislature takes up the budget and other items which will be included in the regular session starting Jan. 10," said Smith. "Such a date also gives the congressmen themselves a chance to express their views in person before the second session of the 90th Congress convenes."

The announcement negates a Nov. 10 announcement by Smith that he had "abandoned" the idea of an extraordinary session before the regular legislative session. At the time Smith predicted that if a special session becomes necessary, he would call it after the regular 30-day session.

Statehouse observers feel the Democratic governor changed his mind because of a redistricting suit filed by five Republicans including two West Virginia delegates. The suit asks the federal court here to declare the state's congressional districts unconstitutional because of the population disparity.

The suit is scheduled to be heard before a three - judge panel here Dec. 19, but legislators have speculated that the court will continue the case until the legislature resolves the issue.

New Officers Selected For Dahlia Group

Officers for 1968 have been announced by the East Liverpool Floral and Dahlia Society following a report Monday night by Clark McCoy, chairman of the nominating committee. They are:

William Haugh, president; McCoy, vice president; J. T. Eccleston, second vice president; William Craine, corresponding secretary; Mike Vohar, financial secretary; Frank Richmond, recording secretary; Charles Glover, treasurer; Leo C. Lawrence, public relations; Mrs. Clarence Green, reporter; Lester Poe, property chairman, and Robert Hay, Fred Leughmyer, Dan McDonald, and Robert Burch, board members.

Winter care of azaleas and rhododendron was outlined during the meeting in the Potters Savings and Loan Co. annex, with Eccleston in charge.

Also discussed were pruning, insecticides, soil conditions, fertilization and mulching.

Richmond led singing by carols. Lunch was served by Glover and Leughmyer.

The next meeting will be Jan. 8.

Jurors Return Verdict Of$560

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury returned a $560 verdict Tuesday for Jerry Kirven of East Rochester, the plaintiff in an alleged breach of contract covering the sale of a Bayard property.

The verdict went against Raymond Scott of Minerva RD 2, who had filed a counter-petition for $10,000 for Kirven.

Kirven said he entered into an oral contract with Scott in 1965 to buy the property for $500 down and the balance of $5,000 on delivery of the deed, providing he was able to obtain financing.

Kirven said Scott agreed to return the $500 if the purchaser could not get a loan. Kirven said he was unable to borrow the money and Scott refused to return the down payment.

Scott said he relied on Kirven's promise to buy, bought a tract in Stark County and built a house on it.

The $60 above the amount Kirven asked is for interest. Judge Raymond S. Buzzard presided during the two-day trial.

Solo Parents Party Now Set For Friday

YOUNGSTOWN — The annual Christmas party for Solo Parents and their children will be held Friday evening instead of Saturday, as originally scheduled, at the YWCA, 25 W. Rayen Ave.

Supper will be served at 7, with the committee furnishing meat, rolls, coffee and milk. There will be entertainment and an exchange of gifts.

Prospective members — widowed, divorced or legally - separated men and women—and their children are invited to the party. Further information may be had by calling the YWCA.

Herbert Delays Action On Re-Election Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Paul M. Herbert, Ohio Supreme Court judge, said Tuesday he plans to await a report on a physical examination before deciding whether to seek re-election to the high court next year.

Herbert, 76, said he believes his health is excellent now "and I love the work," but added his final decision depends on the physical examination.

what kind of coffeemaker do you use?

It really doesn't matter.

Any coffeemaker can give you a good cup of coffee,
providing you use a fine fresh coffee
that is ground exactly right for your coffeemaker.

We've always known that the correct grind
is important to coffee flavor.
That's why, years ago, we developed Custom-Grinding.
That's why we don't have just one or two grinds
but seven different grinds...
to fit any coffeemaker,
including electric percolators, of course;
(Ask for medium-fine grind for electrics).

Custom-Grinding means a little extra work for us
and a little extra time for you.
(It takes 15 seconds to grind a pound).
But what a difference in flavor
those few seconds make.

You know, there's only one reason we insist
on selling custom-ground bean coffees...

Herbert Delays Action On Re-Election Bid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Paul M. Herbert, Ohio Supreme Court judge, said Tuesday he plans to await a report on a physical examination before deciding whether to seek re-election to the high court next year.

Herbert, 78, said he believes his health is excellent now "and I love the work," but added his final decision depends on the physical examination.

what kind of coffeemaker do you use?

It really doesn't matter.

Any coffeemaker can give you a good cup of coffee,
providing you use a fine fresh coffee
that is ground exactly right for your coffeemaker.

We've always known that the correct grind
is important to coffee flavor.
That's why, years ago, we developed Custom-Grinding.
That's why we don't have just one or two grinds
but seven different grinds...
to fit any coffeemaker,
including electric percolators, of course;
(Ask for medium-fine grind for electrics).

Custom-Grinding means a little extra work for us
and a little extra time for you.
(It takes 15 seconds to grind a pound).
But what a difference in flavor
those few seconds make.

You know, there's only one reason we insist
on selling custom-ground bean coffees...
WE CARE.

Chester Post Donates $350

A contribution of $350 for the Chester City Park was authorized by Chester American Legion Post 121 Monday night.

The funds will be used to match $350 raised by young people during dances at the park for a heating system for the park building.

In other business, Dale Allison, Robert House and Harry Hall were elected to three-year terms on the board of directors.

It was announced that the regular social meeting for members and guests of the post will be held Friday.

M. J. Sweeney, service officer, reported on visits to the VA Hospital at Oakland, Pittsburgh, and reported plans are complete for a party to be given the patients there Dec. 17. Post 121 is co-sponsor of this affair.

Adjutant Charles Morris, reporting on the current membership drive, said the post is ahead of last year in membership at this date.

A Gold Life Membership card was presented Past Comdr. Harry Huff by Morris.

A donation of $25 was authorized for the Salvation Army at Weirton. House, commander, presided. The next meeting will be Jan. 15.

Palestine Plans Kitchen Addition For Unity School

EAST PALESTINE — The East Palestine Board of Education today began advertising for bids for construction of a kitchen addition at the Unity Elementary School.

Bids are to be opened Jan. 11.

The board also plans to obtain bids soon for construction of a high school art room and new restrooms at the Unity School. Art courses are to be required by state law by the fall term of 1968.

At a meeting Monday night the board hired Harry Evans Jr. of Negley as custodian at the Negley School. He was given a 1-year contract at a salary of $1,433 for the halftime job. He replaces Raymond Noel who resigned.

The board also authorized purchase of equipment for the office of Principal Walter Boude at a cost of $632.

The board's reorganization meeting will be held Jan. 2.

Nike Club Hears Talk By Judge

"My High School Days" was the theme of the talk presented by Judge Louis Tobin when Nike Club of East Liverpool High School met Monday night at the Extended Care Center.

A graduate in 1925, the judge displayed the Keramos and pointed out the only extracurricular activities were the Hi-Y Club and the Hi-Tri Club. He compared sports, basketball in particular, and recalled streetcar travel.

Miss Martha Baxter, president, announced mothers will be guests at a special program in February and named Miss Debbie Emmerling as chairman of the event.

The Christmas party will be held Dec. 26 with Miss Bridgit Tobin of St. Clair Ave.

The group volunteered to man the Salvation Army kettles Saturday and will assist with the Child Health Clinic Christmas party arranged by the Business and Professional Women's Club Sunday at the Citadel.

A contribution was allocated for the food drive of the National Honor Society.

Refreshments were served by the social committee.

3 Detectives, Narcotics Agent Held For Dope Sale

NEW YORK (AP) — Three New York City detectives, a federal narcotics agent and two investigators for the Nassau County district attorney have been arrested on charges of selling narcotics.

U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau said Tuesday the six were named in three indictments returned by a grand jury during a continuing investigation of narcotics traffic.

All were assigned to combat trafficking in narcotics and they had accumulated outstanding records as undercover agents. Morgenthau said the suspects' activities hit at the very foundation of the antinarcotics program.

They were charged with having dealt in narcotics in the vicinity of the Supreme Court in Mineola, N.Y., on the streets of the Bronx and Harlem and in a Long Island motel.

The three city detectives, all of the narcotics bureau of the Police Department, were identified as Charles W. Kelly, 37, of Commack, Raymond R. Imp, 32, of Staten Island, and Marvin M. Moskowitz, 31, of Brooklyn.

Among them the three had 25 citations for their work.

They were charged with "concealing, selling and facilitating transportation" of cocaine about May 19 of this year.

The federal agent, Cleophus A. Robinson II, 36, of Staten Island, was charged with having sold marijuana three times this year—twice in October and once last week.

The Long Island investigators, both former Federal Bureau of Narcotics agents, were identified as Frank Dolce, 42, of Hicksville, and Jack Gohde, 37, of Massapequa Park.

They were charged with having sold narcotics in "the vicinity of the Supreme Court of Mineola, L.I." and with having connection with narcotics allegedly destined for sale in Harlem.

California's 1,289 Tops U.S. Viet Battle Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten states topped by California account for more than half the U.S. battle deaths after 81 months of Vietnam fighting, a Pentagon tabulation shows.

Leading in war deaths according to computer records are California, the most populous state, with 1,289, New York 988, Pennsylvania 814, Texas 789 and Illinois 703.

Rounding out the first 10 are Ohio 699, Michigan 584, Florida 459, New Jersey 397 and Indiana 377.

These states combine for 7,099 of the nation's 13,634 deaths listed as a result of hostile action in Southeast Asia between Jan. 1, 1961 and last Sept. 30, the last computer run available.

War deaths stood at 15,265 as of last Saturday.

In addition to the first 10, another 15 states have given up 200 or more men to the conflict. All the other states also have posted loosses ranging down to Alaska's 10.

Vietnam combat deaths also are listed for Guam, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

The basis for determining state losses is the serviceman's home of record, which may or may not be his birthplace. In most cases this is his native home but some servicemen list as homes of record their parent's current home or the military bases where wives remain.

For all practical purposes the home-of-record system is regarded as relatively accurate in indicating the various state losses.

There has been only a slight change in the ranking order of the states with the largest number of deaths since the first breakdown was made available last spring. Illinois moved barely ahead of Ohio as the No. 5 state.

California also tops the nonhostile death category with 227 out of an over-all total of 2,705 dead through September. The nonhostile tabulation includes such causes as accident plane crashes, truck wrecks, explosions, fires, drownings and other incidents not connected with enemy activities.

Behind California in nonhostile deaths are New York 195, Texas 176, Pennsylvania 173, Illinois 148 and Ohio 133.

The next 15 states according to numbers of hostile deaths are:

Rockefeller Has Best Chance, Scranton Says

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former Gov. William W. Scranton, who bid unsuccessfully for his party's presidential nomination in 1964, took a look Tuesday at the Republican picture for 1968 and came up with this assessment:

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller — "The person with the best chance of being elected and the most popular among the people."

Michigan Gov. George M. Romney — "His prospects have decreased, but he cannot be ruled out."

Former Vice-President Richard M. Nixon — "The man most popular among Republican politicians."

Scranton qualified his warm words for Rockefeller by cautioning that his appraisal was based on current public opinion polls, and that "a lot can happen between now and next summer."

The assessment appeared on the surface to contradict his previous declarations that Romney, today the only announced Republican hopeful, was the "best potential candidate" in his party.

But Scranton, a delegate to the state's constitutional convention, insisted there was nothing inconsisent about his position.

"I suppose I do stand by that statement (on Romney) because others who might be better are not interested in running," he said. He declined to elaborate.

Scranton generally has been tagged as a Romney man ever since August, when he stood by while Rockefeller read a statement to newsmen endorsing the Michigan governor for the nomination.

The scenario took place at Romney's Machinac Island vacation retreat, but Scranton has since insisted repeatedly that he was there merely as a house guest and was not a party to the Rockefeller statement.

Scranton, who left office last January, failed in a last-ditch attempt three years ago to wrest the party's presidential nomination from former U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. He since has renounced any intention of running again for a public office.

Scranton said Rockefeller appeared in such high favor with the voters because of his "good record" as a three-term governor of New York and the "widespread experience" he has gained in 35 years of public service.

On Romney, he observed: "I believe the tell-tale point will be how he does in the New Hampshire primary."

Scranton fended off all questions of whether he had urged Rockefeller to reverse his noncandidate role and get into the fight.

But he concluded: "I wouldn't say anybody's the leading candidate. I think anybody (including Rockefeller) can be nominated."

Asked about the bitter division in delegate ranks at the 1964 convention, Scranton replied:

"I think delegates to the next convention will be more interested in winning than in making an ideological point."

3 Detectives, Narcotics Agent Held For Dope Sale

NEW YORK (AP) — Three New York City detectives, a federal narcotics agent and two investigators for the Nassau County district attorney have been arrested on charges of selling narcotics.

U.S. Atty. Robert M. Morgenthau said Tuesday the six were named in three indictments returned by a grand jury during a continuing investigation of narcotics traffic.

All were assigned to combat trafficking in narcotics and they had accumulated outstanding records as undercover agents. Morgenthau said the suspects' activities hit at the very foundation of the antinarcotics program.

They were charged with having dealt in narcotics in the vicinity of the Supreme Court in Mineola, N.Y., on the streets of the Bronx and Harlem and in a Long Island motel.

The three city detectives, all of the narcotics bureau of the Police Department, were identified as Charles W. Kelly, 37, of Commack, Raymond R. Imp, 32, of Staten Island, and Marvin M. Moskowitz, 31, of Brooklyn.

Among them the three had 25 citations for their work.

They were charged with "concealing, selling and facilitating transportation" of cocaine about May 19 of this year.

The federal agent, Cleophus A. Robinson II, 36, of Staten Island, was charged with having sold marijuana three times this year—twice in October and once last week.

The Long Island investigators, both former Federal Bureau of Narcotics agents, were identified as Frank Dolce, 42, of Hicksville, and Jack Gohde, 37, of Massapequa Park.

They were charged with having sold narcotics in "the vicinity of the Supreme Court of Mineola, L.I." and with having connection with narcotics allegedly destined for sale in Harlem.

California's 1,289 Tops U.S. Viet Battle Deaths

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten states topped by California account for more than half the U.S. battle deaths after 81 months of Vietnam fighting, a Pentagon tabulation shows.

Leading in war deaths according to computer records are California, the most populous state, with 1,289, New York 988, Pennsylvania 814, Texas 789 and Illinois 703.

Rounding out the first 10 are Ohio 699, Michigan 584, Florida 459, New Jersey 397 and Indiana 377.

These states combine for 7,099 of the nation's 13,634 deaths listed as a result of hostile action in Southeast Asia between Jan. 1, 1961 and last Sept. 30, the last computer run available.

War deaths stood at 15,265 as of last Saturday.

In addition to the first 10, another 15 states have given up 200 or more men to the conflict. All the other states also have posted loosses ranging down to Alaska's 10.

Vietnam combat deaths also are listed for Guam, the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

The basis for determining state losses is the serviceman's home of record, which may or may not be his birthplace. In most cases this is his native home but some servicemen list as homes of record their parent's current home or the military bases where wives remain.

For all practical purposes the home-of-record system is regarded as relatively accurate in indicating the various state losses.

There has been only a slight change in the ranking order of the states with the largest number of deaths since the first breakdown was made available last spring. Illinois moved barely ahead of Ohio as the No. 5 state.

California also tops the nonhostile death category with 227 out of an over-all total of 2,705 dead through September. The nonhostile tabulation includes such causes as accident plane crashes, truck wrecks, explosions, fires, drownings and other incidents not connected with enemy activities.

Behind California in nonhostile deaths are New York 195, Texas 176, Pennsylvania 173, Illinois 148 and Ohio 133.

The next 15 states according to numbers of hostile deaths are:

Alabama 303, Georgia 352, Kentucky 256, Louisiana 200, Maryland 246, Massachussetts 346, Minnesota 224, Missouri 309, North Carolina 366, Oklahoma 208, South Carolina 213, Tennessee 332, Virginia 294, Washington 258 and Wisconsin 250.

Upside-Down Yule Tree

Fable For Today

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A fable for today:

As they had done for some decades, workmen at Rockefeller Center erected a 65-foot Christmas tree in the Plaza.

At dusk it was lit and cameramen came to chronicle the crowded ceremony for a nationwide television audience.

"Isn't there something odd about that tree?" asked an office worker hurrying toward the subway.

"What are you—a troublemaker?" replied his friend. "When you've seen one Christmas tree, you've seen 'em all."

But a lot of people murmured that the tree certainly did look odd.

"It's too narrow at the bottom," said one.

"No," said another. "It's just too wide at the top."

Then a little boy stepped up and shouted:

"I know whats wrong. They put the tree up upside down."

"Hush, Joey," cautioned his mother "People will think you're being silly."

"But Mama," said Joey's little sister, "he's right. They put the tree up upside down."

At first the grownups in the crowd did think the two children were being silly. But soon a hundred kids were dancing around the tree and chanting: "It's upside down! It's upside down!"

"By heavens, it is upside down!" said a dignified old man after carefully looking at the tree through his spectacles Then the grownups began to chant:

"It's upside down! It's really upside down!"

When word of the blunder reached Gus Eyssell, president of Rockefeller Center, Inc., he was mortified.

"Well, that's show biz," he said. "But we'll fix it."

He immediatelv sent 100 workmen to turn the tree right side up. But the children formed a circle around the tree to protect it.

"We like the upside-down tree," they said. "We want to keep it this way."

And keep it that way they did, for this is a world in which youth must be served.

Mrs. Esther DeTemple 424-5965

LISBON — The Altar and Rosary Society of St. George's Catholic Church held its Christmas party Monday night, with 69 attending.

The program included selections by the Senior Citizen Variety Group, featuring band, choir and chime selections. Mrs. Bessie Cullison was director, with Mrs. Ben Wilson at the piano. Solos were sung by Mrs. Wilson and Lou McKenna.

Mrs. Ilene Smith extended the welcome and thanked the members for their coopration during the past year.

Fr. Platt was presented a monetary gift for the building fund and he and his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Platt, received personal gifts from the group.

A perfect attendance prize was awarded Mrs. John Drovdlic and other prizes went to Mrs. Wesley Coontz, Mrs. John Arsuffi, Mrs. Tom Mercina, Mrs. Emerson Hively and Clyde McDevitt.

Lunch was served buffet style from a table laid in red net and draped at the front with tinsel garlands. The center was a sleigh filed with poinsettias and red tapers, with angel figurines placed at intervals.

The next meeting will be Jan. 8 at the parish hall.

Club Holds Yule Dinner

Twenty attended the annual Christmas dinner party of the Sunshine Club Monday night at the Hotel Wick.

Mrs. Walter McDevitt and Mrs. Fred Rose decorated the table with large red paper bells and at each place setting was a hand - crochted bell topped with a sprig of holly which had been made by Mrs. McDevitt.

Following dinner, a short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charles Grubbs, president. Carols were sung and devotions concluded the event.

The next meeting will be Jan. 18.

Entertains Monday Club

Miss Ruth Bye entertained the Monday Club at her home on W. Lincoln Way, with 15 present.

Mrs. Ray Hempstead was in charge of the program and reviewed the book "A Christmas Pony" by Mrs. McCauley.

Games and carol singing preceded lunch, served by the hostess.

The home was decorated in keeping with the season and the satin balls on the Christmas tree served as favors as the guests left for their homes.

The next meeting will be Jan. 8.

Victory Club Holds Dinner

The Victory Club held a dinner at the Court Restaurant on E. Lincoln Way Monday evening, then reconvened to the home of Mrs. Jeannette Figley for two tables of 500. Scoring honors went to Mrs. John Chillik and Mrs. Victor Williams. Mrs. Christina Dunlap was a guest.

They will meet next with Mrs. Florence Stacey of N. Jefferson St.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I keep the yolks of boiled eggs light in color?

A. — The yolks of the eggs will not darken if the water is boiling before the eggs are placed in it.

Q.—How can I restiffen the soft, flabby bristles on some of my hair brushes?

A.—By swishing them through a water solution containing a little alum.

Rock Has Unique Role In Youths' Friendship

WILTON, Conn. (AP) — Chris Browne, 15, in junior high school here, wrote his name and address and the date on a rock on a beach in Nice, France, during the summer.

In early November he got a phone call from Jim Gardiner, 17, high school student here. Gardiner also had been on vacation in Nice. He'd found the rock, read the faded indelible markings and brought the rock to Wilton.

The two planned to meet for the first time for an exchanging of the rock.

Rome's Colosseum, or Flavian Amphitheater, had seats for 45,000 or more persons.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I keep the yolks of boiled eggs light in color?

A. — The yolks of the eggs will not darken if the water is boiling before the eggs are placed in it.

Q.—How can I restiffen the soft, flabby bristles on some of my hair brushes?

A.—By swishing them through a water solution containing a little alum.

Rock Has Unique Role In Youths' Friendship

WILTON, Conn. (AP) — Chris Browne, 15, in junior high school here, wrote his name and address and the date on a rock on a beach in Nice, France, during the summer.

In early November he got a phone call from Jim Gardiner, 17, high school student here. Gardiner also had been on vacation in Nice. He'd found the rock, read the faded indelible markings and brought the rock to Wilton.

The two planned to meet for the first time for an exchanging of the rock.

Rome's Colosseum, or Flavian Amphitheater, had seats for 45,000 or more persons.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Please tell me what's wrong with a woman who has an asthmatic child and yet insists on keeping two chipmunks, a dog, a cat, a rabbit, a flying squirrel and three ducks. All this livestock walks around loose in the living room.

The child forever is wheezing and now is broken out all over with a terrible-looking rash.

I've told her if she would get rid of the zoo her boy might get well. She says I'm crazy.

Please give me your opinion on whether or not this boy could be allergic to the animals. She might listen to you. — A FREIND.

Dear Friend: It is more than likely that the boy's allergy is related to the zoo, but only a doctor can say for certain. If the woman has not taken the boy to a physician, I certainly hope she'll do so at once.

Who's Sorry Now?

Dear Ann: I'd like to comment on the letters you get from mothers who do not approve of their daughters' boy friends. When my daughters are old enough to have boy friends, I'll remember my own bitter past.

I was 18 and a high school graduate when I fell for a 30-year-old man who was separated from his wife. My mother kept telling me, "He's too old for you. He's no good. He'll never marry you."

I was determined to prove to my mother that I COULD get him to marry me. I nagged him into getting a divorce (which I know now he didn't want) and I even paid for it to knock down his excuse that he didn't have the money for a divorce.

That was eight years ago and now we have three children. The man is no good and I'm miserable. I've left him twice, but with three kids it's too hard to go it alone, so now I'm back with him. My mother keeps saying, "You made your bed. Now lie in it. If you'd listened to me, you wouldn't be in this mess."

The truth is, if she had kept quiet, I would not be in this mess. Say so, please. — DETERMINED.

-:-

DEAR D: The most difficult thing for a mother to learn is when to lay off. Mothers — and fathers, too speak out and warn their children when they see them heading in the wrong direction. But having spoken out, they should keep quiet. Repeated nagging will serve only to drive their children to some rebellious act which, as you know so well, can be disastrous.

Bearded Lady

Dear Ann: I came to work in this office two months ago. Everyone has been terribly kind to me, especially a woman who is about 10 years my senior.

This woman would be quite attractive if she didn't have a mustache. It's the first thing I noticed about her when we met. Others have mentioned it also, so it's not my imagination.

She's so alert about so many things it's hard for me to understand why she is unaware of this. I know of a good cream that removes unwanted hair. I use it myself. Shall I mention it? — CELESTE.

Dear Cel: Yes, it would be a real act of friendship. Some people who seem alert about many things don't know what's going on right under their noses.

-:-

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

The Blizzard of 1888 concentrated on New York City. Snow began sifting down Sunday night, March 11. By Monday morning, drifts were knee-high. Before noon, every horsecar, cable car and elevated train had stopped running. Firemen raised ladders to rescue passengers from stalled elevated trains.

Action Clears Insurance On County Staff

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners voted Monday to make group hospitalization and medical insurance available to all employes beginning Jan. 1.

County Auditor Kenneth Bell said he estimates there will be approximately 215 family type policies and 90 single policies. Some employes will not take the insurance because they already have protection.

The initial rate for the Blue Cross and Blue Shield policies will be $21.15 for families and $8.60 for individuals, Bell said.

He said the monthly payments will be about $80,000 with $52,000 coming from the funds of special departments and $28,000 from the county general fund.

Departments paying the premiums of their employes will be the County Board of Education, Welfare Department, Mental Health Clinic, Tuberculosis Control Clinic, County Health Department and the county engineer's office and highway department. Officers, administrators and elected officials are eligible under the group plan.

John Ursu, county engineer, early last month asked the commissioners for authority to pay group insurance premiums for his employes. Commissioners said they would study a group plan for all employes, and took action yesterday after a survey of county employes and conferences with insurance representatives.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Being in the tile business, we thought your readers might be interested in these few tips on the care of ceramic tile.

Glazed ceramic tile on walls seldom requires special cleaning except to remove a film which may result from the splashing of soapy water. Or which may be caused by the combination of soap and minerals in "hard" water.

In such cases, the best cleaner is a soapless detergent, although a scouring powder can be used also.

If cleaning has been neglected to the extent that there is a heavy accumulation of dirty film, it may be necessary to use a stiff bristle brush. Do not expect that a single application of detergent will remove a stubborn coating of grime that has accumulated over a period of time.

Be sure to rinse the tile thoroughly and a wiping dry with an old turkish towel will add sparkle to the wall.

As for heel marks and smudges that remain after a simple mopping, they may be removed by scrubbing with an abrasive type cleaners, and application of kerosene, or by rubbing with a soft rubber pencil eraser.

TILE COUNCIL OF AMERICA.

Sir, you're great.

I especially loved your word "kerosene"!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When buying Christmas gifts, and doubtful of correct size, I take the price tag off the article, turn it over and write the name of the recipient.

If any exchange has to be made, I then have the tag to go by, size, cost and who the gift was for and where it came from right at my fingertips.

MRS. CHAS. POSEY.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a daughter who had problem hair until one day a friend of ours told us to put one teaspoon of baby oil in her shampoo, shake the bottle and the use it.

You have no idea how much difference it made in her hair. It's absolutely beautiful.

Other mothers might try it if the need arises. There is nothing to lose but a teaspoon of oil and within three weeks you will notice the difference.

MINERVA HERNANDEZ.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a hint for preparing candied yams.

Pour pineapple juice (can be kept from leftover sliced pineapple) over the peeled yams after adding oleo, sugar and spices. Let the yams marinate overnight and bake the next day.

This gives them a different taste and your guests or family will beg for more!-ANNA MOORE

It's the greatest. I also tried canned yams and poured orange juice and cinnamon over one dish. It was great, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I taught nursing for years and many times have told the students to rub straight baking soda on the outside of their white uniform's under-arms.

It's a wonderful, inexpensive deodorizer.

A READER.

Many doctors have also written about this. One can also use a powder puff and dust it under the arms like talcum powder.

Many gentlemen dust their feet with it, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Since we entertain a lot I keep a little black book with the names of guests, both frequent and infrequent.

For example: I make a notation of whether the guest is left-or-right-handed for seating at the dinner table; if they like coffee black, or with cream and sugar.

The guests are delighted and naturally the appreciation is loved by the hostess . . . me.

"YOUR FRIEND".

I'll bet every South paw just loves you!

Ever had the guest next to you try to take a bite at the same time you did? It's a mess when you hit elbows and a fork drops in your lap. Bless you.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Being in the tile business, we thought your readers might be interested in these few tips on the care of ceramic tile.

Glazed ceramic tile on walls seldom requires special cleaning except to remove a film which may result from the splashing of soapy water. Or which may be caused by the combination of soap and minerals in "hard" water.

In such cases, the best cleaner is a soapless detergent, although a scouring powder can be used also.

If cleaning has been neglected to the extent that there is a heavy accumulation of dirty film, it may be necessary to use a stiff bristle brush. Do not expect that a single application of detergent will remove a stubborn coating of grime that has accumulated over a period of time.

Be sure to rinse the tile thoroughly and a wiping dry with an old turkish towel will add sparkle to the wall.

As for heel marks and smudges that remain after a simple mopping, they may be removed by scrubbing with an abrasive type cleaners, and application of kerosene, or by rubbing with a soft rubber pencil eraser.

Sir, you're great.

I especially loved your word "kerosene"!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: When buying Christmas gifts, and doubtful of correct size, I take the price tag off the article, turn it over and write the name of the recipient.

If any exchange has to be made, I then have the tag to go by, size, cost and who the gift was for and where it came from right at my fingertips.

MRS. CHAS. POSEY.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a daughter who had problem hair until one day a friend of ours told us to put one teaspoon of baby oil in her shampoo, shake the bottle and the use it.

You have no idea how much difference it made in her hair. It's absolutely beautiful.

Other mothers might try it if the need arises. There is nothing to lose but a teaspoon of oil and within three weeks you will notice the difference.

MINERVA HERNANDEZ.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a hint for preparing candied yams.

Pour pineapple juice (can be kept from leftover sliced pineapple) over the peeled yams after adding oleo, sugar and spices. Let the yams marinate overnight and bake the next day.

This gives them a different taste and your guests or family will beg for more!-ANNA MOORE

It's the greatest. I also tried canned yams and poured orange juice and cinnamon over one dish. It was great, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: I taught nursing for years and many times have told the students to rub straight baking soda on the outside of their white uniform's under-arms.

It's a wonderful, inexpensive deodorizer.

A READER.

Many doctors have also written about this. One can also use a powder puff and dust it under the arms like talcum powder.

Many gentlemen dust their feet with it, too.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Since we entertain a lot I keep a little black book with the names of guests, both frequent and infrequent.

For example: I make a notation of whether the guest is left-or-right-handed for seating at the dinner table; if they like coffee black, or with cream and sugar.

The guests are delighted and naturally the appreciation is loved by the hostess . . . me.

Development Of Electronic Car Disclosed By Two Firms

DETROIT (AP) — Development of an electronic automobile, shaped like an arrowhead and which its builders say will have, a cruising speed of 50 miles per hour and a range of 150 miles without recharging, was announced Tuesday.

American Motors and Gulton Industries of Metuchen, N. J. disclosed details of the joint project.

An operational model of the electronic car will be road tested within a year, reported Roy D. Chapin Jr., chairman of the board of American Motors. No price was announced.

A prototype of the small, three-passenger commuter car was unveiled at a news conference. It is called the "Amitron" and has a newly developed long - life Gulton lithium battery system.

"This joint project is the result of the development of this new power system. It could eliminate many problems which to this point have made electric - type cars impractical," Chapin said.

Dr. Leslie K. Gulton, president of Gulton Industries, said "for the first time in a half-century, the gasoline - burning automobile is about to share the road with an electrically powered car whose performance needs no apologies."

"We make no claim that the forthcoming electronic vehicle is about to put conventional cars out of business. What we do say is that we have made considerable strides toward the creation of an electronic car with characteristics far superior to any that have thus far been seen," he said.

The new lithium - nickel fluoride battery system is lighter than batteries used in other experimental cars, Gulton said.

Ford and General Motors recently showed electric car projects on which they are experimenting.

Gulton said batteries made from lithium, the world's lightest metal, can store 10 times as much energy as conventional lead - acid batteries of the same size.

He said the batteries are expected to provide acceleration for zero to 50 mph in 20 seconds.

Gulton said the complete system can be fully recharged about 1,000 times over a period of three years. The batteries can be recharged in four hours.

The prototype has an over-all length of 85 inches, a width of 69½ inches and a height of 46 inches. It has a wheelbase of 60 inches and a tread of 60 inches. It has eight-inch wheels.

Don Migliore, son of Mrs. Rose Migliore of 620 Penn Ave., Midland, has been promoted to manager of the Revco Drugstore at Youngstown, where he has been employed as a pharmacist for two years.

A 1960 graduate of Lincoln High School, he was graduated from Ohio Northern University in 1965. He and Mrs. Migliore, the former Judy Coble of Ohioville, are the parents of two children.

Communicating Again

NEW DELHI (AP) — For the first time in more than two years, it is again possible to place a telephone call or send a telegram between India and Pakistan. The two countries severed their communications connections in September 1965 when they went to war over Kashmir. The links were restored Nov. 1, 1967, after several months of negotiations.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I recondition my furs?

A.—Professional treatment is best, but if you wish, you can try this: Wet the fur with a hairbrush, then brush against the nap. Hang in the air until dry, and beat lightly with the right side of a rattan. Finally, comb the hair out carefully into place.

Q.—How can I clean the bottom of copper pans when I am out of copper polish?

A.—Try pouring on some catsup, rubbing this well over the metal — and the tarnish will vanish like magic.

Q.—What can I do if whipping cream looks as though it is not going to whip?

A.—Add three or four drops of lemon juice or a bit of plain gelatin powder to it.

Q.—How can I reshape some of my old, wornout paint brushes?

A.—Soak the bristles of these brushes in a water-soluble glue, shape, and allow to dry thoroughly. Then rub the bristle tips over coarse sandpaper to the shape desired. Finally remove the glue by setting the brush in hot water.

Q.—Please suggest a way to renovate floors that have become faded in spots.

A.—Try mixing brown shoe polish with your floor wax, and applying to the spots. Gives your floor an antique look.

Q.—How can I clean automobile upholstery, leather and nylon?

A.—Whip up a solution of detergent and ammonia, and using just the suds and a clean cloth or brush, go over the upholstery with this. Then wipe over the cleaned areas with another cloth rinsed out of clear water. Usually does a fine job.

NOTICE

To the members of the City Hospital Association. Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of The City Hospital Association of East Liverpool, Ohio, will be held at the hospital, 415 W. Fifth Street, on Tuesday, January 2, 1968, between the hours of 7 and 9 P.M. for the purpose of electing five trustees and to transact such other business as may be presented for consideration.

ROBERT E. GOODMAN
Secretary-Treasurer
E. L. Review: Dec. 13, 1967.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 42, 1967

AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH THE SALARY OF THE SOLICITOR OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO:

SECTION 1. That on and after January 1, 1968, the salary of the Solicitor of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) per year, payable semi-monthly.

SECTION 2. That any ordinance or parts of any ordinance inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect immediately upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that said salary increase is necessary to continue the efficient operation of the office of City Solicitor of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and to preserve the public peace, health and safety of the citizens thereof.

Passed this 30th day of November, 1967.

Development Of Electronic Car Disclosed By Two Firms

DETROIT (AP) — Development of an electronic automobile, shaped like an arrowhead and which its builders say will have, a cruising speed of 50 miles per hour and a range of 150 miles without recharging, was announced Tuesday.

American Motors and Gulton Industries of Metuchen, N. J. disclosed details of the joint project.

An operational model of the electronic car will be road tested within a year, reported Roy D. Chapin Jr., chairman of the board of American Motors. No price was announced.

A prototype of the small, three-passenger commuter car was unveiled at a news conference. It is called the "Amitron" and has a newly developed long - life Gulton lithium battery system.

"This joint project is the result of the development of this new power system. It could eliminate many problems which to this point have made electric - type cars impractical," Chapin said.

Dr. Leslie K. Gulton, president of Gulton Industries, said "for the first time in a half-century, the gasoline - burning automobile is about to share the road with an electrically powered car whose performance needs no apologies."

"We make no claim that the forthcoming electronic vehicle is about to put conventional cars out of business. What we do say is that we have made considerable strides toward the creation of an electronic car with characteristics far superior to any that have thus far been seen," he said.

The new lithium - nickel fluoride battery system is lighter than batteries used in other experimental cars, Gulton said.

Ford and General Motors recently showed electric car projects on which they are experimenting.

Gulton said batteries made from lithium, the world's lightest metal, can store 10 times as much energy as conventional lead - acid batteries of the same size.

He said the batteries are expected to provide acceleration for zero to 50 mph in 20 seconds.

Gulton said the complete system can be fully recharged about 1,000 times over a period of three years. The batteries can be recharged in four hours.

The prototype has an over-all length of 85 inches, a width of 69½ inches and a height of 46 inches. It has a wheelbase of 60 inches and a tread of 60 inches. It has eight-inch wheels.

Don Migliore Named Drugstore Manager

Don Migliore, son of Mrs. Rose Migliore of 620 Penn Ave., Midland, has been promoted to manager of the Revco Drug store at Youngstown, where he has been employed as a pharmacist for two years.

A 1960 graduate of Lincoln High School, he was graduated from Ohio Northern University in 1965. He and Mrs. Migliore, the former Judy Coble of Ohioville, are the parents of two children.

Communicating Again

NEW DELHI (AP) — For the first time in more than two years, it is again possible to place a telephone call or send a telegram between India and Pakistan. The two countries severed their communications connections in September 1965 when they went to war over Kashmir. The links were restored Nov. 1, 1967, after several months of negotiations.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I recondition my furs?

A.—Professional treatment is best, but if you wish, you can try this: Wet the fur with a hairbrush, then brush against the nap. Hang in the air until dry, and beat lightly with the right side of a rattan. Finally, comb the hair out carefully into place.

Q.—How can I clean the bottom of copper pans when I am out of copper polish?

A.—Try pouring on some catsup, rubbing this well over the metal — and the tarnish will vanish like magic.

Q.—What can I do if whipping cream looks as though it is not going to whip?

A.—Add three or four drops of lemon juice or a bit of plain gelatin powder to it.

Q.—How can I reshape some of my old, wornout paint brushes?

A.—Soak the bristles of these brushes in a water-soluble glue, shape, and allow to dry thoroughly. Then rub the bristle tips over coarse sandpaper to the shape desired. Finally remove the glue by setting the brush in hot water.

Q.—Please suggest a way to renovate floors that have become faded in spots.

A.—Try mixing brown shoe polish with your floor wax, and applying to the spots. Gives your floor an antique look.

Q.—How can I clean automobile upholstery, leather and nylon?

A.—Whip up a solution of detergent and ammonia, and using just the suds and a clean cloth or brush, go over the upholstery with this. Then wipe over the cleaned areas with another cloth rinsed out of clear water. Usually does a fine job.

E. L. Review: Dec. 13, 1967.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 42, 1967
AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH THE SALARY OF THE SOLICITOR OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO.
BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO:
SECTION 1. That on and after January 1, 1968, the salary of the Solicitor of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, shall be Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000.00) per year, payable semi-monthly.
SECTION 2. That any ordinance or parts of any ordinance inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.
SECTION 3. That this ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure and shall take effect immediately upon passage and approval. Said emergency lies in the fact that said salary increase is necessary to continue the efficient operation of the office of City Solicitor of the City of East Liverpool, Ohio, and to preserve the public peace, health and safety of the citizens thereof.
Passed this 30th day of November, 1967.

Junior Editors Quiz on FOG

QUESTION: What is fog and what causes it?

ANSWER: To understand what fog is, thing of a cloud resting close to and touching the ground. Walk through it and you'd be walking through fog. If you could easily see through it, however, it would be called mist. In the picture, Billy's father is about to explain the cause of fog. The moist warm air coming out of the kettle, he will go on to say, is striking the cooler air of the kitchen. This causes the water vapor in the warm air to condense or become visible as steam or fog.

In the same way, fog is often formed when moist warm air (lower left) blows from the land over a colder ocean or over snow and ice. This is advection fog. On clear nights, fog may be formed another way, as heat from the ground radiates or escapes into the cooler, upper air (lower right). Still another way fog may form is when, in clear weather at night, light winds blow cool air along the surface, mixing it with the warm air and causing the water vapor to condense as fog.

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Dec. 13, the 347th day of 1967. There are 18 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1577, the English navigator, Sir Francis Drake, left Plymouth England, on his history-making voyage around the world.

On this date:

In 1781, a day of prayer and thanksgiving was observed throughout the United States to mark the end of the Revolutionary War.

In 1862, during the Civil War, Union troops were defeated by Confederates on Marye's Heights outside Fredericksburg, Va.

In 1918, in World War I, soldiers of the U.S. 3rd Army crossed the Rhine River at Coblenz, Germany.

In 1937, Japanese soldiers captured Nanking, China, and began looting the city.

In 1944, a Japanese suicide plane crashed into the U.S. cruiser Nashville during World War II, killing 133 crewmen.

In 1958, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson rejected the suggestion that he run for president in 1960. He said he did not think anyone from the South would be elected.

Ten years ago: The United States and the Soviet Union reached tentative agreement for an exchange of education specialists.

Five years ago: Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko called for trust and cooperation between the United States and the Soviet Union.

One year ago: West Germany's new chancellor, Kurt Georg Kiesinger, said he would work with France toward a united Europe but would not cut U.S. ties.

'Project 100,000'

Study Planned To Salvage 100,000 For Military

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans long-range studies to evaluate social effects of its new project to salvage 100,000 poverty-scarred youth each year for military service.

Since Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara announced Project 100,000 last year the services have accepted 49,000 men who would otherwise be rejected for mental or physical reasons.

This year the goal is to reach the full 100,000 annual rate. The services have just received their quotas: Army 70,400; Navy 11,000 and the Air Force and Marines 9,300 each.

These "new standards" men, as they are called, are getting close attention and instruction to help them get through basic training and, in the process, acquire a job skill intended to make them productive later in society.

A small percentage is receiving minor surgery or other medical treatment to correct health problems which otherwise would have made them unfit for military duty.

"I don't want to prejudge the data but we are encouraged by the training results," I. M. Greenberg, director of Project 100,000, said in a Monday interview.

In the next few months the new standards men—they are not identified or singled out, to avoid any stigma—will be watched as they perform their assigned jobs in operating units, some in Vietnam.

Beyond that, the Pentagon is planning a decade of regular reports on new standards men after they leave the service to see what impact the special training has had on their performance in society.

Greenberg said the Defense Department is now working out a system of tracking all individuals who are involved in Project 100,000 through the military reserve units to which all will eventually be attached.

In order to make the long-range evaluation valid, the Pentagon will hire a private firm to follow the social progress of another group of individuals who barely failed, for one reason or another, to get in the project 100,000 program, Greenberg said.

This probably will involve a sampling of perhaps 2,500 men whose backgrounds are similar to the new standards individuals in geographical area, race and education. This second group would be interviewed by the firm mainly about their jobs, or lack of them.

The program has McNamara's personal stamp of approval. He has said many of the men rejected for service are victims of "the slow and silent poison of the poverty virus."

In a Denver speech last month the Pentagon chief noted about one-third of the 1.8 million young men who reach draft age each year fail to qualify for the draft. Most flunk the aptitude tests.

Not only does this mean the burden of military service is not being equally shared, McNamara said. He saw a worse implication.

"If so massive a number of young men were educationally unqualified for even the least complicated tasks of military service, how could they reasonably be expected to lead productive and rewarding lives in an increasingly technological and highly skilled society?" McNamara asked.

In October 1966 the Pentagon revised military entrance standards and began accepting men who:

—Failed to pass standard written tests but who could be brought up to accept standards through schooling and on-the-job training.

—Were disqualified for physical defects that could be remedied in six weeks.

Man Receives Medal After 20-Year Period

HONOLULU (AP) — It took 20 years of waiting, but John A. Weber of Honolulu received a Norwegian medal of merit for rescuing a man 650 miles off the Massachusetts coast.

Weber was a pilot of a Martin Mariner for the Coast Guard in 1947 and made an emergency landing on a rough, choppy ocean to take a sick Norwegian sailor off a ship.

Later Congress objected to the awarding of foreign medals to Americans. However, 20 years later, the red tape removed, Weber received the medal from Rear Adm. Benjamin F. Engel, U.S. Coast Guard commandant in Honolulu.

For Emergency Use, Can Opener, That Is

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's new executive airplane has some special emergency equipment — a can opener.

Attached to the opener is a red tag reading: "For emergency use only."

It all came about when State Aeronautics Director Howard Vest and state pilots Jon Auer and Bob Helig went to Oklahoma City to pick up the plane. When the pilots climbed aboard for a routine check, they found themselves locked inside because of a malfunctioning door lock.

They had to use an emergency hatch to escape. The "special equipment" appeared unannounced a few days later.

Study Planned To Salvage 100,000 For Military

By BOB HORTON
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon plans long-range studies to evaluate social effects of its new project to salvage 100,000 poverty-scarred youth each year for military service.

Since Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara announced Project 100,000 last year the services have accepted 49,000 men who would otherwise be rejected for mental or physical reasons.

This year the goal is to reach the full 100,000 annual rate. The services have just received their quotas: Army 70,400; Navy 11,000 and the Air Force and Marines 9,300 each.

These "new standards" men, as they are called, are getting close attention and instruction to help them get through basic training and, in the process, acquire a job skill intended to make them productive later in society.

A small percentage is receiving minor surgery or other medical treatment to correct health problems which otherwise would have made them unfit for military duty.

"I don't want to prejudge the data but we are encouraged by the training results," I. M. Greenberg, director of Project 100,000, said in a Monday interview.

In the next few months the new standards men—they are not identified or singled out, to avoid any stigma—will be watched as they perform their assigned jobs in operating units, some in Vietnam.

Beyond that, the Pentagon is planning a decade of regular reports on new standards men after they leave the service to see what impact the special training has had on their performance in society.

Greenberg said the Defense Department is now working out a system of tracking all individuals who are involved in Project 100,000 through the military reserve units to which all will eventually be attached.

In order to make the long-range evaluation valid, the Pentagon will hire a private firm to follow the social progress of another group of individuals who barely failed, for one reason or another, to get in the project 100,000 program, Greenberg said.

This probably will involve a sampling of perhaps 2,500 men whose backgrounds are similar to the new standards individuals in geographical area, race and education. This second group would be interviewed by the firm mainly about their jobs, or lack of them.

The program has McNamara's personal stamp of approval. He has said many of the men rejected for service are victims of "the slow and silent poison of the poverty virus."

In a Denver speech last month the Pentagon chief noted about one-third of the 1.8 million young men who reach draft age each year fail to qualify for the draft. Most flunk the aptitude tests.

Not only does this mean the burden of military service is not being equally shared, McNamara said. He saw a worse implication.

"If so massive a number of young men were educationally unqualified for even the least complicated tasks of military service, how could they reasonably be expected to lead productive and rewarding lives in an increasingly technological and highly skilled society?" McNamara asked.

In October 1966 the Pentagon revised military entrance standards and began accepting men who:

—Failed to pass standard written tests but who could be brought up to accept standards through schooling and on-the-job training.

—Were disqualified for physical defects that could be remedied in six weeks.

Man Receives Medal After 20-Year Period

HONOLULU (AP) — It took 20 years of waiting, but John A. Weber of Honolulu received a Norwegian medal of merit for rescuing a man 650 miles off the Massachusetts coast.

Weber was a pilot of a Martin Mariner for the Coast Guard in 1947 and made an emergency landing on a rough, choppy ocean to take a sick Norwegian sailor off a ship.

Later Congress objected to the awarding of foreign medals to Americans. However, 20 years later, the red tape removed, Weber received the medal from Rear Adm. Benjamin F. Engel, U.S. Coast Guard commandant in Honolulu.

For Emergency Use, Can Opener, That Is

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraska's new executive airplane has some special emergency equipment — a can opener.

Attached to the opener is a red tag reading: "For emergency use only."

It all came about when State Aeronautics Director Howard Vest and state pilots Jon Auer and Bob Helig went to Oklahoma City to pick up the plane. When the pilots climbed aboard for a routine check, they found themselves locked inside because of a malfunctioning door lock.

They had to use an emergency hatch to escape. The "special equipment" appeared unannounced a few days later.
